The Herald Wins Again.

The Herald has won another fight for the people. As a fighting paper it stands alone, and when once it takes a stand on any question pertaining to the interests of the citizens, it fights right on to the bitter end. "No surrender," and "Might must not conquer right," are its mottoes. Bold and fearless in its principles, it is now a great power in the city, and is fast being recognized as Montreal's greatest and ablest newspaper. Speaking for its latest victory for the citizens, it says:—

Back to Montreal.

The fight against the subway franchise has been won. The amendment introduced yesterday at the instance of Sir Lomer Gouin and the Cabinet takes away from the companies all the valuable privileges they sought by their bills to get at the expense of Montreal, and sends them back to Montreal to ask for what they want and arrange to give good value for the citizens before they get it.

That is what The Herald has been fighting for ever since these bills were printed, and, with the exception of rare support here and there, The Herald has made the fight alone.

It makes a newspaper feel good to make and win that kind of fight. It means being right to begin with and getting right done to end with.

The hearty support of The Herald's readers has had a lot to do with the victory. That kind of support is what a statesman like Sir Lomer Gouin needs to have at his back when he sets out to see right done, as he did in this case.

A Great Boon for the Children.

There is a movement on foot amongst local societies interested in the youth of this city to provide free transportation to St. Helen's Island for all children who desire it, the provision to be at the cost of the city. Members of the Board of Control are understood to be favorable to the project.

In the case of the poorer classes, who have to pass the whole summer in crowded sections of the city, free transportation to the Island would be a great boon.

Many aldermen also have expressed themselves as thoroughly in favor of the scheme. Ald. O'Connell, of St. Ann's, to the children of whose ward such a project would be a great advantage, stated that if the project were legally possible it should certainly engage the attention of the civic administration.

The Sporting Season in Full Swing. The sporting season is in now in full swing. The revival in lacrosse among the boys, the going back to amateurism in the senior ranks are things which will certainly boom Canada's National Game. If anything like the programme outlined by the senior clubs among the boys Junior and intermediate leagues takes place why Montreal will see a sporting season never witnessed in this city before. The same may be said of baseball. Every vacant lot, Fletcher's Field, and even some of the larger parks are to be used as play grounds for the youngsters. Fletcher's Field is at present a busy place on Saturdays and Sundays with hundreds of men and boys playing the national game of the United States. The Montreal Shamrocks and National lacrosse directors have so many requests from lacrosse clubs to play on their grounds that it will be a difficult thing to accede to all. The Baseball Park is being fitted up with extra seating accommodation, and Mr. Eddie McCafferty, the genial secretary-treasurer of the Montreal Baseball Club, who is on dock again after his long illness, expects to have to work overtime in counting the shekels taken in at the big baseball matches this season. Montreal has started well in the Eastern League by winning three straight games at Jersey City. The team carries seven first class pitchers, and great things are expected from them in order to capture the pennant. In lacrosse some say that Toronto will land the Championship.

Wants Extra Police.

Chief Campeau wants 200 extra police for the harbor and other parts of the city. Two-thirds of the present force have to do night duty all over the city. The Board of Control will grant Chief Campeau's request.

Honouring The Dead.

On Sunday, May 1st, the "Last Post" will be conducted with military honors, under authorization of Col. Gordon, D.O.C., the funeral of seven veterans, who at present lie in the vaults of Mount Royal and Cote des Neiges cemeteries. Five of them were Protestants and the other two were Roman Catholics, so that there will be two services, one in the Protestant cemetery and the other in the Catholic. The funerals will be carried out with all military ceremonial, firing parties being assigned to pay the last honors.

Wedding Bells at Salmonier.

St. Joseph's R. C. Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the 30th ult. when Miss Mary A. Daly and Mr. William Gushue were united in hymen's bonds by the Rev. Fr. O'Flaherty, P.P. The bride looked charming in a very pretty princess dress of white net over pale blue silk muslin, with bridal veil and wreath of forget-me-nots. She was attended by Misses M. Nugent and G. Gushue, while Messrs. J. Gushue and P. Daly assisted the groom. The young couple are both residents of Salmonier and are universally esteemed. For the year preceding her marriage the bride had occupied the position of teacher in the primary department of St. Joseph's Superior School. After the ceremony the wedding party proceeded to the home of the bride where a reception was held, and the guests tripped the light fantastic till long after the break of day. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Gushue many happy years of wedded life.

