LONDON AND ENVIRONS

-The Board of Works do not meet to--M. C. R. Detective Heenan,

Thomas, was in town to-day. -Joseph Cass, a Strathroy vagrant, arrived in the city this morning to spend four months with Governor Kelly.

-S. S. Armitage, of this city, has a Plymouth Rock ben which laid an egg weighing 41 ounces, and measuring 81 by 61 inches.

-Phebe Hall, the woman charged with blackmailing Farmer Benjamin Maybee, of Guysboro, has been committed for trial at

-Mrs. Baeretz, the Jewess and woman revivalist who held services in London last winter, has just finished a course of services at Ryde, Isle of Man. -William Martin, who stole an overcoat and three pair of gloves recently in the city, was sentenced to-day by Judge Edward Elliott to six months in the Central.

--- Complete returns on the plebiscite from North Dorchester are: Men for prohibition 540; women for 16; men against 155; women against 2. This is a proportion of 5 to 1 for prohibition.

-That the London Hunt ball in the Opera House on Friday, Jan. 19, will be the most successful yet held is beyond question, if the application for tickets to Secretary Burns is any indication. There are already over 100 from Toronto, Hamilton, Woodstock, Ingersoll, Strathroy and outside places.

-The funeral of Lizzie Eaton, whose very sudden death ADVERTISER readers are aware of, took place yesterday afternoon from the house on Quebec street to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Joseph Philp, and the scenes, both at the grave and at the house, were more than usually touching.

-Rev. F. W. Terry has exhibited symptoms of great mental weakness since his return to the London Asylum, and there are no hopes of his permanent recovery .- Mr. Robson, of Huron College, will be ordained in May, after which he will take charge of All Saints' Chapel, Woodstock .- [Evangelical Churchman.

-Hay, beef and dressed hogs were the most noticeable commodities on the market this morning. Hay was so plentiful that sales were slow at $7 and $8 a ton. Dressed hogs, too, were lower, and the supply was, if anything, greater than the demand. Sales ranged from $5 50 to $6 50. The supply of cereals was light and there was no change in price. Potatoes are still begging for buyers at 65 cents and 75 cents a bag. The meat market was crowded but prices un-

-Dust and wind at their wildest fancy in a midsummer drought could not equal the blinding dust storm prevalent on the streets to-day. And this in January! Dust is never free from disease, and at this time of the year no better agency need be required to promote sickness of all kinds. Inflamed eyes and membraneous air passages are one of the results, and if snow does not come street sprinklers will be again in order.

-At an enthusiastic meeting of London Circle, No. 183, Canadian Order of Home Circles, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Past Leader, Dr. R. Ferguson; leader, Geo. Angus; vice-leader, W. Eastwood; secretary-treasurer, Miss Isabella Gourley; financial secretary, E. D. Croden; chaplain, Allan McConnel; marshal, R. B. Heighway; warden, W. Jones; guard, W. E. Rathburn; sentinel, A. Flowers; medical examiner, Dr. R. Ferguson; auditors, Dr. R. Ferguson and A. T. McMechan.

natives, $4 25 to $4 90; choice up to $5 to $5 10.

The Canadas here were mostly superior stock and selected lots went up as high as $5 35, with choice at $5 25 to $5 30 and good at $5 10 to $5 20. Good stock will undoubtedly reach higher prices, but poor stock and anything on the bucky order is hard to sell, with values undecided from day to day. Canada sheep, good to choice, $3 50 to $3 75; export wethers, $4 25 to $4 60, as to condition. For the butche; trade good native sheep sold at $3 to $3 50 heavy fat 150 lb ewes, $3 70; common to fair sheep, $2 50 to $2 90; good and choice wethers. $3 60 to $4: call stock, $1 75 to $2 25.

dismissed on suspended sentence. The | MIDDLESEX WINTER third accused, Thomas Delaney, although the magistrate stated that he had no doubts as to the vouth's complicity, was discharged. Only the evidence of his pards, not legally admissable, could be obtained. Harriett Williams, whose record is already long and continually extending, was found guilty of vagrancy, and remanded for a week to await sentence. Hugh Sharkey, charged with shaving on Sunday, was fined $2.

-J. M. Logan, of 292 Central avenue, is still confined to his rooms from la grippe.

-In the sheep-worrying case of Dickie vs. Burns, Judge William Elliot has given judgment sustaining the conviction. The evidence was very conflicting, and the magistrate did not see his way clear to make any change. -The ice at the Cove continues in splendid form for skating, and on these pleasant afternoons it is patronized by hundreds. The river is frozen over at Clark's and Blackfriars bridges, and while not any too safe as yet, skaters young and old congregate there in large numbers. -A meeting of the district council executive of the East Middlesex Royal Templars was held last night in the South London Temperance Dramatic Club rooms.

at which it was decided to change the date of the annual meeting from Jan. 25 to Jan. 30, to be held in Somerset Hall. The morning and afternoon sessions on that date will consist of regular business in connection with the order and a council of instruction under the direction of Grand Councilor Rev. W. Kettlewell, of Paris. At night a programme consisting of local talent, assisted by Rev. Kettlewell, of Paris, Rev. Kerr, of Thorndale, Mr. Bellamy, of Ingersoll, with other speakers in the district, will be provided.

