CARRANZA WAS COWARDLY KILLED

Deposed Mexican President Was Assassinated by His Men.

El Paso, Texas, May 23.—President Carranza of Mexico was assassinated by his men, according to a telegram from General Alvaro Obregon, of Mexico City, received by revolutionary agents here Saturday. Carranza was killed by troops under General Rodolfo Herrera, a former Federal soldier of the Diaz regime, the message from Obregon stated.
Carranza's chief followers who were with him when he died addressed a message to General Pablo Gonzales, protesting the assassination of their chief. This message was transmitted here by Obregon, with his answer: The Carranza leaders said Carranza had been made a prisoner and assassinated in a cowardly manner.
The message from the Carranza followers, said Herrera, violated the hospitality he had offered Carranza and that the assassination took place with cries of "Viva Obregon" from Herrera and his men.

WOMAN IS FATALITY SHOT IN ACCIDENT
Husband Drops Loaded Gun in Home At Saulnierville, Digby County.

Digby, N. S., May 24.—Mrs. Joseph Saulnier is dead at her home in Saulnierville as a result of a shooting accident yesterday. Her husband was showing a gun to a friend when he let it fall. As soon as it struck the floor it was discharged and the charge entered Mrs. Saulnier's legs below the knees, completely shattering them. Local doctors amputated the limbs, but the shock and loss of blood proved too much and she died a few hours later. She was about twenty-five years old.

Where is She.
A man was arrested for speeding his motor in Youngtown, Ohio. He admitted speeding, and said it was because he had just heard of a house for rent and he wanted to get there first.
Acquitted.
Query—How fast would a fellow be allowed to drive if he was on his way to interview a good servant girl who wanted a job?

"You don't mean to tell me you ever doubt the wisdom of the majority?"
"Well," responded Senator Sorghum with deliberation, "what is a majority?" In many instances it is only a large number of people who have got tired out trying to think for themselves and have decided to accept somebody else's opinion."

WHAT'S THE USE.
Did it ever occur to you that a man's life is full of contradictions? He comes into the world without his consent and goes out of it against his will and the trip between is exceedingly rocky.
The rule of contraries is one of the features of the trip. When he is little the big girls kiss him; when he is big the little girls kiss him.
If he is poor, he is a bad manager; if he is rich, he is dishonest. If he needs credit he can't get it; if he is prosperous every one wants to do him a favour.
If he is in politics he is in for graft; if he is out of politics he is no good to his country.
If he does not give to charity he's a stingy cuss; if he does it for show he's actively religious he's a hypocrite; if he takes no interest in religion he is a hardened sinner.
If he gives affection he's a soft specimen; if he cares for no one he's cold blooded. If you're fond of the ladies you're a flirt; if you're not you're a woman hater.
If there was there was a great future before him; if he lives to an old age he missed his calling.
If you save money you're a grouch; if you spend it you're a loafer. If you get it you're a grafter, if you don't get it you're a bum. So what's the use?

Another on the Scotch.
"I hear that Sandy has quit playing golf," remarked one cromo to another at the first tee.
"You don't tell me? Not the Scotchman who has been a golfer for forty years?"
"Yep, that's the chap."
"What's the matter? Is he crippled?"
"Oh, no, he lost his golf ball."

HOW RECREATION DISPLACES CRIME

Supervised Play Reduced Delinquency 96 Per Cent. in One Town.

(Popular Magazine)
Juvenile crime was on the increase five years ago in the manufacturing community comprised by the three towns of Binghamton, Endicott and Johnson City, New York. There was a juvenile court, aided by a good police system and other machinery of the law, and arrests were frequent, and reformatories were filled with delinquents. All the latest methods of tracing crime were diligently studied and faithfully followed, but it seemed that Lombroso was right, and that tendency to crime was mostly an inheritance, and as there was a large foreign element the explanation appeared to be that the youthful offenders were criminals by instinct, and that they were corrupting the youth of the native element of the population.
And then George F. Johnson, general manager of the factory system of Endicott, proposed playgrounds. The results have just been tabulated by the Broomes County Humane Society and Relief Association. Supervised recreation in the form of playgrounds, parks and amusements, with classes in manual labor, and boys' and girls' clubs, have reduced juvenile crime and delinquency ninety-six per cent. The juvenile court is so rarely used that it is gathering cobwebs, and the judge's gavel now has to be dusted off prior to its infrequent wielding. Guttersnipes and wastrels have been turned into healthy, clean-minded boys whose fathers are proud of them, and the streets have been cleared of girls of bad repute.
At the beginning of the campaign a few playgrounds were established in Endicott with tennis courts, swimming pools, sand-pits, see-saws, and playhouses. The consequences were so good that a natural park of ten acres along the Susquehanna river was laid out, and many thousands of dollars spent in beautifying it. It was paid for by the manufacturers in the interest of the public, but the payments have redoubled to the interest of the men who furnished the capital. A great pavilion was built and an old casino extended for use as a community centre in winter and in summer. Here are held dances, bazaars, concerts, domestic-service club meetings, and sewing classes for girls and women.
The results were so encouraging that the capitalists went further. They established a half-mile race track, four baseball diamonds, canoe and boat houses, and a skating rink. No admission is charged and nothing in the park has a price. In Johnson City and Binghamton similar enterprises were launched. The Binghamton common council has just voted $250,000 for recreational improvements. Included as public baths. An elementary class in civics and economics for boys has met with a success similar to that of the junior government at Newport, Rhode Island.

