

into the Lion's den and a stone placed over the cave. That night the King spent a sleepless night and early in the morning - as soon as the sun had risen - he called his servants and went to the lions den to remove the stone, expecting to find the licked bones of Daniel on the sand beneath but there he was on his knees, with his eyes turned to God; the lions sleeping around about him. He was taken out and restored to his position in the Premier's office, and the plotters were put to death.

Here, we find a man of Faith; a man who believed in God and by this Faith he won the Greatest Victory of his life.

THE CALAMITIES OF LIFE:

We start out in life with the hope that things will go on as they are. We live in the joy of our homes and our loved ones but some day a dark cloud comes down out of the blue sky. Our home is wrecked. Life's happiness is in ruins. Our light has gone out; our hopes blighted; our ideals shattered. To struggle on, seems useless. If there is any time that we need Faith in God it is then, and only Faith in God can save us, as we take to our hearts His

Blessed Words:-

" God is our Refuge and our Strength; always a present help in trouble. Therefore, will we not fear though the earth be removed and the Mountains carried into the midst of the sea."
