${ }^{11} 654$ Geo.III. Journals of the Legiflative Council. A. 1814.

 ral appropriations you had made for the defence of the Province, and for ameliorating the fituation of the Militia; and I regret, that in facrificing thefe defirable objects, you fhould have been fwayed by any confiderations which feemed to you of higher importance than the im. mediate fecurity of the Country, or the comfort of thofe engaged in its protection.
Gentlemen of the Legijlative Council, Gentlemen: of the Houfe of Affembly,

The pacific rumours which have prevailed fince I laft addreffed you, not affording any certain ground for belief that Peace is at hand, our vigorous and united exertions will ftill be required to maintain the decided afcendency with which the Divine Providence has been pleafed to blefs our efforts in the prefent contelt; I therefore earneftly entreat you to imprets by your precept and example, on all around you, a re!pect for the Laws by which they are governed, as well as a juft confidence in thote who adminifter and execute them, and to cherifh and encourage that 'pirit of loyalty and attachment to His Majefty's Perfon and Government, which has hitherto proved the firmeft barrier againft all the attempts of the enemy.

As the period fixed by law for the duration of the Provincial Pariiament will hhortly expire, I fhall avail myfelf of an early opportunity to recur to the fenfe of the people, for the election of a new Houfe of Affembly. It is therefore my earnett recommendation to you, to endeavor in your feveral ftations, to give to the Inhabitants of this Prevince, a true idea of the nature and value of the Conftitution which they poffers;-that in the choice of their Reprefentatives, their attention may be directed to thofe, who, duly eftimating its advantages, will endeavor faithfully to uphold it, and thereby effectually to promote the fafety, welfare and prosperity ot the Province.

Then the Honorable Mr. Hale said :
Gentlemen of the Legilative Council, Gentlemen of the Houfe of Alfembly,
It is the Will and Pleafure of His Excellency the Governor in Chief, that:this Provincial Parliament be Prorogued until Thurlday the Seventh Day of April next, to be then here held, and this Provincial Parliament is hereby prorogued accordingly until Thurftay the Seventh Day of April next.

