The sanctum of the Reporter office is adorned, temporarily, with one of the latest productions of the artistic brush of Mr. C. C. Sluck. The scene is an old farm house kitchen and the figures Whaley will manufacture cheese this an aged man who has apparently suspended work in order to read the vil lage paper, having as an audience a visiting rustic, whose intent and not too intelligent expression if countenance is well worked tout, and a dog that seems also to be interested in the proceedings. The color scheme is striking, harmonious, appropriate, and the picture is probably the best that Crawf has yet produced in this line.

X A BUSY PLACE

On Friday last the village of Delta presented an aspect of business progress and prosperity that was both cheering and inspiring. Everywhere there was evidence of industrial activity. Not The Upper lake is brimming with power and every department of Mr. Haskins' big mill was in operation. A steady stream of grain passed through the hopper, and in the rear a staff of workmen were operating the saw-mill. A re construction of the driving shed and storeroom adjoining the mill is contemplated.

The merchants were busily engaged in the maple syrup business. Large quantities of high-grade sprup are pro-duced in that vicinity and it finds a ready sale to the business men at good prices. Church union will soon be an accomplished fact if all Presbyterians, Methodists and Congregationalists are possessed of a spirit like Rev. Dr.
Patrick, principal of Manitoba College, (Presbyterian.) He says: "There is nothing in the tenets or government nothing in the tenets or government of the Methodist church which I cannot accept, and I believe that the church which springs from the union of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches will be more Catholic, more Evangelical and more powerful than the two churches when separate. The Congregational church I honor equally with the Methodist."

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important is a healthy action of these organs

They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and despondency.

"I was taken ill with kidney trouble, and became so weak I could scarcely get around. I took medicine without benefit, and finally decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. After the first bottle I felt so much better that I continued its use, and six bottles made me a new woman. When my little girl was a baby, she could not keep anything on her stomach, and we gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla which cured her." Mrs. Tsomas Isms, Wallaceburg, Ont.
