

MONK'S BENCH. C. 1650.

With back convertible into table top. Exceptionally large back.
(Note early plainness of style.)

(By courtesy of Messrs. A. B. Daniell & Sons.)

OAK CHEST WITH DRAWERS UNDERNEATH.

Termed a "Mule Chest." The earliest form of chest or drawers. This piece in style is Middle Seventeenth Century, but is dated 1701.