and you will then understand why its sale is so enormous.

13 Million Packets Annually.

Sold only in lead packets. 25c, 30c, 40c, 50c, 60c per lb. afternoon. BY ALL GROCERS.

his hands.

What did it matter to him how beautiful she was? Was she not Kate had robbed him, the daughter of as old lady.

you all you are to me, than never to You have heard of them, I suppose? have seen you? What is it the poet-

"Better to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all."

But you can't lose what you never had, had more than the look of your sad, it without a second glance, sweet eyes, the music of your sweet gentle voice! You can never be anything to me but a dream and a long-ing; nothing more—nothing more!" All was still outside, save for the strange, mystic wail of the curfew. ball; that's really what I've come The moon had risen, and touched the about this afternoon." waves with silver, and poured a fairy light through the branches of the firs at the quarry's edge his deed of heroism. Slowly it came thing, this ball-I don't fancy it's in in the darkness, then stood before he ath for Nellie-sftod quite silent potionless; and the moon touched ul figure of a young girl. stood with her face turned to thted window of the cottage, he es froced upon it with a strange.

him toward her. stod motionless while one could fifty, then she stretched out her towards him with a gesture of dear?"

s Nellie; but as she stood in the t she might have been taken spirit of maiden innocence. Intrembling on the verge of that s river beyond which lies the love-and sorrow and joy and rd was in a state of excitement ws. Kate Meddon was en-Lord Carr-Lyon! The major one house to another with tidings, strutting like a turand puffing out his chest like before noon of the day major's little dinner, every s not a girl in Sandford who on, with a five-and-twenty d pounds rent-roll, and house counties of England, to say of Scotland and Ireland! great "catch," everybody said; mothers of the marriageable rs, who had been angling for ured somethig about Lord Carrbeing rather wild and unsettled; ill they hoped "poor Kate" would "poor," which spoke volumes own envy of the good forwhich had befallen Major Med-daughter. ne fact is, my dear," said Lady ner, who was the wife of General ner, and the principal lady and a great friend of Kate's, ect is, my dear, they are all mad! Here have they been try-heir hardest to get him for their girls, spending no end of money that's being a great countess," she said quietly.

CHAPTER XII.

heat, at the head of the stretch, Alloguiet pacing strongly, stuck his hoof through the wheel of Locanda's sulky.

lonable beauty in her time, and had seen a great deal of the world, eyed

In this part of the world, eyed her rather narrowly.

The fire roared and crackled, the kettle sung, the pretty lamp threw a soft light over the room. It was marvelous! Last night he had slept in a hayloft, tonight he was in a house of his own!

"I wish Miss Nelly could see 'un," said Jim, with his mouth full; "she was so mighty uneasy a-thinkin' you would not be comfortable;"
"Miss Nellie need have no such fear!" said Clifford, "We are as happy as a couple of sandboys, aren't we, Jim?" then suddenly, even as he spoke, the face of Kata Meddon specific or a great deal of the world, eyed her world, eyed her rather narrowly.

"You take it very quietly, my dear," she will taylou seem less—what shall I say?—surprised and excited that any of us. To me, at any of us. To me at any of us. To me, at any of us. To me at any of us. To me, at any of us. To me, at any of us. To me, at any of

When he came back Clifford had dreamy expression in her eyes, which Carr-Lyon. Jim cleared the things away as quietly as possible, hung about a few minutes, then stole out.

Carr-Lyon.

The old lady watched her keenly. She had no daughters of her own, and Kate—motherless Kate—had crept into the stole out.

Meddon, the daughter of the man who she unlocked it and showed it to the vile and worthless an old villain as the "My dear, Kate!" exclaimed Mrs.

world could produce?

And if she were not, whatever then could it matter? Who was he? — the tramp of yesterday, the workman of partis of the season at my feet—and woman!
"Oh, Kate, Kate!" he murmured, flinging himself into the chair with a heavy sigh; "if I had never seen you! And yet, no; I won't say that! Better to burn with this intense longing to be near you and see you and tell you are to me, than never to You have heard of them I suppose."

Way with a poor soldier!" and she laughed and made a little moue. "Rubies and pearls were always my favorites; some people pretend that they are too gay, but depend upon it, it's a case of sour grapes with them. Yes, they are magnificent, Kate! And then there are the Caresford diamonds, you all you are to me, than never to You have heard of them I suppose."

