

grocery store, doctor, and all that is denoted by the term civilization. The majority of its workers have to be content with three mails a year, and a yearly arrival of groceries and household supplies. Its mission station at Herschel Island is the most northerly in the British Empire.

Its Workers. The Diocese has been greatly honoured by God in His choice of men and women whom He has thrust out into this part of His great world-parish.

The Christian Church at home has been stirred to greater zeal and prayer and work in behalf of the greater harvest-field through the knowledge it possessed of the self-denying and successful labours of such men as Bishops Bompas, Young, and Reeve, of Archdeacons Kirkby and Macdonald, of Sim and others, who counted not their lives dear unto them if only they might proclaim the unsearchable riches of Christ to those lonely sheep in the vast wilderness of ice and snow.

Results of the Work. These have been most encouraging. Instead of infanticide, of tribal fights and bloodshed, of murder of the old people, we see now children well cared for and orphans adopted, murder practically unknown, the sick and dying carefully tended, and the aged maintained by their relatives until their death.

God's Day is honoured by the Christian Indians, and His Word and House loved.

The whole Bible has been printed in Tukudh, the New Testament in Slavi, besides the Prayer Book, Hymnals, and Instruction Books in both languages. Three of the Tukudh
