

Branch No. 4, London.

Branch No. 4, London, held its 2nd and 4th Thursday evening meetings at eight o'clock at their hall, Albion block, Richmond street, London, Ontario.

C. M. B. A.

Assessments Nos. 6 and 7. The first double assessment has been issued by the Grand Council of Canada, for the payment of the benefits of eleven deceased members amounting to $30.00. This is an exceptionally heavy death rate for one month, but we must expect to have such assessments in the future, and we hope to be able to meet them with ease.

New Branches.

Branch No. 100 was organized at Edmonton, W. T., by Grand Deputy J. H. Howson, on May 11. The following is the list of officers: President, A. D. Hieck; Vice-President, George Roy; Secretary, C. Gallacher; Treasurer, Stanislaus LaRue; Marshal, J. G. Fairbanks; Steward, Joseph H. McNamee; Chaplain, J. G. Fairbanks; Organist, L. K. Kelly; Trustees, J. A. Roy and P. L. McNamee; Royal A. F. Deacon and P. L. McNamee.

Explanation.

To the President and Members of Branch No. 4, C. M. B. A., Toronto, Ont.: Having heard that your association has been censured for the delay in paying the beneficiary due to the late death of your late husband, P. J. O'Malley, late a member of your Branch I wish to give the most emphatic denial to any such report. My husband's beneficiary was not payable to myself and children, in equal shares; and in a case of this kind the law of the Province of Ontario commands that a guardian be appointed for the children if minors, as my children are; and it is obligatory that guardianship papers be taken out through the Surrogate Court in Toronto. In addition to the legal requirements in this matter, I was myself responsible for still further delay in the necessary application for the guardianship papers until several weeks after my husband's death.

I was informed by the Secretary of your Branch as long ago as last March (within thirty days of my husband's death) that the money was held in readiness to be paid over as soon as the necessary legal formalities should be completed with.

I have now received the beneficiary money in full, etc., $2000, and wish to express my appreciation to you and the members of the noble association to which you belong for the great kindness and consideration which you have uniformly shown me since my bereavement.

Nothing would be farther from my mind than to express censure for the delay in receiving the money, as I have already been caused entirely by my own neglect and the time required to comply with the law of the Province. Rather, I shall always cherish a generous sympathy for the C. M. B. A., and will endeavor to the best of my ability to induce persons to join your association; for I can tell how soon a similar bereavement might befall any one of you, and how the very best of health, within one week he would be stricken down and die. It is but too true that the future, I and my little children would have been left without any means of support. Therefore, my best wishes and heartfelt prayers are for the C. M. B. A., and for your noble association, providing as it does for the widow and orphan, and long may it prosper, and be ever increasing.

MARY A. O'MALLEY. Toronto, June 3, 1893.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a regular meeting of Branch 112, Sudbury, held the 26th May, the following resolution of condolence was unanimously adopted: Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst, after a lingering illness, Mrs. John LaRue, a devoted Christian, and a true friend of the C. M. B. A., we, the members of Branch 112, do hereby extend our sincere sympathy to the widow and family of our late Brother in their sad bereavement. Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the widow of our late Brother, and to the Catholic Record and Daily Canadian for publication. P. E. McLELLAN, Rec. Sec.

DEATH OF GEORGE F. NELLIGAN. The members of Sacred Heart, No. 1, E. B. A., and many citizens of Hamilton, were grieved to learn the death of George F. Nelligan, which took place at the residence of his mother, James street north, on the 26th inst. Mr. Nelligan was an old member of Sacred Heart Branch No. 1, having been President of the branch for two years, resigning through failing eyesight. He was also a delegate to the Grand Branch on several occasions, where he showed by earnest work that he had the cause of Eucharistism at heart. He was a man of good attainments, and loved by all who knew him, and continued a friendship served, but to bid faster the friendships of his youth.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a special meeting of Sacred Heart, No. 1, E. B. A., held in St. Mary's Parish Hall, Thursday evening, June 3, 1893, the following resolutions of condolence were unanimously adopted: Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to call to Himself as President George F. Nelligan, a most highly respected member of this branch; and whereas, in the death of George F. Nelligan, the branch loses a staunch friend and a faithful adherent to the principle of Eucharistism; and his family a loving, devoted son and brother; therefore be it Resolved that this branch tender its heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of our dear, departed Brother in this hour of sad affliction; and that we extend to the widow and family our sincere sympathy and prayers for their comfort and consolation.

affliction; and that we extend the hope that the remembrance of the straightforward, pure and noble character of his life may prove a healing balm to their sorrow and cheer them in their journey down the path of life. Be it further Resolved that the members of this branch be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days; and that the deceased be interred on the minutes and an engraved copy be sent to the family of the deceased, and the papers signed on behalf of the branch, Matthew Koubler, John Burns and W. H. Jamieson, Committee.