Nervoto, b. h. (A. P. McDonald)... 2 2 3 NATIONAL STAND (Currie) ... 3 3 2 Hazel Patch, blk. m. (Flack and Currie) ... 4 New York ... 70 Nathan Strauss, b. g. (A. Thomas). 6 6 5 Nathan Strauss, b. g. (A. Thomas). 6 6 5 Nathan Strauss, b. g. (A. Thomas). 6 6 5 Of St. Louis ... 59 Chicago ... 59 Turley, br. g., by French (Geers)... 3 1 1 St. Louis ... 39 "Yes; Lord Carr-Lyon has told me about them," said Kate, indifferently. Lady Warner eyed her. "You will have some of the finest ewels in the kingdom, Kate," she said. jewels in the kingdom, Kate," she said. Nora McKinney, b. m. (Andrews)... 6 ds "But you don't seem to care very much about them?" she added, as Kate put Time—2:09, 2:10½, 2:13½. about them?" she added, as Kate put nd I never had you, my queen; never the set of rubies in the box and closed "I don't think I care very much for jewelry, Lady Warner," she said. "You'll grow fond of them in tim everybody does," said her ladyship, shrewdly. "But now, Kate, about this "Yes," said Kate.

"Your father has asked me to play at the quarry's ledge
All was still and motionless, save the soft roll of the waves and the slow sweep of the night-gull. But was there nothing lelse? Yes; there was something coming down the path by which Clifford had come in time for his doad of header. Slowly it came the part of-what shall I say?-hostess accord with strict etiquette; but Lord leap that was to mean life Carr-Lyon seems bent upon having house-warming at Lydcote, and a ball is as good as anything else, I suppose." "Yes, I suppose so," said Kate, as indifferently as if the matter had no connection whatever with herself. Lady Warner looked at her with the same glance of keen scrutiny. "Yes. And as he appears to have a ok in the violet eyes so thrill-its eestacy of gratitude and ten-its eestacy of gratitude and tenas and wistfulness, that it is a part, I suppose I must consent to be the did not pierce the dull walls, the hostess on this occasion. It will > people as I like. Is there anybodyany relations-you would like to have, we have any relations-excepting the ervants and work-people, Kate? You: father says that Lord Carr-Lyon wants to make it quite an open affair, and invite all the working people in the neighborhood." "Yes, I think Lord Carr-Lyon said something to that effect." said Kate.

"It's really very kind and generous mare was good in the last two heats, of him," continued Lady Warner. "I ndford was in possession of suppose all the men who have been work at Lydcote are to come, and steady.

I the servants in the place—really | Walter S., McLeod's good horse, yesall the servants in the place-really, I don't know where to draw the line! vy her. To be the Countess I have the men from the quarry-Wood's

Kate looked up with a little start as f her mind had been wandering. "Would I?" ship ever since he set foot in please you that Lord Carr-Lyon is do of the two heats. He was made to he show their heads, and he happy, but in the same breath be happy.

Quarry, you know?

a treat. You may as well have the summary: quarrymen, I suppose?". Class A ence, then the old lady looked up at her.

"And, what about your dress, my dear, have you seen about that?"

her, she thought. But Kate shook her head half-apologetically.

"No, I haven't, Lady Warner, I—well,
I quite forgto it."

BURGESS FAILED AGAIN. gess started this morning from the coast guard station at Lydden, four Injured at Buffalo, But He Bean-Eaters and Cubs Were too Much for Them Yesterday.

A wicked-looking accident was the immediate result. At Newark-Newark-Providence game postponed; gain. Baltimore 5)

Afterwards Drove a Winner.

Locanda had two heats in the 2:04 Clicago 51
Clicago 51
Clicago 54 turned his chair to the fire, and was staring at it with his head resting on ago—she had promised to marry Lord The judges found both drivers blameless, and placed the horses in the final Detroit heat, the Allerton stallion getting the Washington 37 race. Washington 33

For hours Clifford sat and thought, sitting before the fire at times, at others pacing up and down the room, smoking furiously.

He had been happy and contented that the is very much in love and that he is very much in love and the race without great trouble.

At Pittsburg—

At Pittsburg—

At Pittsburg—

Pittsburg—

Pittsburg—

R. H. E.

Boston ... 10 10 3 0 0 0 1 He had been happy and contented that. The major tens me that he is very enough until the vision of Kate's very much in love, and that he is very fair, and the bettors were kept on their > Popsey, b. m. (Lattimer)..... Tuna, b. m. (Curry). Time-2:06½, 2:06¾, 2:09¾.

