

DOMINION NEWS.

A Record of the Week's Events in Canada.

ONTARIO.

Crashers are troubled with a heaving sea. Fish fires are reported in the back country round Belleville.

As Case's clothier factory, Newmarket, 2300 yds are turned out daily. Eleven car loads of cattle worth $16,000 were shipped from Chesley last week.

Samuel Arnel, an old and respected resident of Kingston, died of paralysis Saturday.

Wills Willis, a twelve year old, of Gananoque, is an accomplished tight rope walker.

Mr. Geo. Sears, of Clarkburg, has taken 3,900 lbs. of honey from his bees since the 10th of July.

The Chatham Tribune wants the Council to pass a by-law to prohibit smoking on the public street.

Ontario has the proposed law country, which would be to the county town, called One county.

The proceedings in the East York election trial were concluded last week, the petition being dismissed.

More school accommodations is demanded in the Limestone City. There are more pupils than the city can accommodate.

A. P. McGregor, residing at the Limestone Place, claims to have a sword that he descended to him direct from Job Boy Mc-Gregor.

The full term of the Essex judges begins at Sandwich October 26. Judge Patterson will preside. The Chancery sittings begin November 1st.

Considerable excitement is aroused over the absence of a daughter of Mr. Mayers, of Fitchburg, and foul play is feared by her parents.

The American right to manufacture the Maxwell low-down binder has been sold by Maxwell of Paris to McCormick, of Chicago, for the sum of $100,000.

Letters patent has been issued to the Gray Brothers, Canadian Stock Breeders and Importers Association of London, with a capital stock of $100,000.

William Killebrew, a J.P. for the County of York, died at the residence of his wife, on Monday morning. He came from Yorkshire to Canada about fifty years ago.

While the races were in progress at Hamilton the other day, a young man named B. was killed and cut open on the course, with 57 small snakes wriggled out.

At London, on Saturday, John McInnis, who was charged in court with taking his wife's property by throwing a cat on the table and smashing the dishes.

The Kingston and Westport railway will accept $50,000 of municipal bonds to build a branch to Westport, which is to be completed with Kingston within two years.

An inspector of the bank country showed samples of gold and silver quartz. He said the former was worth $500 per ton.

The negro, James Fontaine, who died in Kingston the other day at the age of 100, went to school in that city when he was 3000 years of age, and James Fontaine, who died in Kingston the other day at the age of 100, went to school in that city when he was 3000 years of age.

James Cromer and William E. Lytle, of Hamilton, went on the mountain recently and fought bravely with the fish over their respective claims to the fish.

They have been boring for oil in Boston. They penetrated to a depth of about a thousand feet the local paper reports that the prospect of oil was very bright.

Kingston meat dealers complain that in consequence of the European demand for meat, the price of meat is very high.

Mr. Jones, the Boston boy, King, says his father has gone over to the States with 20,000 pounds of honey from Canada. He says the quality of the honey is the best he has ever seen.

The Archibald postmaster of White Oak, on the 4th of September, Westminster, had a dog with his hind legs, leaving his wife and family. Mr. Archibald is almost crazy with grief.

The Welland Tribune man is out of potatoes and offers a subscription to the office, the potatoes to be come the property of the editor.

D. E. Smith, of DeWitt, has been appointed to the position of assessor in the Kingston Collegiate Institute, and Miss Sutherland, of Fingal, as teacher of the preparatory class.

Mr. Moore, Wilson, of Aurora, was found dead by his bedside the other morning. The coroner was summoned, and decided that his death was not necessary, death having been caused by apoplexy.

County Attorney MacDowell, of Windsor, says that Lake Erie is becoming more and more shallow, and that the water is becoming more and more brackish.

Miss Sophia is a girl, living near Tilsonburg, who is said to be a railway track in front of a man the other day when the horse getting frightened threw her out and she was severely injured.

The pet dog species, Mr. M. P. P. of King, on that city last week, when counsel for the plaintiff had declined to offer any evidence, the case was dismissed, without costs.

From some fruit growers in the vicinity of St. Catharines express orders for the ripening of grapes will be long before the weather is so warm. Weather is so warm, these as well as the corn crop, will be a total failure.

The petition against the return of Mr. Henry Merriam for South Leeds, and Grenville was taken up on Monday at Brockville, when no evidence being offered, the petition was dismissed and Mr. Merriam declared duly elected.

A peculiar case came before the London East Magistrate on Saturday, when John McInnis was charged with damaging his wife's property. The damage consisted of throwing a cat on the table and smashing the dishes. Judgment was reserved.

Mail Conductor Kelly, of the Midland railway, found among his mail a few days ago a letter bearing the name of John McInnis, and addressed to "Hon. Fred. McInnis, Esq., Pealder, Ontario, Canada, N. Y. State." He sent it to the dead letter office.

Some men in the employ of the Port Wicks mill, while digging in a bank the other day, discovered the body of a girl about five years old, who had been buried in a coffin, enclosed the remains, which were only a foot or two under the ground, and covered by a single board placed over the body.

A gentleman was paddling leisurely along near the Red Rock in Pigeon Lake, he found the body of a dead man within a few feet of the shore, which was evidently a man who had been killed. The body was found in its coffin, the coffin was found in its coffin.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

and woods, swamp and marsh, land and water were searched for days, and up to the present no tidings can be had of her.

