Wedding Bells.

quiet but exceedingly pretty wedding took place at St. Patrick's Church, April 18th, when Miss Bertha Pennington and Mr. James McGroarty were united in holy bonds of matrimony.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Renouf. The bride was hand-gowned in cream silk with veil of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of Lilies-of-the-Valley, and attended by her confidential friend, Miss Violet Marshall, who wore a black hat. The charming little girls were Mildred Penney and McGroarty, niece of the bride and groom, respectively. The ceremony being ably supported by Mr. Renouf. After the ceremony a happy couple drove to the home of the bride's brother, Walsh's Square, where a reception was held. The couple received were numerous and testifying the esteem of both bride and groom. We wish Mr. and Mrs. McGroarty many years of happy wedded bliss.

One-Man Government.

St. John's, May 4th, 1917.

Sir—The letter headed "One-Man Government" which appeared in your issue of the 2nd inst. is a very interesting and factually correct statement of the present Government.

Here we have an administration that has been in power for the last eight years, and they are unable to get the Legislature for the despatch of business because one man, Sir Edward Morris, is in control of the Government.

There is a public declaration of objectivity on the part of a Government which is in power for the last eight years, and they are unable to get the Legislature for the despatch of business because one man, Sir Edward Morris, is in control of the Government.

The public we fully aware of the fact that the Government is in power for the last eight years, and they are unable to get the Legislature for the despatch of business because one man, Sir Edward Morris, is in control of the Government.

See Sir Edward quietly making at the confusion amongst the people that his absence has caused, and can quite believe that in his absence he says to himself "serve the people" in the meantime the Government remains closed, the band of the crowd will cheer, "and Sir Edward moves on."

Yours truly, CITIZEN.