Turley, br. g., by French (Geers)... 3 1 1
Robert Mc, b. g. (Jolly).......... 2 2 2
John Caldwell, b. g. (Thompson).. 1 ds Lady Gail Hamilton, blk. m.

2:17 pace, purse $2,000: Boliver, b. g., by Wayland (De-Captain Derby, b. h. (Eldridge)..... 4 J. Park, b. s. (Lyon)... Black Patchen, blk. n. (Hogan) ... 6 Bonnie Wilkes, ch. m. (Howard) ... 3 Albuta, b. c. (Walker) ... 8 Red Nightingale, br. m. (Stokes).. ds Time—2:06½, 2:08½, 2:09¾.

STRAIGHT HEATS

Dr. Routledge's Good Horse the east this morning and had a long Takes Class "A" Event at Matinee.

tells me; and I am to ask as many sport. The track was much to the where St. Louis is on the deal now, good, and the weather just right. "No," said Kate; "I don't know that was a pronounced success. The fast immediately went into conference with "Ah! you'll have him later on," said A. was a horse race every foot of it. Dreyfuss refused to discuss the nature "Ah! you'll have nim later on, her ladyship, with a smile.

Once again she expected Kate to ledge drove him home a winner in straight heats. He had the speed of straight heats. He had the speed of the bunch around the turns, and when the bunch around the turns, and when BOWLING. straightened away Clipper and Joe Leiter could not catch him. The time was fast. Clipper was unsteady in the second heat. Johnnie K. did not start, as he was out of condition.

Class B. went to McCormick's Belle and beat Lady Black, who was unterday repeated his success of the Who else is there? Would you like to previous week and paced two beautiful halves. He is showing improved form all the time. Jack Madden made him pace the second Jeat in 1:101/2, Joe Blossom was well behaved yes-"Yes, would you? Of course, it is to terday, and the old chap had the best

"Very well," assented Kate, indifferently.

There was a moment or two of silence, then the old lady looked up at Class A—Little Joe, Dr. Geo, Routledge1 1
Joe Leiter, Mr. N. McLeod3 2
Clipper, Dr. F. L. Wood2 3
Time—1:07, 1:07½.

Belle Gray, Mr. G. G. McCor-Time—1:15, 1:14¼, 1:14. Class C—

Walter S., Mr. N. McLeod1 1 Jack Madden, Mr. J. McCartney..3

Dover, England, Aug. 9.-T. W. Bur-

IN THE EASTERN. Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 9.-Ed Geers, at The veteran was in the sulky back of King Direct in the 2:04 pace, the feature af the day, when in the third heat, at the head of the stretch, King Second game called in second inning. Buffalo 6, Montreal 0.

> At Jersey City-Jersey City-Baltimore game postponed; rain. EASTERN STANDING. Won. Lost. 57 30 IN THE AMERICAN.

At Washington— R. H. E. Washington1 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 — 4 7 5 St. Louis...........4 0 0 1 0 0 0 5 2—12 12 2 "Miss Nellie need have no such fear!" said Clifford, "We are as happy as a couple of sandboys, aren't we, Jim?" then suddenly, even as he spoke, the face of Kate Meddon seemed to start from the dimmer part of the room and float towards him, and he put his knife and fork down and sat silent and thoughtful.

Jim finished his tea in silence, opened his mouth, as if to speak, then, seeing that his master was "mazed," as they call it in those parts, he quietly got up and left the room.

a hoop," said Kate, with a strange smile.

"I daresay; and it is very nice to be a countes, you'll find," said Lady Warner, with a shrewd nod. "It is nice to have a coronet in one's jewel-box, though one does not wear them now addays, nice to have plenty of money and horses an dhouses and dresses and friends. You will have plenty of southers always have."

Jim finished his tea in silence, opened his master was "mazed," as they call it in those parts, he quietly got up and left the room.

Still Kate remained silent, looking at the fire with the same thoughtful, and little can be a said to speak, then, seeing that his master was "mazed," as they and left the room.

At Philadelphia—Cleveland-Philadelphia game postponed; rain.

AMERICAN STANDING.

