

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT GENERAL
OTTAWA

July 24th. 1918.

Dear Mr. Ditchburn,

With reference to the recent change in the inspectorates in the Province of British Columbia, I have to say that reasons of economy led to our dispensing with Mr. Tyson's services. I had not thought of making any definite division of the Province into two inspectorates. If anything arises that requires special investigation, of course, I will at once let yourself and Mr. Megraw know, and you can make proper arrangements.

I trust that you are quite well. We have been having excessively hot weather here. I do not intend to leave headquarters this summer, but perhaps later in the Fall I may go away for a short holiday.

Yours very truly,

W. E. Ditchburn, Esq.,

Chief Inspector of Indian Agencies,

Victoria, B. C.

Duncan Campbell
Deputy Superintendent General.
