Popularity.

BY H. L. RANN.

Popularity is something which never deserts a man until he becomes a candidate for office. Nothing else on land or sea will cause it to lose its hold except blocking the wheels of progress with a paving petition. One of the worst hindrances to popularity is to take out a new political or religious conviction and shake them in the face of people who haven't any. This is a very dando not care for popularity and drive away trade by stepping on their customers' pet theories with a set of debating tools. The best proof of popularity is to go up against the Australian ballot and come out without having to wait for the official count. Every now and then somebody will break out with an idea which has not been copyrighted and reduce his stock of popularity to the point where he can't get trusted for a bar of soap. This is the fate of all reformers, who never become popular with anybody except posterity. The easiest form of popularity to attain is the society kind, which is propagated at heavy expense by a relay of six-course dinners, bribe whist orgies and exhibitions of the light fantastic toe. No woman ever becomes popular in society without entertaining the heart-lest eaters in the community on an average of three times a week, and when this practice is discontinued she erous custom, and has resulted in using a great many crusaders to go on to the siding with a subdued look. It is a harrowing thing to be unpopular, but it is worse to be so utterly crooked that nobody can tell whether you are for or against. There is a great deal of popularity in circulation which manages to be out of town when the time comes to stand up and be counted. This kind always looks in on the winning side and demands the lion's share of the perquisites and other delicatessen. Some people are so anxious to be popular that they agree with anybody who expresses a blood-red opinion on anything from Wagner's orchestration to the birthplace of Cain's wife. Others will experience a slump in her batting average that will bring on an attack of heart failure.

Synod and the Conference.

PERTINENT REMARKS.

The meeting of the Methodist Conference in this city, just closed, will be a very memorable one. Not for long time have we had such a galaxy of literary lights. Indeed it has been a great literary treat to listen to the able and scholarly addresses delivered by the reverend gentlemen on the various important matters engaging their attention.

The meeting of the Synod of the "good old Church of England" has also brought to the city a large number of clerics, some of them of great mental calibre who, as well as Methodist, have been engaged in discussing great social, religious and other kindred subjects for the better carrying forward of the work in which they are specially interested. Doctor C. E. Smith, Rector of the C. of E. Cathedral at Vancouver, has been a very prominent figure among the visitors and has won the highest encomium as a pulpit orator; but perhaps no visitor or other person has got ahead of His Lordship Bishop Jones as a chaste, cultured and scholarly pulpit orator.

Doctor Chown of the Methodist Conference, whose mission takes him over the whole of Western Canada made some very pertinent remarks touching the "get rich quick" scheme practised in that part of the world. He had known some persons to grow fabulously wealthy by the expenditure of a few hundred dollars by exploiting business transactions that were neither honest nor honourable. He had known men, however, whose high sense of honour would not bend to such questionable methods—men who had only to sign their names to a document and become wealthy; but they would not commit themselves to such questionable methods of business. "The earth is the Lord's and the fulness thereof," said the reverend gentleman, and it is rather the duty of governments to appropriate the land for the good of the people and their posterity.

Dr. Sheridan Here From China

Dr. Sheridan is paying his first visit to Newfoundland. He has had remarkable success in his work out of China; he excels as a medical man and his skill is well known in West China. On Tuesday afternoon, at 4 p.m., in Gower St. Church, all the Sunday School scholars, teachers and friends will assemble in a mass meeting to hear him. The service will be of a most interesting character and every scholar and teacher should make an effort to be present. Rev. and Mrs. Soper will be on the platform and take part in the service, which fact alone will stimulate a great many to participation in the service. On Monday the Epworth League holds a monster meeting, and lantern slides illustrating Dr. Sheridan's work will be shown. The service commences at 8 p.m. in the schoolroom at Gower Street. Also on Tuesday, at 11 a.m., a special meeting for Mission Band workers and Primary scholars will take place, the lantern slides again being one of the attractions. As these series of services will be the only opportunity to hear and see Dr. Sheridan, and also as a farewell to Rev. and Mrs. Soper, your presence will denote your support of the missionary cause and stimulate the efforts of our missionaries in their work in the foreign field.—E.V.W.

