If you don't want to be made so attractive that all the marriageable girls in the town will be after you, it is best to keep your hair in its natural state, and not to go to the barber's; but if you want to catch the eye by a natty appearance, get your hair done there.

The concert held in St. George's school house on Monday evening under the auspices of the church choir was not patronized as largely as it deserved. The glee, choruses, solos, etc., were capitally rendered, and those present who cared for good music had an enjoyable time. The concert is highly spoken of by all who attended it.

About a fortnight ago, Moses Crossman, while putting the iron work on a rig which was being built, slipped through the bottom of the affair, and fell heavily upon his ribs against the side of the rig. Rev. Dr. Ure and Mrs. Ure on Friday evening last tendered a reception to the teachers of Knox church S. S., and welcomed the new superintendent and his bride back to Goderich. A number of the teachers were accompanied by their wives, and the party numbered about 60 persons. Dr. Ure's reputation as a genial and hospitable host was fully sustained.
No REDRESS.—At the division court yesterday Judge Macdonnell gave people renting machines and such articles a good piece of advice. If the contract does not contain a stipulation that they can return the article if it does not suit they are bound to keep it till the term of contract expires. They have no redress whatever and the full rent can be collected although they were unable to use the article for an hour. Poor work girls should be cautious how they sign contracts for such articles.—[Toronto World.]
"Bob" Holmes was up on Monday, seeing about the county printing, which fell to the lot of the New Era. There were only two tenders for the job, and both were below zero in rates. The New Era can afford to do the printing at such out-throat prices better than can the Sun, and Bro. Neelin ought to be glad that his Clinton competitor got the printing. We knew by the fire in the eye of our old friend E. Holmes, Sr., when he was up here last week that the New Era was going to get the job, even if they had to pay the county for the privilege of doing it.
The Lindsay Post man has a grievance, and thus ubosoms himself—"Last week a subscriber stopped his subscription to the Post for about the same reason we heard of. He complained that his neighbors and a brother or two—all good Tories—were so anxious to see the Post that they would take the paper out of the post office in his name and appropriate the paper, consequently he never got one number out of the ten. The paper he would be glad to see what disappointed, but the free readers would have to subscribe or go without." Such newspaper borrowers are not continued to Lindsay.
NEW SALT FIELD.—About six weeks ago a company was organized at Parkhill, Ont., under the name of "The Parkhill Salt Works." The directors immediately entered into a contract with Mr. Wm. McKenzie, of Oil Spring, formerly of Parkhill, who commenced boring about four weeks ago, and on Saturday evening struck salt at the depth of 1,100 feet. It is said that no well in Canada of the same depth was ever put down in so short a time. No mishap of any kind has occurred since its commencement, which speaks well for the skill and tact of the contractor. The salt is considered of good quality.
FATAL ILLNESS.—Robt. Lamprey, who for some time past was assistant in the store of W. H. Ridley, died on Saturday after a very short illness. He was present at the skating rink on Wednesday, apparently in robust health; on Thursday he was laid up, and on Saturday he died. The disease was a malignant form of scarlet fever. The deceased was only 19 years of age, was an obliging and efficient salesman, and was highly thought of by his employer. His sudden removal is much deplored by his relatives, and others who in even a brief acquaintance had learnt to esteem him for his civil manner and obliging ways.
R. C. LECTURE.—Despite the inclement weather of Wednesday evening, there was a fair attendance at the lecture delivered under the auspices of St. Peter's church, by Rev. Fr. Northgraves, on "Reason and Revelation." The hall was occupied by Mayor Horton, who duly introduced the rev. lecturer in fitting terms. The lecture consisted of an able defence of orthodox religion from the assaults of such writers and thinkers as Paine, Voltaire, Huxley, Tindal, Harriet Martineau, and others who have striven to sustain Reason alone, and discard Revelation. The lecture gave evidence of great research, and an earnest sifting of the arguments for and against the subject taken up for discussion. It lasted nearly two hours and a half, but during that time the rev. lecturer did not fail to keep the attention of the audience well in hand. At the conclusion of the lecture a vote of thanks was moved to the rev. speaker by Mr. D. McGillivuddy, seconded by Mr. P. O'Dea, and carried unanimously. After a vote of thanks to the chairman, the meeting was brought to a close. Should Rev. Mr. Northgraves see fit at some future time to deliver a lecture in our town we have every reason to believe a hearty welcome will be tendered him by the people of Goderich, of all creeds.

