

Service of the declaration at the domicile elect of the Persons so attached shall be sufficient to hold them to appear &c

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that service of the declaration of any such demand, upon the domicile elect of any person whose body or moveable effects shall have been so attached, shall be sufficient to hold such Defendant to appear and plead to the action, the declaration being served at such domicile elect, in the usual and customary manner, and certificate of the service thereof made before the Court accordingly, any Law, Statute, custom or usage, to the contrary heretofore, in any wise notwithstanding.

Capias and Affidavit and other proceedings &c. to be transmitted to the Prothonotary of the Court at Montreal

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every Capias or attachment which shall so have issued, as well as the affidavit, in virtue whereof the same shall have issued, together with the bail, bond or recognizance, in all cases where bail may have been offered and accepted, shall by the Justice of the Peace before whom the proceedings shall have taken place, be forthwith transmitted to the Prothonotary of the Court of King's Bench at Montreal, to be filed in the cause and to be by him kept and preserved among the records of the said Court for the purposes of Justice.

Bail and recognizance so taken to have the same effect in favor of the Plaintiff as if issued from the Court

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the bail and recognizance that may so be taken shall be of the like avail and legal effect to all intents and purposes in favor of the Plaintiff, as if the same had been given by the Defendant, pursuant to any capias or attachment issuing from His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, in the usual and ordinary course of Law heretofore existing.

Duration of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act shall and be remain in force until the first day of May one thousand eight hundred , and no longer.