Still Kate remained silent, looking at the fire with the same thoughtful, and the time of his life getting two of the three heats from Norman by the fire with the same thoughtful, and the time of his life getting two of the three heats from Norman by the fire with the same thoughtful, and the time of his life getting two of the three heats from Norman by the fire with the same thoughtful, and the time of his life getting two of the three heats from Norman by the fire with the same thoughtful, and the time of his life getting the fire with the same thoughtful, and the time of his life getting the fire with the same thoughtful, and the time of his life getting the fire with the same thoughtful, and the time of his life particles. The fire with the same thoughtful the fire with the same had a coun

At Chicago-

At Cincinnati-and Abbott. Umpire, Emslie. Attendance

At St. Louis-Grady; Scanlon and Bergen, Umpire, Bausewine. Attendance, 2,100. NATIONAL STANDING.

Won. Lost. Brooklyn 30

BIG DEAL BREWING IN PITTSBURG NOW

Pittsburg, Aug. 9.-Strange are the doings in baseball in Pittsburg now. Ingersoll 12 terious conferences have been held and St. Thomas tional League team, had a long conference here. They consulted with Garry Herrmann in Cincinnati by long distance telephone, and Dreyfuss took a train at midnight for Cincinnati to see Herrmann in person. Robison settled down for a four days stay and Drevfuss is expected back here tomorrow to meet with Robison again. To deepen the mystery "Jimmy" Mc-Aleer, manager of the St. Louis American League team, reached here from talk with Robison, his rival.

The Press, which is owned by the stockholders of the Pittsburg Club, comes out tonight commenting on the mystery, and makes the prediction that a big deal in baseball will be announced before long. It is the firm be- that Oldfield's car was slowing down The matinee races were not the least lief here that the American League is he was so close that he could not ody man inside, and her.

The mostess on this occasion. It will attraction at queen's Park yesterday, to be reorganized next fall, with Pitts-turn out sharply without colliding with the burg and Cincinnati taking the places of the City League, at Tecumseh Park the annual exodus to the pine woods of Washington and Detroit.

The track was many sport. The track was many sport. The track was many sport.

attraction at Queen's Park yesterday, to be reorganized next fall, with Pittshowever, is what blocks the prophets. ones, Clipper and Little Joe, had to Robison and McAleer. The conference nurry all the way to beat him. Class was held at the Monongahela Club. Little Joe was good, and Dr. Rout- of his business with Herrmann in Cin-

> ONE FOR WINGHAM. Brussels, Ont., Aug. 9.—Four rinks from Wingham played a friendly game with Brussels at the latter place, and came cut ictorious by the following score: Wingham

Ed Nicholson. Thomas Hill. . Leatherdale, C. McFarlane, A. J. Irwin, Alex Porter, H. James, skip.....18 D. Hepburn,, skip.29 A. E. Smith C. Maguire H. O. Bell, Ballantyne, Ross, skip......19

C. Dallas, L. W. Hanson, W. M. Holmes, . B. McDonald Downing, skip...15 R. Vanstone, skip.18 Majority for Wingham, 13.

BILIOUSNESS.

Biliousness means that your liver is sick and out of order, and you are cross and cranky, can't eat, have a bad, nasty tasting mouth, and are sick all over. To neglect biliousness will result in congestion, loss of appetite, torpidity and bad feelings. Restore the liver to health by using Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills, which cure biliousness in one night, give your liver healthy action, assist digestion, clean up your furred and coated tongue, and give new life and energy to tired nerves.

SMITHS BUCHU LITH A PILLS

What a saving in money and time if you come direct to Chapman's. Prices average a fourth to a half less than regular cost. D D D

DURING this sale period Friday Bargain Day is of double importance. Prices are lowered more than a little bit-they are lowered a big bit and come very near the half-price mark in most of cases. Many odd lots that were reduced before are cut still lower for Friday to finish the sale.

Walking Skirt Bargain Price $2.00. Four dozen Ladies' Black Broadcloth Skirts, extra fine quality of rich black cloth; tailor made, flare style; worth $3 50; special value$2 00

Embroideries at Half Price. Embroidery Edgings, extra wide for petticoat and night gown trimmings; worth 20c and 30c yard; on Great Half-Price Handkerchief Sale.

