Ottawa, 10th June, 1920.

Sir,-

Referring to your letter of the 1st instant, relative to the sum of $17.50 held at the Agency for the late Robert Shawap, an Indian of Pelican Narrows Band, I beg to state that if Mr. Wm. McKay has not left Prince Albert to pay the annuities to the Indians of the Isle a la Crosee Agency, you may send the money by him to pay to the parents of deceased. If Mr. McKay has left you should communicate with some reliable person at Pelican Narrows to ascertain the names of the heirs and send the money when you are satisfied that it will be paid to the proper parties.

Your obedient servant,

Agent.

C. P. Schmidt Esq.,
Indian Agent,
