THE DISASTER ON JUBA RIVER

erri ble Slaughter of Sikhs by Tribet man

Many Sepoys Speared by Tribesmen Before They Could Fire a Shot.

Bombay, Sept. 10.-The following further particulars of the recent affair in Jubaland are interesting. Major Quinton had issued the strictest orders to the troops, when reconnoitering, that they should always march with fixed bayonets; while each man also carried two cartridges in his hand, so as to be able to load his rifle on the shortest notice. His directions for fighting, when the enemy was sighted, were also admirably adapted for local jungle conditions. The men were directed always to watch both flanks, the files facing to the right and left sudden attacks from either side. Jemadar Racha Singh, who commanded the reconnoitering party, seems to have neglected to follow out these or-The result was that the enemy caught his party quite unprepared. Many sepoys were speared before they could fire a shot or fix bayonets. They were nearly all Sikhs, and after murderer is a man named Lucchoni. LIFE SAVED.—Mr. James Bryson Cameron writes: I was confined to my bed with inflammation of the lungs and was given up by physicians. A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine, and less than half a bottle oured me; I certainly believe it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as I was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me good.