5,000 Dainty Fancy Handkerchiefs, linen and cambric, lace trimmed, embroidered and hemstitched. Our own clean, fresh stock offered at half price tomorrow. Every woman in town should be in for 25c Handkerchiefs......12½c

50c Handkerchiefs......25c 15c Handkerchiefs...... 7½c | 10c Handkerchiefs...... 5c Finals in Millinery. Great Table of Fancy

Our Summer Millinery is all gone but these lots, and these are to go at ridiculous prices. One lot of Ladies' Trimmed Hats, all colors, worth many times the price. Tomorrow 98c 12 only, Ladies' Fine Trimmed Hats, champagne, navy, cream, pale blue, and green. These also are worth many times the price. Tomorrow,

.. ... $1 98 All Straw Braids now Children's White Straw at, a yard 5c Untrimmed shapes, all Sailors, blue ribbon streamers, at ... 121/2c

China at Half. "Where there are bees there is honey; where there are crowds there are bargains." Around the great tables of China at half price there are always crowds. So draw your own conclusions. Plates, Trays, Cups and Saucers, Urns, Tea Sets, Sugars and Creams, Bon Bons, Fruit Sets, Finest Fancy China. An immense collection at half price. Visitors will find any number of pretty articles to

J. H. Chapman & Co 126, 128, 128 1/2 DUNDAS Terms Cash. Phone 791.

WOODSTOCK IN LEAD.

BUT HAS NO CINCH Brantford beat Woodstock in Brantford yesterday in a Western Baseball League game by a score of 2 to 1. Woodstock leads in that league, with Ingersoll close behind. Brantford is within striking distance. has the cellar championship cinched. Won, Lost. P.C. .600 more are booked. Last evening Barney Dreyfuss and Frank DeHass Robison, owner of the St. Louis Na-CALL FOR BARNEY field had an almost miraculous escape turn. from death yesterday at the races at Grosse Pointe track, when Than Wurgis, of Lansing, Mich., collided with his car in the three-quarter stretch during the first mile of the five-mile open event. Oldfield and his went through the fence into the infield, Oldfield received a badly lacerated scalp and a severely bruised right arm. Wurgis' car also went off the track, on the outside, but did to 3. not capsize, and neither car nor driver was injured.

Oldfield's engine suddenly got working badly. When Wurgis discovered and then tore through the fence. The on Friday morning at 10:30. The girls car went sixty feet out into the in- are said to be good ball players, and heavy and continued rains which have field, and Oldfield was thrown out. Joe Leiter was a new starter, and his first start of the season in class A reached Pittsburg from Cincinnati and field, when a dozen horrified spectators reached his side, He was carried to an ambulance and taken to Harper Hospital, where it was said that he would be out in a few days.

THE TURY.

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS. At Saratoga-Aviston, 6 to 1; Jim Newman, 7 to 5; Battle Axe, 8 to 5 Wire In, 20 to 1; Loretta M., 16 to 5; Pat Bulger, 15 to 1. At Latonia-Arachue, 9 to 2; Red Leaf, 2 to 5; Agnolo, 4 to 1; Ohio King, 8 to 1; Nutterwell, 12 to 1; Black Fox, At Fort Erie-Bart Howe, 5 to 1

Peter Sterling, II to 5, Bedian, II of the tall soldier are over. BATTLE AXE EASY WINNER. Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 9. - The stake feature today, the Grand Union Hotel stakes of $10,000, was won by H. P.

in the betting with Midas. Midas, with Hildebrand up, served as half ahead of Jerry Wernberg. ed the race on the ground that Jim Newman had run out of the course at the last turn, but the protest was ot allowed. Three favorites won, The track was fast and the weather good, and the crowd was of the usual proportions.

ST. MARYS TAKES CLOSE GAME. Goderich, Aug. 9.-A lacrosse match diate C. L. A. series between Goderich and St. Marys and resulted in a victory for the latter. The score was 4 to 3. SARNIA DEFEATS FOREST.

Sarnia, Aug. 9. - Forest and Sarnia played ball here this afternoon, the result being a victory for Sarnia by a score of 6 to 3. Batteries-Forest, Waddell, George and Tripp; Sarnia, Landry and McCarthy. Umpire, H. Wat-CALLING FOR OLD MANAGER.

REBUILT TYPEWRITERS

From $5.00 Up. Easy Terms. ALL MACHINES GUARANTEED FOR ONE YEAR.