A Local Smallpox Scare.

A few days ago a report was extensively circulated around town to the effect that a child had died of smallpox on Grey street. The local health officer knew nothing of the case, but a death registered at the city clerk's office yesterday explained it all. It was that of infant Nora Coveney, aged 1 year and 9 months, and the cause of death set forth is chickenpox with erysipelas. Death of Mr. George Anderson.

In the death of Mr. George Anderson yesterday there passed away a man who had lengthy business connections in this city. About ten years ago he was in partnership with Daniel Dodd. They carried on a large grocery concern for some time, until the firm of Dodd & Anderson into the employment of E. B. Smith & Co. Two years ago he again commenced business, the new firm being known as Anderson & Barnard. He will be very much

A RICH HAUL!

Thieves in Montreal Get It—Cut Through a Staircase.

MONTREAL, Jan. 11 .- A daring robbery was committed at an early hour this morning on the jewelry store of M. Cochenthaler on St. James street. The thieves cut through a staircase on the adjoining premises, which gave them ingress to the rear of the Cochenthaler store. They got away with some $3,000 worth of diamond thieves who were evidently, however, well acquainted with the premises.

BURIED IN A TRANCE. Peculiar Case of Mrs. Emmons at North

Judson, Ind. KNOX. Ind., Jan. 11 .- Mrs. John Emmons, of North Judson, was taken suddenly sick and apparently died a week ago. The doctors pronounced it a case of brain fever, while others thought it a possible case of suicide. Her husband desired to keep the body for a few days to make sure of death. It seems that her mother went into a trance for four days, rallied and lived five years; also that her grandfather on her mother's side, after having been pronounced dead for six days, awoke and lived for 23 years. Mrs. Emmons' body was kept until last Saturday, when on demand of the physician and numerous residents it was interred. During the time between Monday and Saturday the body did not become rigid, and when the nose was weighted down and then the weight removed, it immediately assumed its natural shape. The corpse looked as lifelike at the time of burial as it did on the day of death, although the physicians applied the different death tests and pronounced her dead. Mortification did not set in, and she was laid to rest without waiting for that, the surest of all tests, to take place. Many are of the opinion that the woman has been buried alive.

Died at His Golden Wedding.

GLASBORO, N. J., Jan. 11 .- George W. Harvey, one of the most prominent citizens of Ione, died last evening. He was cele-brating the anniversary of his golden wedding and was surrounded by his children and grandchildren. He kissed one of the latter on the head and a hair lodged in his threat, bringing on a severe coughing spell. in the midst of which a blood-vessel burst. Mr. Harvey died in a few moments. His wife was so shocked that she has been unconscious since her husband's death.

In a Burning Mine. GRASS VALLEY, Cal., Jan. 11.-Late Wednesday night fire broke out in the hoisting works of the Idaho-Maryland mine, imprisoning 78 miners 2,000 feet below the surface. The wildest excitement prevailed throughout the town. The miners finally escaped by climbing 2,000 feet up a perpendicular air shaft. Two hours had elapsed before the last man reached the surface, and the men were almost exhausted. The loss to the hoisting works will be $75,000.

Judgment in Smith vs. Madole - A Libel Suit.

Wednesday Afternoon.

When court was opened at 1:30 there was a large crowd in attendance. The case of Wright vs. Baines was, on consent of counsel, laid over till to-day, when it is expected that Mr. B. B. Osler will be on hand an behalf of the plaintiff.

Judgment was given in the reserved case of Smith vs. Madole, dismissing the action without costs. ACTION FOR LIBEL.

Holman vs. Sutherland was an action for libel brought by Albert Holman, of Newbury, against the proprietor of the Glencoe Transcript, Mr. Sutherland. About a year ago at the Grand Trunk station at Glencoe, a row occurred among some young men who were said to be under the influence of liquor. When the case was reported to the authorities Constable Logan, of this city, went to investigate the affair and among those arrested was Holman. In the following issue of the Transcript a report of the affair was published, mainly on the strength of information secured by the defendant's brother. Holman's name being mentioned among the rest. After the trial (in which plaintiff was discharged) Sutherland heard that Holman was somewhat aggrieved by the item and went to see him. As a result, the following week a paragraph appeared in the paper expressing regret at the publication of such an item, and hoping that Mr. Holman's character had not been injured. After deliberating for about an hour and a half the jury gave a verdict for plaintiff, assessing damages at $10. LONG VS. CLEVELAND.

