SIXTH YEAR.

INCREASING THE ARMY.

THIRTY THOUSAND MORE BRITISH SOLDIERS WANTED. The Order to America for Getting The Mahdi's Troops Attacking Their Allegiance—Graham's Program. LONDON, March 9.—In the house of commons this evening Lord Edmund Fitzmaurice read a letter from Earl Granville concerning the recent colonial controversy with Germany, in which Earl Granville says he has good reason to hope that the friction is past. The reading of the letter was received with cheers.

REBELLION IN A CIRCUS.

A Lion Tamer has a fearful struggle with some of the Royal British. PARIS, March 9.—At the Cirque d'Hiver last night as Williams, the celebrated lion tamer, was putting eight lions through their leaping tricks in the cage one of the lions bounded on him and seized him by the fleshy part of the back and thigh. A terrible struggle followed. The spectators shrieking with alarm broke into the ring. Women and children fainted. The lion roared in his hold, when Williams with extraordinary dexterity slanted a second attack and escaped from the cage. He fell unconscious covered with blood.

THE AMERICAN ORDER FOR AMMUNITION.

LONDON, March 9.—In the house of commons to-morrow the government will be asked whether it is true that they have given large orders for ammunition to an American firm. It is stated the health of the employees at the Woolwich arsenal is falling on account of the severe strain required to fill orders for ammunition.

THE BRITISH ALPHAN COMMISSION ON PERSIAN TERRITORY.

TEHRAN, March 9.—The British commissioner on the Afghan frontier question and his surveyors have encamped at Zura, on Persian territory. Late advices show that there is no doubt that the British are rapidly concentrating troops in Central Asia.

REBELLION AGAINST THE MAHDI.

KORDOFAN, March 9.—A messenger from Kordofan reports a rising against the authority of the Mahdi. There is a great dissension and famine among the rebels. The Mahdi has gone to Abbas Abad, a hundred and thirty miles above Khartoum.

SPAIN FORMALLY ANNEXES THE CAROLINAS.

MADRID, March 9.—The Spanish government of the Philippines islands has been ordered to annex the Caroline islands. (Note—The Caroline is to the east of the Philippines in the North Pacific ocean. Nominally they have belonged to Spain since their discovery by Lopez de Villalobos in 1545, and the treaty of the annexation is little more than the assertion of a right. Spain has probably only gone through the formalities of annexing for fear Germany, in pursuance of her colonizing scheme, should take a fancy to them. Their inhabitants are mostly of the Malay race. Although fit, they are fairly fertile, and the climate is mild and agreeable.)

ARRESTED FOR DEMANDING FINE.

CRACOV, Austria Poland, March 9.—A bread riot was suppressed by the police to-day. A great number of poor and unemployed workmen gathered in front of a rich man's castle and made a great disturbance, demanding work or bread. A large force of police was summoned and the workmen dispersed without resistance. A hundred were arrested.

REMEMBERED FOR ANOTHER WEEK.

LONDON, March 9.—Stephen J. Meany of New York, appeared to-day in the police court at the resumed hearing in the case of Cunningham and Burton, as assistant-counsel for the latter. After taking some evidence as to the identity of the prisoners they were remanded for a week.

AN ADDRESS FOR THE PRINCE.

DUBLIN, March 9.—The chamber of commerce and municipal council of Dundrum have decided to present an address to the Prince of Wales.

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 10, 1885.

THE DRY BONES OF '37-'38.

THE ASSEMBLY DECLINES TO REWARD THE VOLUNTEERS. But Mr. Mowat and a Majority of Four are Satisfied to Hear Them Up with Cold Thanks. The legislature at 11.30 last night and spent nearly two hours in discussing "the dry bones of the rebellion of 1837-'38." To use one of the member's own words. The opposition was quite jubilant over the principal division of the evening and checked to themselves that they had given the government the tightest squeeze of the session. There was great deal of talk about loyalty and patriotism, and all the heroic deeds enacted in the stirring times of '37 were made familiar to the well-filled galleries. The discussion was based on the following motion by Mr. Broder: "That in the opinion of this house it is expedient that government should make some suitable recognition to the volunteers of 1837-'38 residing in the province of Ontario for the loyalty of the services rendered to the mother country at that time." With such a greenwood before him with such a number of Dundas did not fail to do honor to the gallantry of the volunteers of those days, and he made out a good case in their favor.

HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE.

According to a note men's trousers are to be made wider. This is a fraud on the honest man. The yearly product of the American forests exceeds in value that of all the iron, steel and copper of the world, consuming, it is said, 50 per cent. more than England. A large force of strong, hardy men is now being recruited for the new fashionable London as a preventive of social ills. Queen Victoria's bestowal of the Albert medal on a simple police constable has given great joy to the force. The duke of Buckingham, who has no heir to his dukedom, has just married the daughter of a Scotch baronet. He is 63. There is a large number of new houses for ambulance classes. Large gatherings take place at Lady Brassy's with this end in view. There are no generals who have never committed mistakes except those who have never commanded armies in the field.—Napoleon.

THE GREED FOR OFFICE.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The number of applications for a postmasterial received to-day has never been equalled on any previous day. It was necessary to detail a special force to file the applications. The commissions of sixty-eight presidential postmasters expire during the present month, and about 250 before the next session of congress.

EARLY NAVIGATION.

