The Rev. T. Beverley Smith, of Toronto, is suffering from a serious illness. It is partly the result of devoted work he has done in his first season as Agency Secretary for the Upper Canada Bible Society. Previously, it will be remembered, he was for thirteen years Rector of St. John's, West Toronto, and gave himself unsparingly to the development of that work, establishing three Mission churches. His untiring work as head of the Relief Organization in the hard times some years ago is a vivid memory in many homes in the district.

Rev. Canon R. S. Forneri, an aged retired Anglican clergyman of Kingston, and late Rector of St. Luke's Church in that city, has been greatly bereaved. Last year his son, Lieut. A. D. My Dear Canon Morley,

To promote an intelligent knowledge of the Christian Year; to encourage the systematic study of the Holy Scriptures; and to support sound Christian teaching in our homes as an antidote to what is questionable, not to say false—are objects which I am confident will commend themselves to all right-minded Churchmen.

I therefore warmly approve of "The Christian Year Calendar," which is published with these objects in view, and heartily commend it for use among our people, believing that it is calculated to do great good.

I am,
Very faithfully yours,
