

Written for the Record. November.

Chill-clad, e id November— Autumn's drooping head, Weeping skies, psalm-like sighs, Nature's cold, cold bed. Dead leaves fall before me— Hopes of summer dreams; Naked boughs, broken vows Mirror'd in bright streams. Tattered robes of glory Trampled by the wind; Faded rays of days Floating through the mind. Days of gloom and sadness, Hours of sacred care; Lonely hours— bitter tears, Hearts in silent prayer. T. O'HAGAN. Belleville, Nov. 2nd.

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

DUBLIN.

The Royal Irish Constabulary have put forward a requisition for 67,000 additional rounds of buckshot cartridges on the Ordnance Store Department. On Oct. 11th, at Harold's-cross, the celebration of the 90th anniversary of the birth of Father Mathew was carried out with great enthusiasm. From a Parliamentary return with reference to the Constabulary granted, on the motion of Mr. Sexton, we learn that the total effective strength of the Royal Irish Constabulary on the 30th day of June, 1889, was 1488, being an increase of 300 on the number six months before.

WEXFORD.

A Land meeting was held at Oulart on Sunday, Oct. 10th. There were five or six thousand persons present. The chair was taken by the Very Rev. Canon Kenny. The Very Rev. Canon Donan proposed the following resolution:—"That the existing system of landlordism in Ireland is the chief cause of periodic disease, famine, and depopulation; that we demand its abolition, and the substitution of such an occupying proprietorship as will secure to the tiller of the soil the fruits of his industry." The Rev. speaker asked the people not to take a farm from which the tenant was evicted. Mr. Sinnott seconded and Mr. Saxton, M. P., supported the resolution.

KILDARE.

At the weekly meeting of the Guardians of Naas Union, held on Oct. 11th, it appeared there were 299 paupers in the house, being a decrease of 91 when compared with the corresponding week of last year, and 678 persons on out-door relief at the cost of £47 5s. 2d. for the past week. Baron de Robeck gave notice that on that day five weeks he would move that Miss Curran, assistant-matron to the Workhouse, be superannuated. Mr. Edward Fenlon was unanimously elected Deputy Vice-Chairman, in the room of the late Mr. Michael Dunne.

WESTMEATH.

On Oct. 10th, three men visited the house of a farmer named Patrick Scally, of Ballygass, about a mile from Mullingar. It seems that Mr. Scally was absent from the house at the time, and that the only occupants were his two sisters. The men, after entering, demanded a gun, which Miss Scally refused to give, at the same time saying she knew two of the party who were loitering about the place during the day. The two referred to immediately left, and Miss Scally succeeded in ejecting the third. Several stones were thrown through the windows, and a gun discharged outside the house.

CORK.

On Oct. 10th a farmer, named Jeremiah McCarthy, when returning home, near Clonakilly, was riding a horse and car, in which were his wife and children. On coming to the boren near their house at Knox, the car rolled over a stone, was overturned and the horse thrown down. The man got in some way under the horse and car. When assistance was procured and he was taken from his position, life was found to be extinct.

KERRY.

A man named Murphy held a farm under Mr. Clute, of Chate Hall, Killarney, from which he had been evicted some months ago, the land being tenanted by a man named Talbot. For some time after the eviction Murphy and Talbot were disputing about the place, and it was only by sending him to the county jail for trespass that Murphy could get to his former residence and his family from their residence at Talbot's house in a little cabin. On Oct. 10th, he and his family were roused from their slumbers by an armed band numbering forty. They were taken from the house they formerly occupied. The men demanded admittance, but in vain. The parties in the house were told that no harm would be done to them if they opened the door. Several shots were fired into the house, but still the parties inside refused to surrender, and it was only with the aid of sledges that the door was broken in. The terrified occupants made good their escape through back windows, unharmed, and Mr. Murphy and his astonished family were left in possession of their old house. There was a large crowd of hay near the house, and the unknown besiegers set fire to it.

ROSCOMMON.

On Oct. 13th, Ven. Archbishop O'Reilly peacefully departed this life at the venerable age of 80 years, in the parochial house, St. Peter's, Athlone. On Oct. 15th, Solemn High Mass was celebrated, after which the remains were interred in St. Peter's Church, to which important parish the deceased was for so very many years attached, first as curate and subsequently as parish priest, which position he occupied for upwards of fifty years, when, owing to his advanced age, he was obliged to retire from active duty.

MAYO.

The headquarters of the 76th Regiment arrived at Castlebar, on Oct. 13th, and were accompanied from the station to the barracks by large crowds of inhabitants. About two companies also proceeded to Wexford, and a similar number is about being stationed in Balla, where a soldier was never quartered before. Mayo can soon boast of a population composed solely of military and constables, should the tide of emigration continue to flow with such rapidity as it has done for the past six months from the district.

GALWAY.

On Sunday, Oct. 10th, an important land meeting was held at Earls Park, for the purpose of denouncing the action of a landlord who served ejections on his tenants, and for furthering the principles of the Land League. Much excitement was manifested at the posting of proclamations announcing an additional police force for the county. The appearance of the documents aroused indignation. The Government proclamations were torn down. The people state they will carry on the agitation, and that the Government may take. The people of Loughrea intend holding a meeting to denounce the Government. The chair was taken by Mr. J. Lally. The chairman, in the course of a long speech, denounced the sending of extra police to Galway, and sardorally and unworthily of the darkest days of misrule in Ireland. Several other speeches were delivered, denouncing the land laws, and after a vote of thanks to the chairman, the proceedings terminated.

TIPPERARY.

Rev. Father Gavan, O. S. F., Thurles, died suddenly at the Friary there on Oct. 10th. He heard confessions in the Cathedral late on Saturday night, and was apparently then in good health, but was found dead in his bed on Sunday morning, with his breviary in his hand. An inquest was held on his remains, and the jury found that he died of apoplexy.

NOT A BEVERAGE.

"They are not a beverage, but a medicine, with curative properties of the highest degree, containing no poisonous drugs. They do not tear down an already debilitated system, but build it up. One bottle contains more hops than is more real hop strength than a barrel of ordinary beer. Every druggist in Rochester sells them, and physicians prescribe them."—Rochester Evening Express on Hop Bitters.

Burdock Blood Bitters is the best Blood Purifier, Liver and Kidney Regulator, and Restorative Tonic in the world. It acts upon the Liver, the Kidneys and the Bowels, curing all manner of Bilious complaints, Kidney Complaints, and diseases of the Blood. Ask your Druggist for Burdock Blood Bitters. Sample bottles 10 cents, regular size $1.00.

It is beyond all doubt that "Myrtle Navy" is the favorite tobacco with the smokers of Canada. They obtain more enjoyment from it than from any other tobacco made and those of them who have used it long enough to test its merits never abandon it for any other brand. The reason for this preference is that the "Myrtle Navy" is made of the very finest leaf which is grown and that in every process of its manufacture the most vigilant care is exercised to preserve the genuine aroma of the leaf.

No medicine is more justly popular than Hagar's Pectoral Balsam. It is a positive specific for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs leading to Consumption. It loosens the tough phlegm or mucous, soothes irritation, allays troublesome coughing and heals diseased Lungs. Sold by all dealers at 25 cents per bottle.