WILL H. NEWSOME,

more than the fans thinking and agitating. The latest plan is to bring Ed Barrow back here from Indianapolis to manage the team. Mr. Barrow has for two years been in the west, but is Detroit, Mich., Aug. 9. - Barney Old- anxious to get away from it and re-

> BLOOMER GIRLS PLAYED. Petrolea yesterday, but Ford's Own team beat the girls-9 to 4. PHILLIPS IN GOOD FORM. Phillips was in good form on Tuesday, when he pitched Dutton a winner against Melbourne. The score was 4 The Bloomer Girls play the Irish

Nine in Lucan on Saturday, Aug. 12. GAME ON FRIDAY. The All-Star Young Ladies' Baseball draw large crowds everywhere. They beat the semi-professional team of big crowd will watch them play on SIX-FOOTERS CAN'T FIGHT

Bay City on Sunday-6 to 2. No doubt

Get the Worst of It In Modern Warfare-Why the Japs Win. New York, Aug. 10,-Attention called to a new developent in modern population, gazed sadly at a flourishwarfare by a well known American ar- ing patch of jimpson and burdock in a tillery captain now in this city. The Lady Travers, 2 to 1; Trappist, 6 to 1; captain says the recent fighting in the Peter Sterling, 11 to 5; Bedlam, 12 to Far East goes to show that the days

"He is at a great disadvantage modern warfare," said the captain. 'The modern rifle has a very low trajectory, and the bullet of our own Whitney's Battle Axe, who was coupled ermy rifle, fired point blank with fixed for breezy jesting, and will be less so Midas, with Hildebrand up, served as bayonet, does not rise above 5 feet 6 the pacemaker for half a mile. Battle inches in 500 yards. It stands to readous treatise in the history of medicine. St Axe had been well up and raced out in son, therefore, that a regiment of six- When asked for data concerning the

"The war in the East has proved very Mr. Baker from Daffy Down Dilly, but proud six-foot Russian been literally physician smile. Here are sample sen tences: It may be mentioned that this officer is himself small, standing only a little to do with the tendency to sneeze, over 5 feet 4 inches in height.

465 Richmond St., London.

HAS ARRIVED

The Chicago Bloomer Girls played in Record Crops of Weeds-Thanks to Rain—Hastens Hay Fever Season.

> Chiago, Aug. 10. - Record-breaking weed crops are expected this month They will be harvested in the form of sneezes. If you are a hay fever victim prepare, therefore, for the worst. The open season for hay fever has set in earlier than usual, not only in prevailed are causing the vegetable > kingdom to run riot. The ragweed, the rye grass and all the other plants and trees on which the blame for hay fever has been heaped by the medical profession are filling the air with their pollen, and the four winds of heaven are wafting t into the nostrils of the chronic suf ferers from "coryza." Hence the need for handkerchiefs is pressing, and the drug stores are selling out their stocks f benzoin and asafoetida The president of the Chicago Hay > Fever Association, which includes in its membership 2 per cent of the city's vacant lot yesterday afternoon and observed: "I will sneeze first at 8 a.m., Aug. 8.

"And me at high noon, Aug. 9," said the policeman on the beat "Why, I wonder" mused the arch in sufferer. "Why?" repeated the policeman.

Echo answers "Why" and so do the doctors. Hay fever is not, however, a theme bayonet, does not rise above 5 feet 6 this year than ever before, but it has, front when they entered the stretch, feeters has a decidedly poor chance of winning without dimently by a length reaching an intrenched position as from Sandy D., who was a length and against five-footers.

When asked for data concerning the affliction, Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, of the health department, dragged down a gainst five-footers. volume of the "Encyclopedia Medica," a new and standard work, and turned In the steeplechase Mr. Page was conclusively the almost utter useless- to an article that describe its vagaries thrown from his horse, Graceaway, and ness of the tall soldier. Has not the in a manner that would make even a

Next we find that "class" has much educated classes being much more prone to sneezing than uneducated. Of course, if they (the aristocratic sneezers) go out of doors during these weeks the symptoms become aggravated, so that they have to protect themselves in a very extraordinary way with thick veils of blue spectacles and green umbrellas! Cocaine was said to be efficacious,

Rather than give the patient cocaine it might be wise to allow the opium pipe. Its use is risky, at patients grow addicted to it, and I have never had to prescribe it, but its power of controlling the worst symptoms is beyond question. following remarks recalls Shylock's famous utterance concerning men who could not abide "a gaping pig" or "the harmless, necessary cat:" One patient tells me that she always sneezes when a cat comes into the room. I know several who suffer from sneezing when in contact with horses, Sarsaparilla. Good for anything? Ask your parents, grandparents, neighbors, your own doctor. We will leave it to any of them. Best blood medicine. Best nerve tonic, i.e. Area.