ELECTORS' ATTENTION City Election on 20th November.

Personal Registration—The Duty of Every One.

In each ward a place for registration will be provided where each manhood franchise voter and new-comer must personally attend on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday or Saturday of this week (Oct. 31st and 1st, 2nd and 3rd November) to have his name placed on the NEW VOTERS' LIST.

Don't let any one suppose that because his name was on the list at the last Provincial election that his name will be on the new list, unless he attends to have his name registered on one of the above days.

Owners and tenants who were on the last Provincial list are supposed to be placed on the new list without personal attendance, BUT DON'T TAKE THIS FOR GRANTED. SEE FOR YOURSELF THAT YOUR NAME IS ON THE LIST, OR YOU MAY ON ELECTION DAY FIND YOU HAVE NO VOTE.

The Conservative rooms in the Coots block, corner of Dundas street and Market Lane, will be open day and night, where any elector can easily find out if his name will be on the list without attending personally to register.

The only qualification necessary is residence in the Province for one year before 31st October, 1894, and three months' residence in the city before the 31st October, 1894, and residence in the city on that day.

The hours of registration on above days will be from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m., and from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Workingmen are supposed to have preference between 7 and 8 p.m.

Electors, don't fail to have your names put on AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE.

Manhood suffrage voters and new-comers' names will NOT be on the list unless personally registered.

METEOROLOGICAL SERVICE OF CANADA.

Generally Fair and Cool.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 31, 11 p.m.—A disturbance of some importance, which has developed since last night, is now situated in the St. Lawrence Valley, and pressure is high in the Southern States. Strong winds and gales prevail from the Lakes to the Atlantic in many portions of Ontario and Quebec. Rain has fallen heavily. Minimum and maximum temperatures:—Edmonton, 26°—50°; Qu'Appelle, 26°—46°; Winnipeg, 30°—50°; Parry Sound, 44°—50°; Toronto, 46°—54°; Montreal, 46°—52°; Quebec, 42°—50°; Halifax, 34°—54°.

Probabilities:—Lakes—Fresh to strong westerly winds; generally fair and comparatively cool.
Local Temperatures—The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the Observatory on Wednesday, October 31, 1894, were:—Highest, 52° above; lowest, 39° above.

Rev. W. E. Hughes and Mr. W. Brock, of Adelaide township, were unceremoniously thrown out of their buggy while crossing the Grand Trunk tracks at Wellington street yesterday, and the farmer was badly shaken up. Besides some internal injuries, which may result seriously, he received a bad cut across his forehead, about three inches in length, and in which Dr. Fraser put six stitches. Mr. Brock was not seriously hurt. The cause of the accident was the shying of the horse at an engine blowing off steam. Both gentlemen were able to proceed home yesterday afternoon.

There was a Halloween skating party at Westminster rink last night—a big crowd, good music and a jolly time.

Sin Pax and the Misses Shand are to appear shortly at a Guelph concert under St. Andrew's Society auspices.

The milk dealers of London will increase the price of milk to six cents per quart from to-day until May 1st.

The Misses Ruvie, of Queen's avenue, will spend the winter with their father on his San Domingo sugar plantation.

The vital statistics for the past month, as registered with the city clerk, are: Births, 51; marriages, 25; deaths, 39.

Miss D. McDonald, who has been visiting her parents on York street here for the last month, has returned to Brooklyn, where she is fitting herself as a professional nurse.

Twelve riders followed the hounds from Glenora in a merry chase yesterday afternoon. The weather was bracing, and nothing occurred to mar the thorough enjoyment of the ride.

Mr. J. M. McEvoy, counsel for Edward Bowers, now serving a five-year term in Kingston for manslaughter, was assessed at $20,000 personal property in the former city. Mr. McEvoy entered the plea that he was not a resident. The whole of the assessment was struck off.

Mr. Harry Luard, son of Mr. Alfred Luard, of James street, has gone to Boston, where he has secured a good situation. The Churchman's Association of the Church of St. John the Evangelist presented him with a handsome clock previous to his departure. Mr. Harry B. Archer read an address and Mr. Connor made the presentation.

At the opening of the High court at St. Catharines on Monday, it was the intention of the members of the bar of the county of Lincoln to present His Lordship, Chief Justice Meredith, with an appropriate address, but that owing to his being so lately a prominent political leader, he modestly declined the honor, preferring, it is said, rather to be known by his future bearing on the bench than his career in the political arena, to which of necessity slight reference would be made in congratulating him on his well-earned elevation.

The three tramps who were arrested on the C. P. R. tracks in London West while preparing a meal some days since, came before Squire Lacey and Reeve Macdonald yesterday afternoon on a charge of trespassing. The offence was clearly proven, but the young men took the part of deeply-wounded individuals, and refused to pay the fine of $1, with $2.50 costs imposed in each case, although they were possessed of enough funds to pay three or four times over. Instead they will board at the county jail for seven days ensuing. The men give the names of Wm. Brooks, James Rogers and Joseph Hobson, and claim to belong to Toronto.

