

- Polling places may be divided into compartments, &c. 15. On the requisition made at least one day before the polling day by any of the candidates, or their duly authorized agents, the Returning Officer shall direct the Deputy Returning Officers, or any of them, to provide for booths or compartments at any of the polling places, so that not more than one hundred and fifty electors may have to vote at each booth or compartment; but the candidate, or the agent making such requisition, shall be liable for the expenses incident thereto, and shall tender at the time of making requisition a reasonable sum of money to cover such expenses.
- Case of failure to make electoral sub-divisions. 16. In case of failure on the part of any Municipal Council to divide any City, Town or other Local Municipality into Electoral Sub-divisions, proportioned to the number of electors, as provided by the thirteenth section of this Act, or in case the delay to appeal from the division should not have expired before the reception of the Writ, the Returning Officer shall provide for as many booths or compartments for polling the votes of the electors at the several polling places in such City, Town or other Local Municipality, as shall correspond as nearly as may be, with the number of polling places which would have been required if the said City, Town or other Local Municipality had been sub-divided into the proper number of Electoral Sub-divisions;
- Duplicate of voters' list to be furnished to each polling booth. 2. Whenever separate booths shall have been provided for, at any polling place, a copy or duplicate of the voters' list required by law shall be furnished for each booth, and the Deputy Returning Officers shall make such arrangements as to enable all voters whose surnames shall begin with the same letter of the alphabet, to record their votes in the same booth or compartment, as nearly as may be consistent with such arrangement, the number of votes to be polled at each booth shall be as hereinbefore provided.
- Necessary Deputy Returning Officers to be appointed. 17. In all cases in which a polling place shall be divided into several booths or compartments, the Returning Officer shall appoint such number of Deputy Returning Officers as he may find necessary to carry on the election properly.
- Where only electors may vote. 18. The electors shall only vote at the polling place established for the sub-division wherein the property on which they are qualified to vote is situated. And if the polling place is divided into separate booths, then in the booth or compartment assigned to that portion of the voters' lists on which their name is to be found.
- Transmission of poll books. 19. The several Deputy Returning Officers shall, on or before the third day next after the close of the polls, transmit the poll-books to the Returning Officer in the manner provided for by law.
- No day for closing election nor any proclamation, &c. 20. The fourth and fifth sub-sections of section forty-two of the said Act are hereby repealed, and no day for the closing of the election shall be fixed by the Returning Officer; nor shall there be any public and open proclamation of the candidate or candidates elected, and so much of the sixty-fifth section, or any other part of the said Act as requires such proclamation, or the counting of votes in the presence of the electors, or as refers to any adjournment for that purpose, or as depends on the fixing of the day for closing the election, is hereby repealed; and the Returning Officer shall, so soon as he shall have received all the poll-books used at the election, ascertain in the manner provided by law, the total number of votes taken and received for each candidate at the election at all the polling places, as certified and sworn to by the several Deputy Returning Officers, and shall within forty-
