My dear Mr. Sawlour,

I duly rec^d your note of the 5th Inst: on the Ence of leaving for the Mississippis, to pay, and had counsel with them.

I had read something about Lord Selkirk and some lands of the Six Nations, but for some time, could not think where, - but on search, found in Bennett's "Canada: Past, Present, & Future" 1857 & 2., abstract from the report of a Commission in 1830, in respect to the lands of the Six Nations, which details the several blocks Nos 1 to 6 ~~then~~ surrendered and sold, one
