BRIEF MENTION

Among the passengers from Vancouver last evening on the S.S. Princess Patricia were Sergt. Spence, J. W. Vipond, Jas. Pender and Mrs. A. Webb.

If children are feverish give a light laxative like Rexall Orderlies, which often removes the cause. Sold only by The Rexall Store, 10c, 25c and 50c boxes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gillespie, of Vancouver, arrived in the city last evening being summoned here on the death of Mr. Gillespie's father, the late John Gillespie.

Mrs. Charles Beadle, Victoria, Crescent, returned yesterday from a two-weeks' visit with her mother in Victoria.

The S. S. Princess Patricia, looking splendid in a new coat of paint, is back on her old run. Commencing May first the "Pat" will enter upon the double daily run.

Number 634 won the cushion drawn for last night by the Daughters of St. George. The holder of the ticket can secure the cushion on calling at Spencer's store.

Lance Sergt. A. Sparrow, who is well known in Nanaimo, having been stationed here for a year with the Civil Aid Force, was killed in action on April 15th. He was serving with the Seventh Battalion of the Canadian army.

Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Moody, Dr. L. Glendon and Mrs. Moody and Mr. E. Lang and son, arrived on the Patricia last evening and left later for a couple of days fishing at Cowichan after which the party will tour the island.

CARD.

Mrs. Thomas Watson wishes to extend her heartfelt thanks to the Rev. Mr. Green for his kind and sympathetic words at the funeral services of her deceased husband. Also the friends who sent floral tributes and in other ways sympathized with her in her sad bereavement.