Placentia Notes

Capt. Carroll's crew arrived by Saturday's train. Their bill, though small, will keep the bread box going. Come on now, boys! Give Carroll a chance! Give him a good ship! Then the Keams, Barbour's and such like successful men won't be in it at all.

Messrs. Rd. and J. Wyse are now getting their boat ready for the fishery. They are the only two fishing out of Placentia Harbor at present. This is small compared with past years. May all good luck attend them during the season.

Mr. Collett was here the past few days. He reports bait plentiful in all the coves and bay. He also reports setting out some trawls near Point Brene and having secured 12 tubs, which is considered good.

Mr. J. Fitzpatrick and Dr. N. Kendrick are at present ill of lagrippe. Quite a number of others are also laid out with the disease.

To Find Lost Village.

Low Tide Near Supposed Site May Help Solve Problem.

Blackpool fishermen say that they never remember a lower ebb of the sea than that of recent Monday. The prevalence of land breezes for some days helped the low ebb in uncovering a larger area of sand than any Blackpool resident has ever previously seen. Advantage has been taken of the favorable conditions for an attempt to solve problems connected with Pennystone and the tradition as to the submerged village of Single Thorpe, which historians say exists seaward a mile or more from Blackpool. Those who have visited Pennystone in past year say there is an iron ring attached which was formerly used for tethering pack and saddle horses.

KEEP MINARD'S LINIMENT IN THE HOUSE.

"Mary" and the Guy Celebration.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Comets and celebrations are the order of the day here at present with an occasional Agricultural meeting thrown in to make weight. I am not well up on cometology, as they are out of my reach, but I have a nice bed of "straw" about all the gardening I can attend to. What I want to speak on is the much-talked-of celebration. Oh, there is going to be a grand time. A man with an air of authority called at our house to-night and wanted to know how many visitors I could accommodate. Be careful, my poor, worn-out sisters of Harbor Grace, or you may find yourselves some day in August trying yourselves out over a hot stove preparing dinners for the visitors while they are out about taking in the sights, etc. Of course your husbands, sons, daughters and even your domestic help will all want to celebrate and you will be compelled to cook, cook, and listen to the visitors saying what a grand display so-and-so was. There is to be a grand ball, so I am informed, to entertain the officers of the visiting warships. Everything is to be in style. I can imagine seeing a lot of the children of poor parents who will not be able to get sufficient clothes to parade the street and take in the sights. What's to be done with them? I think sufficient wire fencing should be purchased from Rutherford & Co. the agents for Pages and Pasha's Plain to the north of this town should be fenced and all the poor children put in there until the visitors are gone! No, Mr. Editor, I cannot and I will not agree with spending a large amount of money in entertaining officers of warships. Let that part of the programme be filled by a free dinner to all the poor children in the town, and if necessary supply some clothing, etc., to help the poor to have a good time. It is no disgrace to be poor and I make no apology for mentioning this, for the Scripture says:—"The poor ye have always with you." I suppose some of the kid-gloved people will think my ideas are ridiculous, but consider them well and perhaps a way will be opened up to meet some of my views at any rate. I am sure John Guy, who left his comfortable home in Bristol and came out to this then desolate island, would not be satisfied to see no provision made in this Third Century celebration to entertain the children of the less-fortunate inhabitants of the oldest settlement. I am surprised, Mr. Telegram, that the able intelligent and patriotic executive of the Guy celebration committee should forget the poor in their endeavour to cater to the officers of warships. The old story, "rubbing butter to fat hogs."

A dinner for the children.
In August or July
Would give us all keen pleasure,
And honor old John Guy.
No greater pleasure I would wish,
Than watch the poor enjoy
A good square meal, with lots of fun,
When we celebrate John Guy.
MARY.