On Thursday, the Feast of Corpus Christi, His Lordship Bishop Dowling confirmed about one hundred at St. Clement's, which parish is under the charge of Father Gehl. After High Mass the Blessed Sacrament was carried in procession by the Bishop, accompanied by several priests. A large congregation of people was present. On Sunday, June 4th, His Lordship celebrated Mass at St. Mary's Cathedral, Hamilton, 820, and gave First Communion to one hundred children. After Mass he preached an appropriate sermon to the large congregation which was present. At High Mass the Bishop was present on the Blessed Sacrament in procession around the cathedral. The children who received First Communion in the morning were present, and sang hymns appropriate to the Feast.

Not brighter and more beautiful welcome home could easily be imagined than the one which was accorded to the Bishop on the evening of his arrival in Hamilton. It took the form of a varied entertainment, in which nearly all the young ladies of the institution participated. After Mass he preached an appropriate sermon to the large congregation which was present. At High Mass the Bishop was present on the Blessed Sacrament in procession around the cathedral. The children who received First Communion in the morning were present, and sang hymns appropriate to the Feast.

On this occasion we cannot pass by your active solicitude for our temporal welfare. The many things you undertook were accomplished; and in things pertaining to our affairs we have always found you to be a wise and prudent adviser. Your great confidence in the marvellous executive ability you displayed in building this beautiful temple in which we now address you will now tell you how we love our consecrated church and look upon it as a living monument of your love and zeal for the honor and glory of God.

As a slight mark of our esteem and gratitude, we beg to tender you a piseton, and harness which we have had made for you, and which we hope will be a token of the love and pleasant relations which have always existed between us. On behalf of the parish by John McEachen, John McGuire, John Green, Stephen Whalen, James Gorman, Robert Valiquette, Wm. Henderson, Thomas Neville, testimonial committee.

Father Marion said he had not the faintest intimation till quite recently that he would be invited to officiate at the funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Riddell. He had the pleasure of seeing at the church door the many friends who had gathered there, and he was deeply gratified by the kind sentiments, the esteem, the love, the sympathy, and the affection which were so lovingly expressed in their beautiful address.

I prize your gift, he said, not only because of its practical utility, but also because it came spontaneously from his spiritual children without the slightest suggestion of reward. He had never had any thing of the kind which I had forgotten, and he was glad to be reminded of it. He said that he would refer to the number of years which he had placed me over you. These to me were happy years, and during which I had been able to witness the growth of your children, and to see them become men and women of God.

He said that he was very glad to hear that you were all well, and that you were all happy. He said that he was very glad to hear that you were all well, and that you were all happy. He said that he was very glad to hear that you were all well, and that you were all happy.

He then thanked them for their references to the spiritual good which he had done for them. He said that he was very glad to hear that you were all well, and that you were all happy. He said that he was very glad to hear that you were all well, and that you were all happy.

night—your singing, children, whom I love so well. I had the greatest pleasure in seeing the pupils a holiday, and two hours of extra sleep in the morning. God Save the Queen closed the entertainment.

DIocese of Pontiac.

Rev. H. S. Marion the popular parish priest of Douglas, was the happy recipient on Sunday last of an address and presentation valued at $250. Before Mass Mr. John McEachen approached the altar railing and read the following address: Permit us, Rev. Father, to approach you today to express our esteem and sincere acknowledgments for the great things you have done for our parish, during the thirteen years which the providence of God has given you to administer our spiritual necessities. We know how little you court public recognition of the great services you have rendered; we know you have protected the fundamental principle of unity which you so frequently and so eloquently preached; but the eloquent voice of your manifold works—your charity to the sick, your love for brotherhood of man, your zeal for our salvation—you are unable to silence.

Need we recall the early establishment of the Sodality of the Children of Mary and the Living Rosary. The one ennobles our youth to walk on the flowery path of innocence; the other cautions the young against the snares of the world. You instill daily on the principal mysteries of the life of our blessed Redeemer. Thank God through your fruitful ministry, the children of the Sodality are increasing. From the first Sunday we had the happiness of hearing you till Easter Sunday last, when we kept before the altar railing, and you were able to give us the opportunity to inculcate the great virtue of temperance. We are proud of our flourishing temperance association, and of the protection which it claims those who were given to over-indulgence, and induced the parish generally to practice temperance, and self-denial and mortification.

Rev. Father, there are not many things more agreeable to us to speak to you about than the joy of your holy day. We love and cherish our dead, and the day is dear to us which you annually select for the decoration of the graves of our departed loved ones. We beheld, in the colossal artistic and symmetrical monument of granite, which at the cost of nearly $1000 you gave to the parish, a fitting memorial to the memory of your father, your mother, and your dear friends. We are proud of your flourishing temperance association, and of the protection which it claims those who were given to over-indulgence, and induced the parish generally to practice temperance, and self-denial and mortification.

On this occasion we cannot pass by your active solicitude for our temporal welfare. For the Catholic Record. Mary. God looked upon the earth, and it was good. Until man blotted out the first fair creature, God looked in love on His own work. And all the sphere was bathed in murky gloom. God looked in love on His own work. And all the sphere was bathed in murky gloom. God looked in love on His own work. How an A. P. A. Lodge was Organized.

