THE KASSASSIN FIGHT
FURTHER DETAILS OF THE CAVALRY CHARGE.

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 31, 1892.

THE KASSASSIN FIGHT
FURTHER DETAILS OF THE CAVALRY CHARGE.
Two Acres of Egyptian Head-Triding British Cavalry—State of Affairs in Cairo—Egyptians Retreating in the Wounded.
LONDON, Aug. 30.—Sir Garnet Wolsey telegraphs that only the Household Cavalry and the 7th Dragoon Guards were seriously engaged in the fight at Kassassin. The former had three troopers killed and eight wounded. Major Townshend received a sabre cut on the wrist. The Guards had two troopers wounded.

MARINES TO ASSIST THE GARIBOLDI.
A despatch from Alexandria says 250 marines from the invincible and the invulnerable will land there on Thursday to assist the garibaldi.

MARION FREEMAN'S FATE.
Mahmond Fahmy will arrive in Alexandria on Thursday and be handed over to the khedive's government to be dealt with as the ministers may decide.

SEIGE TRAIN FOR EGYPT.
An important order was received at Woolwich to-day to forward to Egypt at once, a formidable light siege train. It will weigh with equipment 2000 tons and require 1100 officers and men. The ordnance will consist of 36 pieces of artillery of various calibres, including ten 40 pounders and 10 25 pounders.

THE CAVALRY CHARGE.
A Mahomedan despatch says:—In the fight in Kassassin a majority of the Egyptian infantry fell on their faces to avoid being slashed by the Life Guards swords. Many thus escaped, who otherwise would have been struck down. The corpses of the Egyptians spread over a mile and a half of ground. An officer present says the cavalry charge was ordered for the purpose of saving the Egyptian army. The work done by the infantry by telegraph, thence to advanced to the front by Heliograph. I went over the battle ground on Wednesday. The scene was horrible beyond description. The bodies of the Egyptian soldiers were heaped and slashed about of the semblance of humanity by the long broad swords of the guards. One young officer still held an unlighted cigarette in his stiffened fingers. Two of our guardsmen lie dead in a tent at Kassassin, mutilated in such a manner as will bring everlasting infamy on the Egyptian army. The work done by the Household Cavalry demonstrated once for all the fearful power of these ponderous horses against undisciplined foot soldiers, or even good troops when taken by surprise. The Guards burst like an avalanche on the timid musketeers, some of whom fired at the troopers, who returned and aired them during the day.

MUTILATING THE WOUNDED.
Some of our cavalry are still seeking our dead and wounded. Two dead Life Guardsmen were found so mutilated as to be quite unrecognizable. Their faces were horribly gashed. One had one hand completely severed from his arm and the other hand was nearly so. One had his eyes scooped from the sockets. The hands of another body were just hanging to the wrists by pieces of flesh and sinews. A wounded Guardsman relates that in the charge his horse was shot and in falling broke the rider's thigh. While laying on the field he saw the Egyptian soldiers ride by. He called for help, whereupon an Egyptian rode up and sabred the Guardsman's face from temple to chin. The man is, however, doing well.

STATE OF AFFAIRS IN CAIRO.
ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 30.—All quiet is reported in Cairo up to the 26th instant, but probably this will be the last report but one of the kind. It is stated that the Egyptians were well-kept here yesterday and were turned over to the khedive. This is a story emanating from Arabi's friends, and is calculated to defer any further descriptions, and is of a kind with the stories circulated by Arabi that the British cruelty exists owing to the presence of cholera on a vessel which is said to be coming here from Aden. The Greek ironclad has left for Volo, in consequence of the collision between the Turks and the Greeks on the disputed frontier line. Gen. Helyar, with the brigade of Highlanders from Ramleh under Gen. Alison, is now embarking here, but for where is unknown. It is stated that Arabi is strongly fortifying Damouhour.

INFUX OF POPULATION.
Cherif Pasha, president of the council, has issued a circular drawing the attention of the foreign consuls to the immense influx of low class population. He says in consequence of the scarcity of water and lack of employment steps must be taken in order that public security may not be imperilled by the influx of people. Therefore persons having no fixed occupation or visible means of subsistence should not be allowed to land.

PARTICULARS OF THE KASSASSIN FIGHT.
ISMAILIA, Aug. 30.—Particulars respecting the hot engagement with the enemy at Kassassin and the gallant charge by the Guards continue to be received. It now seems that the enemy first appeared before the British lines in the morning but halted a considerable distance from the camp, where they kept up a continual shell fire. The troops were out all day under a terrific

EAST YORK DEMONSTRATION
IN HONOR OF HON. MR. MACKENZIE AT VICTORIA PARK

THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 31, 1892.

EAST YORK DEMONSTRATION
IN HONOR OF HON. MR. MACKENZIE AT VICTORIA PARK
Speeches by Blake, Mackenzie, Mowat, Hardy, Wildfield and others.—The Provincial Elections the subject of the day's speaking.—Mr. Mackenzie contrasts the Free Trade Doctrine.—Notes.
The demonstration at Victoria Park yesterday in honor of Hon. Mr. Mackenzie's election in East York was attended by a considerable number of people, but by no large or great gathering. The speakers were numerous, and their remarks had the advantage of being brief. Excepting the congratulations offered to the late reform leader and Mr. Mackenzie's allusion to free trade the speeches of the various gentlemen all turned on provincial topics and the coming provincial general election. Mr. Blake referred to the vote polled in Ontario in the recent general election but only did so to show that its true interpretation was favorable, and encouraging for reformers in the coming contest. Mr. Hardy in his remarks alluded to the election "that is coming off in 1893," seeming to indicate that the Ontario elections are not to come off this fall.

The weather was beautiful—but in the sun, but delightfully cool in the shade.

While the procession was on its way to the dining hall a rustic bridge gave way and precipitated a number of men into a dirty little stream below. The centre of the bridge was ten feet high. Henry Candler of Leslieville received pretty severe injuries to his ankle and ribs.

One hundred people took dinner in the dining pavilion, which is nicely shaded by trees, and situate close to the water's edge.

The Speight Manufacturing company's (Markham) band and a band from Toronto discoursed music during the day.

Hon. Mr. Mowat arrived alone in a closed coupe, and before alighting looked very much as if he had been through a mill, nothing so much as a caged owl.

Mr. Blake came by boat arriving shortly before two, and spent some time shaking hands with the friends of the party.

Mr. Mackenzie came by cab, accompanied by Mr. Badgerow, Mr. Mackenzie and Mr. Badgerow.

The president, Mr. Milne