On the non-jury list were two cases of Long vs. Cleveland, brought by Josiah Long, of Yarmouth, against the defunct Cleveland syndicate which leased the London and Port Stanley Railway. The action was brought to recover the value of a quantity of timber delivered to the company at Port Stanley for the construction of slip-docks. The value of the timber was $416, on which only $30 had been paid. When Mr. Robinson was examining the plaintiff, Justice Rose interrupted him and said that there was a difficulty in the way, and that was the fact that at was dissolved. Mr. Anderson then went | the time of the purchase the company had not been incorporated. The judge questioned counsel, the latter saving that the members of the company were worth nothing and their scheme was carried entirely on wind. Mr. Robinson said he was willing to take judgment against either the company or individual members without Daniel Long, brother of the plaintiff, claimed $348 10 for timber supplied for a similar purpose. The evidence was reviewed, and as the point at issue was merely as to who should pay the costs of this and a previous action, the judge dismissed the case without costs. This was what the plaintiff wanted. ROBINSON VS. MOCKIN.

This case arose through a transfer of a pins, bracelets and pendants, as well as chattel mortgage, and was brought by the jewelry. There is no clue to the Messrs, Robinson, Little & Co., of this city, are hereafter to have whistles in their to set aside a transfer of a chattel motgage made by a man named Thomas, of Arkona, to his son-in-law. Judgment was given to the effect that Thomas would have a lien on the mortgage for $440, the balance to go to the creditors. Geo. C. Gibbons, Q.C., for the plaintiffs; Kennedy for de-

Thursday Morning.

The first case taken up was that of Cronk vs. Grant. Thomas Baird, a shoe dealer in Woodstock, failed, and made an assignment to John K. Brown, after J. & T. Grant, of the same town, had filed an execution in the sheriff's office for $1,000 against the unfortunate merchant. The present action is brought by Cronk & Tallman, wholesale boot and shoe dealers, of St. Thomas, to have the assignment referred to set aside, and the assets divided for the benefit of the creditors generally. It was agreed that the moneys which the sheriff had already realized should be given to Finkle & McMullen, Woodstock. After appro-priating $100 to themselves, as a reimbursement for professional services, and having given $75 to Gibbons & Co., the balance is to be distributed among the other creditors, pro rata.

George Morton brought an action against Jenkin Owen to recover a certain amount of money which was deposited in the latter's bank at the time of its failure. Judgment was registered for the plaintiff to the amount of $700 and costs. In Merton vs. Kennedy judgment was given to the plaintiff for $207 94 and

The action of Wright & Durand, builders, against the Canada Pork Packing Company was not finished when the court arose. The plaintiffs allege that they were never paid for work performed in connection with the new Pottersburg establishment. The contention of the defendants is that the work was improperly finished, and that in consequence the architects had witheld their certificate. The work, too, had been extended far beyond the contracted time. The judge held, though, in this connection, that there had been no unreasonable delays.

The Brilliant Ball Catcher Will Never Play Again-Both Legs Off.

WELLSVILLE, Ks., Jan. 11. - Charley Bennett, the famous catcher of the Boston baseball club, will never appear on the diamond as a brilliant player again. His brilliant career came to an end last night in this city, when he was run over by a Santa Fe passenger train at this place and had both legs cut off. He was on his way from Kansas City to Williamsburg, got off at Wellsville to speak to a friend, and in getting on slipped and fell under the wheels. His left leg was cut off at the ankle and the other at the knee. He is in the Santa Fe hospital here, suffering intense agony.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- John Will, a German silk weaver, 46 years old, died yesterday from blood poisoning and cardiac asthenia. Seven weeks ago, on his return from a fishing expedition, while cleaning fish, a fishbone entered the middle finger of his right hand and became embedded in the flesh. The wound became painful and the doctor said it was blood poisoning. Dr. Starke operated on the wounded hand on several occasions, but without affording much relief. The blood poisoning spread throughout the patient's entire system and he died in agony.

Indian Silver Troubles.

CALCUTTA, Jan. 11 .- At a meeting of the Legislative Council to-day Fazilhai Vishram, a member of the Viceroy's council, asked whether the Government meant to impose an import duty on silver. A public declaration, he said, ought to be made to relieve the anxiety of those in mercantile business. Mr. Westland replied that the Government was unable to make a statement that would fetter its discretion in the future.

Phaeton Run by Electricity. LONDON, Jan. 11 .- The electric dogcars of Mr. Magnus Volk, of Brighton, has been followed by the electric phaeton of M. Paul Pouchain, of Armentieres, in France. The hind wheels are driven by an endless chain gearing and an electric motor fed by Dujardin accumulators, in six boxes of nine elements each. These and the motors are contained in the body of the carriage, which is controlled from the front seat by switches and brakes. One charge of the battery serves for a journey of 40 miles, at a speed of about ten miles an hour. The vehicle has already made its appearance on the streets of Paris.