Alert Hubby.
"I had an awful scare this morning about 2 o'clock," said Mrs. Rapp. "I heard a noise downstairs, and I got up and turned on the electric light in the bedroom, and I found a man's leg sticking out under the bed."
"The burglar's legs?" asked Mrs. Tapp.
"No, my husband's legs," replied Mrs. Rapp; "he had heard the noise before it woke me."

They are mighty proud of their one skyscraper up in Seattle.

It is a long skinny building that stands on one leg like a stock and blinks down disdainfully from its thousand windows on ordinary fifteen-story shacks.

A San Francisco man recently in that city was incautious enough to express surprise.

"What are those posts sticking out all the way up?" he asked a Seattleite.

"Those are mile-posts," said the Seattle man.

The ragged little English boy suddenly sprang from nowhere, darted toward the taxi which the man in a hurry had just summoned and politely opened the door. Then he handed in the portmanteau, carefully closed the door and waited.

But the man in a hurry had no loose change. Moreover, his overcoat was tightly buttoned and he would have to squirm considerably to get at his money. Therefore he gazed stonily ahead at nothing and ignored the expectant child.

The youngster knew from experience that he had struck a hopeless case, and he smiled sourly.

"Nearest poor-house, cabby," he called to the driver as he darted for another cab.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS

Will Open At Woodstock July 6th and Continue Until Aug. 5th.

The New Brunswick vocational board has issued the prospectus of the second annual summer school for intending vocational directors and teachers and in it announcement is made that the school will be held in the Fisher Vocational school at Woodstock from July 6 to August 5.
The home economics classes inaugurated last year will be continued and extended this year and in addition courses in the history and organization of vocational education; methods of teaching and outlining courses; motor mechanics; electricity and its industrial uses; trade dressmaking and trade millinery will be arranged for and it is possible that commercial work and costume design classes may also be included in the curriculum.
The aims of the school are two fold; to spread the knowledge of the scope and possibilities of vocational training in the province, looking towards an intelligent and enthusiastic local leadership throughout the province and also to give short intensive, technical and professional courses to student teachers.
The executive of the school will consist of Fletcher Peacock, director; Miss H. Helena Good, secretary; Miss Bernice I. Mallory, supervisor of home economics and Miss Sadie M. Barne, supervisor of cafeteria. Other instructors already appointed are Miss Mary H. Brown, Miss Carolyn Currie, Miss Genevieve A. Hageman, Miss Margaret A. Stewart and A. H. Whitman.
The prospectus announces that the tuition will be free, but students must be recommended by a responsible person, the vocational board reserving the right to reject any application. Free board will be provided at the school and return fare from their homes to Woodstock will be refunded to students who complete the course of twenty-four days of six hours each. These grants are made on the understanding that the students pledge themselves to teach vocational work in New Brunswick during the school year 1920 to 1921 unless prevented by sickness.
Should less than ten pupils enroll for any one class it is possible that that class may not be organized and other classes than those announced may be organized if sufficient students express a desire for them.
As is pointed out in the prospectus the vocational board believes vocational education is needed in the province and considers the right type of leadership to the first essential in its advancement. The board is therefore endeavoring through the summer school to develop carefully such leadership.

Do You Buy At Home?

WHEN YOU require Printed Stationery or Printing of any kind it is not necessary to send your order to a distant city. Your local printing offices can attend to all YOUR needs.

Buying at home; trading one with another so far as is possible, is the fundamental principle underlying the growth and trade expansion of every community. A dollar spent with your own merchant, manufacturer or printer may again come into your hands, but a dollar sent to a distant mail order house or print shop or factor is gone from your community forever.