At the City Hall.

The weekly session of the Municipal Council was held yesterday afternoon at Green & Co., E. Tulk, P. Kavanagh, H. Carter, H. Baird, Thom. Harris, Fong Lee, D. J. Barron, J. Murphy, F. Edgewood and Jas. P. Blackwood made applications which were referred to the Engineer for report.

The Engineer's report showed that Hamilton Street sewer had been advanced to the junction of Leslie St. Extension of sewer to houses on Cornwall Avenue, west of the White House, had been finished. Water main extension up Field Street to Freshwater Road and Scott Street was progressing. Extension of new main from Ben's Dan on to Cornhill Avenue was under way, and 400 feet of trenching was ready for pipes.

Windsor Lake showed a 12 inch decline below the "spellway," considered satisfactory at this season. After the passing of pay rolls, etc., the meeting closed.

Regatta Meeting.

The meeting of the Regatta Committee, held at Wood's West End Restaurant last night, was largely attended. President Hisecock occupied the chair. Dr. Rendell wrote regretting he would be absent from the Regatta this season. The Presidents of existing boat clubs will be enrolled on the Committee this year. Councillor Ryan will look after the granting of spaces for races, &c. Consideration of the Naval-Firemen's race, the last on the programme, was deferred until next meeting. Vice-Pres. Higgins will interview the various mercantile firms as to suggestions made last year in connection with the mercantile race. The collectors will begin work next week.

Football Match.

The Star and B. I. S. kicked off on St. George's Field last evening. The weather was unfavourable for football and the attendance was small. During the first half no goals were scored, although the Irish boys had the best of it. Dunn, the Star full back, had his leg hurt and discontinued playing. After changing ends the Star increased the pace and succeeded in scoring five goals, while their opponents did not reach the net once. Mr. R. R. Wood acted as referee.

FAST DRIVING.—Round Quidi Vi- di Lake last night a motor drove at top speed. The same often applies to country roads. Something should be done in the matter to protect pedestrians.

STOPPED THE BLEEDING In Less Than Three Minutes

Mr. A. Ferguson, of Conway, Ont., owes a valuable horse to Douglas' Egyptian Liniment. He says:

"I had a valuable horse and while working in the woods a large stub ran into his ankle; the horse would have bled to death if I had not been able to get a bottle of Douglas' Egyptian Liniment. After applying the same the bleeding stopped altogether in less than three minutes."

You never know when a similar accident may happen to one of your horses, or a member of your family. Then a bottle of Douglas' Egyptian Liniment would be priceless. It keeps a wound free from inflammation or proud-flesh, and prevents blood poisoning.

Bruses, sprains, burns, bunions, corns, felons, cold sores, pimples, ring-worm, barber's itch are quickly relieved and cured by Douglas' Egyptian Liniment. 25c. at all druggists. Free sample on request. Douglas & Co., Napanee Ont.

Stick to Your Trade

I found in the years that are past that switching around is no use; for the cobbler should stick to his last, and the tailor should stick to his goose. In winding a clock I excelled; no others could wind as I wound—at least so my partisans held—and still I kept fooling around at tasks of a different kind, for which I had no sort of knack; ah, me! I was stupid and blind! Oh, waly! Alas and alack! I worked for a while in a store, I toiled for a time in a mill; I dug out some valueless ore from the side of a vitrified hill; I wrought with a truck laying crew; I wielded with a spade on the street, and poorer and poorer I grew, until I had nothing to eat. When I'd blown in the last of my rocks, I said: "I'll go back to my trade; when it comes to the winding of clocks, all rivals are put in the shade." Since then I have prospered, you bet, and I've my own wisdom to thank; I haven't a care or a debt, and I have a roll in the bank. And thousands are fooling along, and putting themselves in a plight; they're doing the task that is wrong, they pass up the one that is right. Don't tackle the job you do worst, if you'd enjoy comfort and peace; for the cobbler should stick to his last, and the tailor should stick to his goose.