The death occurred yesterday morning, at the residence of her son in Lumbeth, of Mrs. Samuel Hunt, in her 66th year. Her maiden name was Miss Rebecca Sifton, and she was brought up on the 7th concession of London township. Over 40 years ago she was married to Mr. Samuel Hunt, who survives her, besides one daughter, Mrs. Penhall, of Arva. A daughter died some years ago. There are also two sons—E. S. Hunt, collector for the township of Westminster, and A. M. Hunt, auctioneer. Deceased was a consistent member of the Methodist Church, a loving wife and mother, and a kind neighbor. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. The funeral takes place to-morrow to the Hunt Cemetery.

Mr. Alexander Gauld, one of the best known and most highly-esteemed citizens of London, died at the family residence, corner of Byron avenue and Teresa street, last evening. The illness which resulted in his demise had laid him up for some months, and the end came peacefully. Old age was the cause of the breaking up, deceased having reached the ripe age of seventy-seven years. He was born at Nairn, in the north of Scotland, and came to this country in 1851, first settling in Hamilton. Five years later he removed to London, where he resided continuously till death. He was a prosperous merchant tailor, and retired from business nine years ago. Deceased was of a kindly, quiet disposition, taking no active part in public concerns. Four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Gauld celebrated their golden wedding. The latter is still hale and hearty. Five sons and two daughters are living—Mrs. P. Thomson, of Detroit; Mrs. A. Dick, city, and Messrs. James A. of San Francisco; Daniel, of Rockford, Ill., and William, John and Andrew, of London. Mr. Gauld was for many years an elder of St. Andrew's congregation, and for the past ten years held a similar office in Knox Church, South London. He was an ardent horticulturist and florist, and almost invariably carried off first honors with his grapes at the Western and other exhibitions.

The attraction at the Grand Opera House this and to-morrow evenings is one that has met with the unqualified encomiums of all with whom she has come in contact, and Miss Ganthony is in Canada but duplicating her social and artistic successes in England. The future created by George Grossmith was great, but when we see a young lady rivaling and excelling him in his own line of business, the admiration excited by her talents is all the greater. It is not alone in her mimetic talent that Miss Ganthony stands unrivaled. She is a creator, being the author of her own sketches, and would stand high as a writer were she not also an impersonator. For the occasion the orchestra of the Grand Opera House will be considerably augmented, and the selections will be of a charming nature in themselves. Miss Ganthony will no doubt make a hit as rapidly in London as she has done in Montreal and Ottawa, where she was patronized and entertained by the leaders of the highest society. Many personal letters of recommendation have been received by residents of this city from friends and relatives of the Old Country, and strongly advise seeing and hearing this clever young lady in her famous humorous and musical style of amusing an audience.

Rev. Jas. A. Banton, who, before entering the Baptist ministry, was a resident of London, brought a successful two years' ministry at Galt to a close on Sunday night. The Reformer says:—"Large audiences were present at both services, especially so in the evening, when the sacred edifice was taxed to its utmost accommodation. In the congregation were noticed many representatives from the different religious bodies of the town, showing the peace and friendly relations which exist among the various church denominations. For the past two years Mr. Banton has labored zealously and effectively as pastor of the Baptist church, and by his extreme earnestness, his high Christian character and his lofty ideal of the work and calling of the ministry, has earned the esteem and regard, not only of the members of his own congregation, but among the citizens of Galt universally. On Wednesday next he leaves for Brantford, but in his departure from town he carries with him the heartiest well-wishes for his future success and usefulness in the service of his Creator. Mr. Banton will make his headquarters at Brantford for some weeks."

The entertainment held in S. S. No. 5, Delaware, on Monday evening last was a grand success, the school-house being completely jammed, and all seemed delighted with the excellent programme provided. Messrs. Toppin and Nixon delighted the audience with their soul-stirring music from some of the best known sacred composers. Miss Janet Schram, of Parkhill, rendered a song which did credit to her rich musical voice. Messrs. T. T. Mc Dougall and George Carley gave some first-class songs, while the dialogues, recitations and music given by the young people from the vicinity of the school were received with a round of hearty applause. At intermission the audience were treated with choice confectionery, nuts and eatables. Rev. T. T. George, of Delaware village, presided, and everything passed off harmoniously. The receipts for the evening amounted to about $55, being the largest ever received at any entertainment held in the school.

Mr. F. S. Spence, the Toronto temperance pusher, in the course of an interview with the city press, said:—"We want more rigid enforcement of the law throughout the country. We will ask that no one be given liquor if he is less than 21 years of age. We will ask that the penalty of breach of the law be heavier and more strictly enforced. We will ask that the hours of selling liquor be materially reduced. Another reform which we will advocate is that in connection with the retaining of licenses by license holders. Now a man before he can secure a license in a place where a saloon existed must secure the signature of the majority of the voters in the subdivision. If he once secures this there is nothing further necessary. The voters cannot deprive the man of the license. We ask that voters may be given permission to take away as well as give a license."

The death occurred yesterday morning, at the residence of her son in Lumbeth, of Mrs. Samuel Hunt, in her 66th year. Her maiden name was Miss Rebecca Sifton, and she was brought up on the 7th concession of London township. Over 40 years ago she was married to Mr. Samuel Hunt, who survives her, besides one daughter, Mrs. Penhall, of Arva. A daughter died some years ago. There are also two sons—E. S.