"A Delightful Pastime"

is the verdict of those who have purchased a Columbia Zither. It is a very fine zither, graceful in shape, and in every way a charming musical instrument. It is finished in polished black ebony, the same as a fine piano. Makes a beautiful gift for holiday or birthday. In a few short evenings you can learn to play the Columbia Zither with facility and ease. The lower notes are tuned in groups of chords. The higher notes render the air while the chords produce the accompaniment. For sale by Arthur B. Walker, Sole Agent for Newfoundland and Maritime Provinces. One month's free lessons at the studio, 12 New Gower Street (Albion House). Note: Toy zithers and small autoharps cost less, but the Columbia Zither excels in size and durability, combines the tone qualities of the guitar and mandolin. Can only be obtained from Arthur B. Walker who imports direct from factory in U. S. A., and has handled them exclusively since 1899. Call and secure one now and get instructed for one month free of charge. Autoharps put in perfect tune for 10c. Follies, strings, etc., at New York prices. A few piano follies 50 per cent off.—adv. may 3/8.

Schooner Wrecked.

Pike's schooner of Channel, the Cedella, bound down to the Straits with fishing crews, was towed into Lark Harbor, Bay of Islands, yesterday evening by the s.s. Fiona. The Cedella left Channel last week with 49 fishermen and one woman on board for Bartlett's Harbor. When off Cape Gregory last Tuesday night she struck a piece of ice and a hole was stove at the water line. On hoisting distress signals the next morning the crew of the s.s. Fiona saw her, bore down and took her in tow and brought her to Lark Harbor. The Cedella is the vessel that was out to the seal-fishery in the Gulf and whose crew made a good bill.

H.M.S. BRILLIANT.

The warship Brilliant will arrive on fishery protection service about the 20th inst.

Historical Society.

Mr. A. J. W. McNeilly presided at the regular weekly meeting of the Historical Society held last night in the Court House. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read the Secretary arose and said that he had written to Bristol informing the parties there who were interested that the Guy celebration would take place on August the 10th. A letter was read from the committee at Cupids stating that the land had been secured for the memorial, etc., and that work would begin next week. The Secretary was instructed to write the committee to confirm the sale. Mr. McNeilly gave advice on the matter. Mr. Shortis informed the meeting that he had been presented with a valuable diary of the seal-fishery by Mr. Collis at Queen's Road. The statistics covered the period when the seal-fishery was at its height, viz., during the fifties and sixties. The record was donated by Mr. Collis to the Historical Society. Mr. Nichols expressed the opinion that it was time to be up and going in the business of perfecting arrangements for the Guy celebration. The meeting closed at 9.15.

Sealers Discharged.

The steamers Aurora and Adventure finished discharging their seals yesterday afternoon. The Aurora's turn-out was 9,125 young harps, 66 young hoods, 795 bedlamers, 171 old harps, 7 old hoods and 3 square flippers, totalling 10,162 seals. The net weight was 212 tons, 6 cwt., 2 qrs., 9 lbs. The net value was $18,599.90, and her crew of 186 men shared $32.72 each. The Adventure turned out 7,742 young harps, 193 bedlamers, 1,640 old harps, 3 old hoods, totalling 10,578. The gross weight was 280 tons, 7 cwt., 4 lbs.; net weight, 262 tons, 3 cwt., 21 lbs.; average of young harps 47 lbs. Net value $21,119.61. Her crew of 203 men shared $34.50 each.

McMurdo's Store News

FRIDAY, May 6, '10.

We have renewed our stock of the famous Pine Tree Lozenges, and we should like many who have not used them before to try them, as they have no equal for colds, hoarseness, huskiness, "frog in the throat" and all that class of ailments induced by changeable weather during this rather fickle month of May. All who have used Pine Tree Lozenges continue to use them, as a matter of course. Price 25 cents.

If you have not yet put away your furs it is time to do so now; but do not omit to put plenty of moth balls with them. You can get them at our stores in any quantity needed.—adv.

POLICE KEPT BUSY.—Last evening and night the police had quite a busy time of it. There was a good deal of drunkenness evident, several street brawls occurred and by midnight there were 15 prisoners in the cells. Several were disorderlies and a couple were released during the night on making the usual deposit.

Here and There.