"THE THREE TOMS."—Considering the attendance a lecture usually commands in Goderich, the turn-out on Tuesday 26 hear Rev. T. M. Campbell's discourse on Moore, Hood, and Campbell, the poets of Ireland, England, and Scotland, was a good one. The lecturer kept pretty close to his manuscript, but the subject was made so interesting that it came as fresh as an impromptu address. Mr. Campbell gave an interesting sketch of the lives of the three poets, making some clever comparisons and contrasts, described their personal appearance, occupations and environment, and brought out with clearness the individuality of the three. He quoted from them liberally, and said that Scotland had never fully recognized her Tom Campbell's worth. He paid many compliments to the Irish Tom, and lingered as an admirer would around the rhythmic verses of the gentle writer of the "Song of the Shirt." The lecturer was weakest in the reading of his selections from the poets. The lecture was a literary treat. It contained many exquisitely turned and sparkling sentences, and was of a style and finish worth reproducing as a magazine article. In fact, we wonder that the editor of the Methodist Monthly Magazine has not before now got hold of the manuscript. Dr. Ure occupied the chair. Rev. J. A. Turnbull, seconded by S. Yates, moved a cordial vote of thanks.

CLINTON CARNIVAL.
Merry Maquers from Goderich Make a Good Show.
About fifty persons, many of them in costume, attended the Clinton Masquerade Carnival, on Friday from Goderich, in the evening. The three sleigh loads from here reached the lively village of Auburn at 8 p. m., drawn by the noble bays, the stout greys, and the dashing iron greys. The Leeburn templars are grateful for their Auburn brethren for their warm welcomes, kind attention and excellent supper. The order, like the programme, was good in a wider sphere. We wish Mr. McLean every success in that great city.
Edwin Mattice and bride returned last week from their wedding trip. They kindly entertained their friends to a sumptuous repast on Thursday evening. May they have a long and prosperous life. We hope to see some of our bachelor friends go and do likewise.

Leeburn.
The members of I. O. G. T. lodge No. 213 visited Auburn Lodge No. 304 last Friday. Porter's Hill.
A meeting was held in Bothel church to organize a Young People's Society. The constitution showed that the purpose of the society was the intellectual and moral advancement of the members. The officers were as follows:—President, Rev. Mr. Baugh; Vice-pres., H. Gillingham; treasurer, Burke Cox; sec'y, Jas. Grant; Misses M. J. Cox, Emma E. Pickard, F. E. Roberts and Chas. The executive committee of the Auburn branch of the Bible Society, held a meeting last Friday evening and appointed collectors. It was resolved to invite the agent of the society to attend the annual meeting and deliver an address.
TEMPERANCE.—Notwithstanding the extremely cold and stormy night, the tea-meeting held by the Good Templars on Wednesday evening of last week was tolerably well attended. Tea was served in the hall, and the intellectual part of the programme in the Methodist church. Much disappointment was felt at the nonappearance of Messrs. McGillivuddy and Gray, who were unable to be present. The W. C. T. of the lodge occupied the chair. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Hilliard Smith and Pritchard, who entertained those present in a very acceptable manner. The Leeburn brethren were welcomed heartily when they came to Auburn again, which was well done. Rev. A. E. Smith occupied the chair, and his ready and suitable remarks from time to time added much to the interest of the meeting. One of the features of the evening programme was an election cake, the contestants being the Misses L. Stalker and M. Sturdy. After a short but sharp canvass Miss Stalker was given the privilege of cutting the cake by a small majority. $6.50 was realized in this way. Thanks of the members of the lodge are tendered to those who attended the meetings, and thus rendered them successful. About $63 was realized.

Edwin Mattice and bride returned last week from their wedding trip. They kindly entertained their friends to a sumptuous repast on Thursday evening. May they have a long and prosperous life. We hope to see some of our bachelor friends go and do likewise.

Leeburn.
The members of I. O. G. T. lodge No. 213 visited Auburn Lodge No. 304 last Friday. The three sleigh loads from here reached the lively village of Auburn at 8 p. m., drawn by the noble bays, the stout greys, and the dashing iron greys. The Leeburn templars are grateful for their Auburn brethren for their warm welcomes, kind attention and excellent supper. The order, like the programme, was good in a wider sphere. We wish Mr. McLean every success in that great city.

FRANK OF NATURE.—A large elm tree was recently cut down on the farm of A. H. Nafrel. About 50 feet up the trunk a branch had sprung out, from which grew a cedar shoot about eight feet long. The sight was a remarkable one. A portion of the elm branch with the cedar attached was sent to Goderich for exhibition.

TEMPERANCE.—Notwithstanding the extremely cold and stormy night, the tea-meeting held by the Good Templars on Wednesday evening of last week was tolerably well attended. Tea was served in the hall, and the intellectual part of the programme in the Methodist church. Much disappointment was felt at the nonappearance of Messrs. McGillivuddy and Gray, who were unable to be present. The W. C. T. of the lodge occupied the chair. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Hilliard Smith and Pritchard, who entertained those present in a very acceptable manner. The Leeburn brethren were welcomed heartily when they came to Auburn again, which was well done. Rev. A. E. Smith occupied the chair, and his ready and suitable remarks from time to time added much to the interest of the meeting. One of the features of the evening programme was an election cake, the contestants being the Misses L. Stalker and M. Sturdy. After a short but sharp canvass Miss Stalker was given the privilege of cutting the cake by a small majority. $6.50 was realized in this way. Thanks of the members of the lodge are tendered to those who attended the meetings, and thus rendered them successful. About $63 was realized.
