PLOWING AT MEDICINE LODGE

Mr. Dempster Decides to

When Inspector Parker visited Med-icine Lodge on Friday he found one of the farmers there, Mr. Dempster, driving his team down the long furrows as though it was just the nat-ural thing to do in the summery month of January. Mr. Dempster is tak-ing advantage of the remarkably mild weather to get a large strip of his land in good shape against the

Perhaps the mildest January in memory, the only one which has surpassed this present month, was in 1877, in which year the Inspector remembers the lumber acks at Fort Macleod found the heat so oppressive ped to the waist whilst SHIPPED 100 HEAD OF RANGE CATTLE.

(Gleichen Call)

It is hard for some eastern people skates on for the first time this to believe that we have such winters in Southern Alberta, here is a fact that may make sit up and think.

One day last week Messrs. Morton and Kenny shipped 100 head of fat cows to Winnipeg from Gleichen. The animals were gathered in off the ran ge north of this town and had not been fed anything all winter. Inspector Scott says they were all infine condition and, indeed, could not have been in better shape. To ship cattle off the range in January for beef may surprise some of the wise men in the east, but nevertheless it is done right here in Alberta.
