A boy of 18 started with The Observer to learn the printing business and in his third year at the trade he made in wages over $1,000. This position he still holds with prospect of constantly making himself of more value to the firm. We are willing to start another bright and industrious lad exactly the same way. We also want a bright willing-to-work girl to learn straight composition. She must reside in town as she cannot at the start earn enough to pay her board. Want the girl at once, to start work on Monday. She must have an 8th grade education, and be sober-minded and capable enough to take the place of a girl who worked up from nothing to $32 a week in less than three years, and is going strong. Apply at once to The Observer's office.
