

thereof exposed, in such manner as to be clearly visible to purchasers, a label marked "oleomargarine" in printed capital letters not less than one-half inch square.

(2) Every person selling oleomargarine by retail in packages other than packages so marked shall in every case deliver the same to the purchaser in a paper wrapper on which is printed in capital block letters not less than half an inch long and distinctly legible the word "Oleomargarine." No other printed matter shall appear on the label.

(3) In all hotels, restaurants and public eating houses where oleomargarine is served there shall be prominently displayed in some conspicuous place a placard containing the words: "Oleomargarine served here," in capital block letters, not less than one and one-half inches long.

(4) No label, placard or brand shall be used until it has been approved of by the Food Controller.

11. There shall be no customs duty charged on the importation of any oleomargarine into Canada that complies with the above regulations.

12. Any person violating any of the above regulations shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both fine and imprisonment.

The Order in Council of October 19th (P.C. 2959) relating to the sale of package cereal products, reads in part:—

"1. Unless licensed thereto under the provisions of this ordinance, no manufacturer or wholesale dealer shall, on and after the first day of November, 1917, and no retail dealer shall, on and after the first day of December, 1917, offer for sale in Canada any foods known as breakfast foods, or cereals, or flour or other foods which are the product of wheat, oats, barley, rye, rice, peas, beans, buckwheat, Indian corn (maize) or lentils in original packages of less weight than twenty pounds.

"2. All such foods shall be sold by the pound or ton, and shall be net weight to the purchaser.

"3. The Food Controller shall have the power to grant licenses, in such form and upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, for the sale of any such foods in original packages of such lesser weight or size as he may deem expedient and may by written order exempt from the provisions of this ordinance any particular class or classes of persons, communities or places during such period or periods as may be prescribed in such order, and may from time to time revoke or change any such order.

"4. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon summary conviction to a fine of not less than ten dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or to both fine and imprisonment."

On October 24, the Food Controller ordered that all manufacturers or wholesale dealers of the food products or commodities mentioned in the above Order in Council were exempted from the operation of said order until December 31, 1917, and that retail dealers were exempted from the operation of the order until January 31, 1918.

An Order in Council of October 11th (P.C. 2688), giving the Food Controller power to require returns from producers and wholesale dealers in food products, reads:—

1. The Food Controller for Canada may, from time to time, require the producers and manufacturers in wholesale quantities and wholesale dealers in any particular article or articles of food specified by such Controller to furnish him with statements, in such form and on or before such date or dates as such Controller may from time to time prescribe, containing all or any of the following particulars:—

(a) Their names and addresses;

(b) Any information that the said Controller may require with respect to the purchases, sales, shipments, origin, destination or prices of the specified article or articles of food, produced, purchased or sold by such wholesale producers, manufacturers or dealers;

(c) The capacity, dimension and equipment of any premises occupied or used by any such wholesale producers, manufacturers or dealers.

2. Any person neglecting or refusing to furnish the said Food Controller with any information demanded by such Controller under the above regulations, or wilfully furnishing any incorrect or false statement or information, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for any period not exceeding three months, or to both fine and imprisonment.
