

The Making of Personality

of enjoyment is that enheartening and sufficient reward for all efforts in self-culture, — a sense of our own small share of unequivocal though unobtrusive success and contentment always about us, the loveliness of life, its blossoms flowering in choicest and humblest places, fragrant and perfect, and distilling for our rapture the potent essence whose pervasive magic makes Eden everywhere.