PRESBYTERIAN FATE
"SPURLOS VERSENKT"

United Church Will be Methodist in 20 years, predicts Dr. Eakin

(Montreal Gazette)
Rev. Dr. Thomas Eakin is not alarmed at the gloomy predictions made by supporters of Church Union regarding the future of that body of Presbyterians which decides against entering the proposed United Church. He believes that in fifteen years from now, that body, with the members with which it will begin, with its natural growth, the increase through immigration, and with those who will want to "scramble back", will have a church as strong numerically, influentially, and financially as the Presbyterians have today. As for the fate of that section of the church which enters the new church Dr. Eakin sums up the situation differently. He believes that 20,000 is a liberal estimate of the number who will enter the United Church and that when this number mixed and merged with the Methodist membership of 400-000, which is joining as a body, and the congregational membership, which will no doubt join as a body, it will be a case of "spurlos versenkt" as far as the Presbyterian element is concerned. "That is a probability—a possibility certainly," he said. There is nothing to prevent this merger from becoming a big Methodist church except in name, in the next twenty five years.

The two principal reasons given by Dr. Eakin of opposing the union were that the "antia" believe that the General Assemblies did not keep faith with the people that they had exceeded their authority and that their action had been unjustly oppressive and coercive. He emphasized the point that while all understood the basis of union, they could not know the terms regarding the disposition of property until the different provincial legislatures had spoken on the matter.
Entering union under those conditions he said, was like buying a pig in a poke.

Dr. Eakin referred to the statement appearing in the press to the effect that 62 ministers residing within the bounds of Montreal had signed their intention of entering the United Church of Canada. This he regarded as pure propaganda and speaking of the personnel of those listed, he said many were responsible to nobody but themselves.

Shorty Veno
In Demand

"Shorty" Veno, former Chatham star, is being urged to join the Boston A. A. team for the United States Amateur Hockey Association to plug a wide-open hole at right wing on the line-up of the team which won the eastern championship last season.
Last year "Shorty" Veno played with the New Haven Bears, but New Haven is without a rink this year as a result of a fire and the former Chatham player is being urged to join the Boston A.A. team but for some reason apparently does not intend to get into the game till after Christmas.

FOR THE NEW YEAR

Let me be a little kinder, let me be a little blinder, to the faults of those about me; let me praise a little more; let me be, when I am near, just a little bit more cheery; let me serve a little better, those that I am striving for. Let me be a little braver when temptation bids me waver; let me strive a little harder to be all that I should be; let me be a little meeker with the brother that is weaker; let me think more of my neighbor and a little less of me.

Travel Service
For Holidays

For those travelling during the Holiday Season the rail services of the Canadian National offer every convenience of modern travel comfort.

Holiday travel covers a wide range. From the West special trains have carried passengers to Halifax en route overseas; while from the East, many are travelling to points in Western Canada and the Pacific Coast.

A big rush of travel is expected during the next two weeks all over the Canadian National System.

The fine train services of today and the excellence of modern train equipment, makes the holiday travel especially pleasant. The holiday spirit will prevail on all through trains, and on the diners there will be special menus in keeping with the Christmas season.

DEFERS JUDGMENT

An Executive
Committee C. N. R.
Board Appointed

The following statement was issued during the week-end from the headquarters of the Canadian National Railways here:

"In view of the considerable distances which separate many of the directors of the company from headquarters and their consequent inac-cessibility on short notice, it has been decided to appoint an executive committee of the Board consisting of the following directors and including the chairman:

D. J. MacDougal; J. Gill, Gardner;
E.R. Decary; G.A. Bell; Gerard G.
Ruel; J. Stuart Rapside; Tom Moore. The directors named on the executive committee will deal with such matters currently as may require attention. Meetings of the full board will be held at regular intervals as usual."

Of the seven directors appointed to the executive committee three are from Montreal. These are Messrs. Decary, Ruel and Rapside.
Mr. Ruel is Vice President in charge of legal affairs of the system. Of the remainder Mr. Mac-Dougal is from Toronto, Mr. Gill Gardner from Brockville and Major Graham Bell and Tom Moore from Ottawa.

Trying To Stop
Poaching On The
S. W. Miramichi

At a recent meeting of the Carleton Game Club of Woodstock a letter was read from W.T. Griffin Cross Creek, who is a member of the N.B. Guides Association. He complimented the Club on its action in an effort to diminish illegal fishing on the South Miramichi waters, believed that it would have the support of the people of York county, because the people of Carleton and York, are not receiving fair play from the fishermen or Northumberland.

Moved by Mr. Malaney, seconded by Mr. Brown that the secretary write Mr. Griffin acknowledging his letter and suggesting that he consult Judge Blipp in an effort to form a Club in Fredericton for York county to assist Carleton county in the protection of fish and game. Carried.

THE QUESTION

The question for each man to settle is not what he would do if he had means, time, influence and educational advantages, but what he will do with the things he has.

International Dog-Sled Derby For February

In and around Quebec. Top left—Trotting on Exhibition Grounds. Right—Earl Brydges huskies, winners of last year's derby; securing the post. Left—A fair sledging enthusiast.
Below—The Chateau Frontenac dog team with "Mountie," famous north-west husky leader inset.

In a guide to "The City of Quebec" one reads that I among other things Quebec is celebrated for its horse races, which for more than a century were organized and kept going by the wealthy officers of the British crack regiments stationed there on garrison duty, and that the organization of the Quebec Turf Club dates back to 1789. Horse racing is still a seasonal attraction to the Ancient City. The Fall meet brings horse and racing enthusiasts from practically all over the continent, and has done for years, but the native Quebecer is inclined to enthuse more over the trotting races that take place when the snow is packed hard on the course. Then there are horses he knows and really belong to him. Horses from "way back", perhaps.

One has only to attend a trotting meet in Quebec to know just how much of the true sporting spirit is inherent in the French-Canadian. It is not always the one who has placed most money that is the most vocif-erous as the trotting wags near the post. Racing is in their blood. They excitedly shout their favourites name, and wave their arms for its encouragement, and if it wins—all right. If not—all right, it's a darn good horse, anyway.

It is perhaps the enthusiasm for the race shown by the people of Quebec that is responsible for the continuance of the Eastern International Dog-Sled Derby, held annually in that city. The Derby is supported by winter sportsmen from all over the continent, and entries are made from all parts of the continent upon which snow falls to stay for the season; but without the support of the people of Quebec the event could not be the great success it is. On the three days for which the Derby is scheduled, everyone who can declare a holiday and gets as close to the starters' stand as is possible for the crowd, and when the dogs come panting home, it is not so much the visitor at the Chateau as it is Jean Baptiste of Quebec who cheers them in.

This season's Eastern International Dog-Sled Derby has been definitely scheduled to take place February 19, 20 and 21st. As in former years the distance to be covered will be 120 miles, at the rate of 40 miles more or less each day. Earl Brydges, winner of last year's Derby with the Ontario Paper Company's team, will defend his honors in the face of much competition. An American team won the gold trophy in 1923, and it is expected that several teams will try to regain it for the United States. Possibly fifteen or more teams will try to keep it from going across the border, including one of five Alaskan huskies which is being entered by two McGill students. This is headed by "Dan Jo" which led three teams to victory in three sweepstakes in the Yukon district last year.
