TWOMBLEY DRIVES IN

Toronto, July 11.—The presence of one Mr. Twombley of Baltimore in the ball game at the Island Sta dium yesterday accounts for the defeat of the Leafs by 6 to 2. Of course there were a few other athletes out there helping to fill in and make ar afternoon's sport for a megre crowd of usual washday proportions, but they were merely "supers," as they say "back stage" at the theatres. Twombley had three hits, a double and two singles. That is doing fairly well for four appearances at bat, but when one stops to consider that Twombley's hits drove in five of the six Oriole runs, it must be said that he earned his pay.

In addition to doing a lot of dam
