BULLET PIERCES HEART; LIVES FOR SOME HOURS

BUFFALO, April 13hWith a bullet wound in his chest and making no effort to attract assistance, Chester Germain, thirty-two years old former physical instructor at the Terrace playground, laid on the floor of his home in the lower flat at the rear of No. 750 Elk street, for four hours yesterday afternoon before he was discovered. The man, who is dying at the Emergency Hospital last night told Captain of detectives Zimmerman that he had shot himself with a revolver in an effort to end his life at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

Germain told the police that until January 1st last he was employed as playground instructor, but that a nervous break-down forced him to take leave of absence. He said that his mother died during January and that he had no desire to live since then. He was living with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Germain.

The dying man told the police that he shot himself shortly after Mrs. Germain left the house. The bullet pierced a lower muscle of the heart and lodged underneath the shoulder blade. Germain laid on the floor until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon when his sister-in-law returned home.

Unable to gain entrance to the house, Mrs. Germain asked Joseph Burns, a boy who lives upstairs, to climb in a window and open the door. When she entered the house, she found her brother-in-law lying on the floor, his clothes saturated with blood. Mrs. Germain summoned Dr. Fred H. Boyle, who hurried to the house. Dr. Boyle said that the case was remarkable, because the wounded man was able to walk from the house to the street where the doctor's auto was waiting. The man was taken to Mercy Hospital, where he walked into the operating room.

Dr. Boyle and Dr. R. Edward, M. Dooley probed for the bullet last night and found it underneath the left shoulder blade. Germain recovered from the anesthetic and was able to talk to the surgeons and police.

THE MYSTERY SOLDIER TURNS OUT TO BE FAKE

TORONTO, April 11h—Toronto's "mystery soldier" will be deported to England by the immigration authorities as soon as all details can be arranged. Although "Frank Hall" as he called himself, has not recovered his memory, the prison officials backed up by Bertillon measurements and photographs, have never suffered from the same lapse. "Hall" was positively identified yesterday afternoon by Inspector of Immigration James C. Mitchell, Toronto, as Clyde Densham, an ex-convict, who was deported to England in June 1915, after serving ten months of a 24-months sentence in the Provincial prison. This sentence was imposed at St. Thomas on August 20, 1914, following this conviction for theft. His people live in Exeter, Eng.

"That's Not Me"

"That's not me," exclaimed "Hall" when shown several photos taken at various times and at different prisons. The first recorded came from the Indiana State Prison at Jeffersonville, dated December 2, 1908. Petty larceny was the ground of conviction in this case. Then comes one from Brantford, six months this time, also for theft. The date was February 5, 1912. Following was a sentence of nine months for theft imposed at Hamilton in February, 1913. The last was the St. Thomas conviction. Oddly enough, "Hall" claimed to have "enlisted" with the C. E. F. on August 20, 1914. On that date he was given 24 months for theft in a St. Thomas court.

At Jeffersonville, Indiana, the "mystery soldier" is said to have given Clyde Densham as his name. This changed to Craman DeEnon at Hamilton, back again to Densham for the Brantford conviction, and then to Royce DeEnon at St. Thomas. On Saturday night a soldier told the hospital authorities that the man's real name was Densham, that he knew him in England, and that, so far as he knew, he had seen no service with the Canadians. After long questioning yesterday by Col. Major Shields, Inspector Mitchell and other officers, "Hall" persisted in denying the identity proven by the photos.

Placed on Scales

A scale and measuring machine was brought in. Looking to be on the verge of a nervous collapse "Hall" was placed on the scale. His height was recorded as 5 feet 3 inches. Prison measurements, taken minus the boots, gave 5 feet 1 3/4 inches. The weight taken yesterday showed 111. However, vaccination marks, a scar on the head, and one on his face all corresponded.
