Ottawa, 27th March, 1912

Sir:-

I am in receipt of an account for $24.00 which you forwarded from Mr. Marshall Goodine for wood supplied to Mrs. Lizzie Sappier, and with regard thereto I have to request that you will kindly state the circumstances under which the wood was furnished. The authority for the expenditure should have been quoted on the face of the voucher. It is returned herewith. If the wood was furnished by the late Indian Agent, Mr. White, you may be able to find in the office a record of authority as to purchase.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

N.J. Smith Esq.,
Indian Agent,