"A few years ago" said a reminiscence citizen to an Indianapolis News reporter, "I was a 'Jiner,' joined every secret organization that came along and was entitled to wear more decorations than you could crowd into a Saratoga trunk. About that time there came along a man from Detroit, who, after moving about the town with great secrecy for a number of days, got about twenty 'sinners,' together one evening in a little room on the roof in the Brunswick Hotel.

He opened a flat carpet bag, took out a Bible, a lot of spangled collars and aprons, something he called an umbrella stand that had seen better days, and then stopping the keyhole in the door announced that he would institute a lodge, an organization with an imposing name.

"He placed the Bible on the umbrella stand, we joined hands around it and he administered half a dozen pungent oaths in which he swore to do divers and sundry things for the glory of the cause and to the confusion of the Catholic Church and the Pope of Rome.

"This was the beginning of Lincoln lodge, A. P. A., and so far as I know, it was at the same time the end of it. Officers were elected, but I do not know that another meeting was held. The man with the carpet sack collected a dollar apiece from the participants and then began to talk regarding lodge furnishings. Lincoln lodge made no investment in paraphernalia, but the initiation fees doubtless paid the expenses."

Consolations of Catholicism.

There is something in Catholicism so poetic and attractive—I was about to say so maternal—that it will ever exercise a charm over the minds and hearts of men. The soul finds a delicious repose in the silent chapel, before the lighted candles, in that suave atmosphere where sweet-smelling incense and harmonious music mingle. It nestles close to the bosom of a celestial mother, where it feels itself immersed in sentiments of humility, is filled with filial love, and made capable of liftings thoughts to the Redeemer Himself.

The Catholic Church, with her ever-open doors, her altars, her thousands of preaching and singing tongues, her hymns, her Mass, her feasts and anniversaries, is ever admonishing us with tender, pathetic solicitude that her maternal arms be open, ready to welcome all those who find their earthly burden too heavy to bear alone. She is ever offering the sweet banquet of love, and her hospitable doors are ever open day and night to the wanderer seeking rest and peace. When I look upon the incessant activity of the priests exposing daily the Blessed Sacrament and restoring it again to its place—when I behold the ever varying colors of their vestments, like a perpetual spring—the Catholic Church appears to me as a broad over-flowing fountain in the heart of some populous city, whose tired denizens it refreshes, comforts and cleanses.—Count Loben; Losbacter.

DIGBY COUNTY SENSATION.

Remarkable Experience of a Well-known Sea Captain—Captain James McKay Tells His Story of Suffering and Release—His Recovery—The Darkest Hour is Just Before the Dawn, and the Light of Hope Shines—Health and Strength Again Restored. From the Weymouth N. S. Free Press. Probably one of the best known men in Digby County, N. S., is Captain James McKay. The Captain is known among ship owners, as a first-class mariner, and has been chiefly engaged in the West Indies trade, and has been very fortunate with it. He has been a member of the Weymouth branch of the A. P. A. for many years, and has been a very active member of it. He has been a very active member of it. He has been a very active member of it.

"I have heard," said the reporter, "of your recovery was wonderful, and was brought about entirely by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Would you let me have the particulars of your illness and restoration to health?" "I have told the story a hundred times already, but the truth never changes. I was brought down by a severe cold, and was confined to my bed for several weeks. I was very weak, and my appetite was gone. I was very weak, and my appetite was gone. I was very weak, and my appetite was gone.

suffered terribly, was only a burden to my friends, and actually longed for death, which I thought was soon in store for me. But the darkest hour is before the dawn. I had come so bad that I hardly cared how soon I slipped my cable. For I was now almost dead. I was now almost dead. I was now almost dead.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. of Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y. Pink Pills are not looked on as a patent medicine, but rather as a prescription. They are an infallible specific from all diseases arising from an impoverished condition of the blood, or from an impairment of the nervous system, such as loss of appetite, depression of spirits, general muscular weakness, dizziness, loss of memory, locomotor ataxia, paralysis, sciatica, rheumatism, St. Vitus dance, the after effects of a gripe, all diseases depending upon a vitiated condition of the blood, such as scrofula, chronic eczema, etc. In the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental overwork, or from excessive use of any nature. These pills are not a purgative medicine. They contain only life-giving properties, and are entirely safe. They act directly on the blood supply, its life-giving qualities, by assisting it to absorb oxygen, and great support of all organic life. In this way, the blood, becoming rich and pure, and free from all impurities, becomes rich and red, nourishes the various organs, stimulating them to active and efficient performance of their functions, and thus eliminates disease from the system.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrap, (printed in red ink). Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is not a dealer in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The price is also cautioned against all other so-called blood purifiers, and is not to be taken from intended to deceive. They are all inferior, and make no claim to be a pecuniary advantage over the genuine. The price is also cautioned against all other so-called blood purifiers, and is not to be taken from intended to deceive. They are all inferior, and make no claim to be a pecuniary advantage over the genuine.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address, at 25 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive, and is not to be taken from intended to deceive. They are all inferior, and make no claim to be a pecuniary advantage over the genuine.
