

and in his report suggested that in such cases as the present it would be well for the visiting Superintendent to prepare the Rules and Regulations in draft so that they might be submitted to the Superintendent General before they were finally passed by the tribe in Council, after which they could be confirmed by the Governor in Council.

Certain objections were pointed out in that report to certain of the By-laws and Regulations then submitted. Since then

(21)