Pres. John Gibson, ex-deputy sheriff of St. John's, Hamilton, who has been kept in the East by the King of the South, Ontario, has been arrested by the police of Toronto, and is now in the hands of the authorities.

Mr. Graham, who resides on the lot of the late of Kingston, has an apple tree growing in his orchard which, thirty years ago, he carried in his arm from the township of York to its present location, a distance of sixty miles.

The tree has now attained the size of an extraordinary dimensions of four feet two inches in circumference, while the trunk covers an area of forty-one square feet.

There is a haunted barn in Ailes Craig, Mr. MacLean, and others show the barn, but you can go by a stoupe as thrown at the barn, and the barn is possessed of the spirit of some vindictive old man, whose body is believed to be in the barn, and who is believed to be in the barn, and who is believed to be in the barn.

On the west-end of his pastures, a white horse in each corner of his shirt, and in the right eye the same time he is a Highlander with a hatchet; the figure is about five inches long.

On the 17th of the potato, a blight or rot, affecting the plants, striking the leaves, wither, after which the process continues to the root, and the tubers are found to be quite rotten. Many farmers have lost the greater portion of their crop, while others have been able to secure what tubers have formed.

Some time ago a young woman named B. was killed and cut open on the course, with 57 small snakes wriggled out.

At London, on Saturday, John McInnis, who was charged in court with taking his wife's property by throwing a cat on the table and smashing the dishes.

The Kingston and Westport railway will accept $50,000 of municipal bonds to build a branch to Westport, which is to be completed with Kingston within two years.

An inspector of the bank country showed samples of gold and silver quartz. He said the former was worth $500 per ton.

The negro, James Fontaine, who died in Kingston the other day at the age of 100, went to school in that city when he was 3000 years of age, and James Fontaine, who died in Kingston the other day at the age of 100, went to school in that city when he was 3000 years of age.

James Cromer and William E. Lytle, of Hamilton, went on the mountain recently and fought bravely with the fish over their respective claims to the fish.

They have been boring for oil in Boston. They penetrated to a depth of about a thousand feet the local paper reports that the prospect of oil was very bright.

Kingston meat dealers complain that in consequence of the European demand for meat, the price of meat is very high.

Mr. Jones, the Boston boy, King, says his father has gone over to the States with 20,000 pounds of honey from Canada. He says the quality of the honey is the best he has ever seen.

The Archibald postmaster of White Oak, on the 4th of September, Westminster, had a dog with his hind legs, leaving his wife and family. Mr. Archibald is almost crazy with grief.

The Welland Tribune man is out of potatoes and offers a subscription to the office, the potatoes to be come the property of the editor.

D. E. Smith, of DeWitt, has been appointed to the position of assessor in the Kingston Collegiate Institute, and Miss Sutherland, of Fingal, as teacher of the preparatory class.

Mr. Moore, Wilson, of Aurora, was found dead by his bedside the other morning. The coroner was summoned, and decided that his death was not necessary, death having been caused by apoplexy.

County Attorney MacDowell, of Windsor, says that Lake Erie is becoming more and more shallow, and that the water is becoming more and more brackish.

Miss Sophia is a girl, living near Tilsonburg, who is said to be a railway track in front of a man the other day when the horse getting frightened threw her out and she was severely injured.

The pet dog species, Mr. M. P. P. of King, on that city last week, when counsel for the plaintiff had declined to offer any evidence, the case was dismissed, without costs.

From some fruit growers in the vicinity of St. Catharines express orders for the ripening of grapes will be long before the weather is so warm. Weather is so warm, these as well as the corn crop, will be a total failure.

The petition against the return of Mr. Henry Merriam for South Leeds, and Grenville was taken up on Monday at Brockville, when no evidence being offered, the petition was dismissed and Mr. Merriam declared duly elected.

A peculiar case came before the London East Magistrate on Saturday, when John McInnis was charged with damaging his wife's property. The damage consisted of throwing a cat on the table and smashing the dishes. Judgment was reserved.

Mail Conductor Kelly, of the Midland railway, found among his mail a few days ago a letter bearing the name of John McInnis, and addressed to "Hon. Fred. McInnis, Esq., Pealder, Ontario, Canada, N. Y. State." He sent it to the dead letter office.

Some men in the employ of the Port Wicks mill, while digging in a bank the other day, discovered the body of a girl about five years old, who had been buried in a coffin, enclosed the remains, which were only a foot or two under the ground, and covered by a single board placed over the body.

A gentleman was paddling leisurely along near the Red Rock in Pigeon Lake, he found the body of a dead man within a few feet of the shore, which was evidently a man who had been killed. The body was found in its coffin, the coffin was found in its coffin.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

Two years ago the daughter of Victor Roddy, of Amalamburg, disappeared, and nothing since has been heard of her fate. When last seen she was playing near the house at which her mother and grandmother were visiting, and when sought a few minutes afterwards could not be found. Friends sought in both ways.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

was claimed by and given to Mrs. Coates, and she had a doctor and would deliver to her. Deceased attended church on the last Sunday, and was visited by his father, as it is alleged, visited and remained with his wife and husband with his devotion. From further evidence it appears deceased knew.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.

His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year. His father, the second son of the first Viscount, inherited an estate worth $75,000 a year.