MILWAUKEE, March 9.—The steamer Wisconsin arrived from Grand Haven last evening. This is the first boat to arrive from the east shore for a month. She sighted several icebergs, the ice, one, supposed to be the Ontario, 2 days out from Grand Haven, and another the City of London, which had been lost in the ice 22 days.

OVER TEN THOUSAND MINERS ON STRIKE.

PITTSBURGH, March 9.—The coal miners strike which was inaugurated to-day promises to be the greatest war for wages ever fought by the colliers. This is a district of 2,000 miners in the Pittsburg district. It is estimated that seven-eighths are out for the 3 per cent. raise.

UNITED STATES NEWS.

All the chiefs of bureau at Washington are to be dismissed. Mary Randall died at Marysville, Ky., yesterday, aged 78, after resting for forty-eight days. Mrs. Robert Allerton, wife of a carriage builder at Wilkesbarre, has eloped with a professor of music whom she met at a roller skating rink.

THE ONE THING LACKING.

It was at the rink, and the gentlemanly young man with brass buttons and a check to match was initiating the shy young thing of 16 into the mysteries of roller skating. "You strike out badly, like this," said he, illustrating with a graceful sweep, and then, as he bravely tried to initiate him, he exclaimed: "Ah! you're catching on."

DUBLIN, March 9.—The chamber of commerce and municipal council of Dundrum have decided to present an address to the Prince of Wales.

DR. MOORE'S DISAPPEARANCE.

A Firm Conviction That He Has Been Murdered.

LONDON, March 9.—In spite of the assertions to the contrary the people of Dorchester believe that Dr. Moore was murdered. Mrs. Lyman Shaw states she heard the doctor's bells at the night he disappeared as told by him, and that she saw another rig drive by with three men, and that within a few seconds she heard three pistol shots. It is firmly believed he was murdered, and Mrs. Moore will listen to no other story. The doctor's brother has offered $500 reward for the apprehension and conviction of his murderer, and it is believed the township will add $300. Dr. Moore was a man about 40, very fair complexion, with whiskers and mustache, and a peculiar mark on the right side of the nostril. He was attired in a grey suit when last seen. Edward Mould, a bartender of unvarying reputation, is expected.

THE TWO ALEXANDERS.

THE WOODSTOCK SENATOR SWears BEFORE GOD AND MAN. A Peculiar Kind of Apology That Was Accepted—The Davis Divorce Bill Carried—Barely Won the Interim Boundary Question. OTTAWA, March 9.—In the senate Sir Alexander Campbell moved a vote of censure on Senator Alexander for not obeying the order of the chair on Friday last. Sir Alexander explained that Senator Alexander had refused to sit down when called on and persistently talked on in a loud voice, ignoring the speaker's order. Mr. Alexander, after getting off a lot of irrelevant matter, protested "before God and man" he had not intended to violate the rules of the senate, and that he respected all the members of that body except five. Mr. Alexander then withdrew, and Sir Alexander said although he did not know whether the apology was made in good faith or not, he had decided to accept it. He would withdraw his motion on the understanding that the apology was to appear in the minutes. Acts respecting the Huron and Ontario shanty towns, the Fort McLeod telegraph company and the Canada Co-operative association were read a second time. The act reducing the capital stock of the Bank of Montreal was passed.

THE BIBLE CLEAVED.

The large audience that gathered at Monday's meeting last night did not see George Fox, of happy memory, but they saw a legitimate successor of the great pantomime clown in Alfred Miso. The pantomime Miso was a rare one in the province. He was a rare one in the province. He was a rare one in the province. He was a rare one in the province.

THE BIBLE CLEAVED.

KILLED ON AN ELEVATOR.

OTAWA, March 9.—Early this morning George Peterson was killed on the baggage elevator in the Russell house. He had been working for about a fortnight, and was acting as engineer. Setting the elevator in motion, he lay down on his chest and looked over to see underneath, forgetting to look out for the coping above, which of course struck his head. He had fallen from the top of the elevator, and had been severely injured.

DOMINION DASHES.

It is stated that very shortly after the receipt of the news of Aquila Walsh's death H. H. Smith of Peterboro, the conservative agent, was appointed dominion land commissioner at Winnipeg. He had been in place a short while.

GENS FROM GEORGE ELIOT.

It seems as if a dose of old-fashioned humanity would dole some suffering that makes life a doubtful good—except perhaps at certain epochs of fresh love, fresh creative activity, or usual power of helping one's neighbor.

THE FASHION FOR DOGS.

Fashion declares that the little puppy, who usually, by the way, has the long locks over his neck tied up with a piece of blue or pink ribbon, is to wear a plain gold bracelet, with his name engraved on it, around the left fore-paw; the spangly, or a bracelet of some white metal with a medallion. Griffons and woolly dogs commonly have the body attached to the shoulders, leaving a lion like mane and head, with a ring of wool around each leg just above the paw. These are to wear a bracelet upon each ankle, just above the ring of hair. Bull-dogs, who last year wore celluloid collars, will this year wear nickel.

PERSONAL.

Mr. G. Blackstock (Beatty, Chadwick & Co.) left for Ottawa last night. General Grant, commander of the Stukin-Berber expedition, left Cairo yesterday for Suakin. Mrs. Langley's Lady Teazle, says Punch, may be summed up epigrammatically as French in sentiment and English in sentiment.

COLORED LABOR IN CHINA.

The experiment of substituting the labor of colored people for that of Chinese is being tried by a San Francisco, on his ranch in Los Angeles county, Ca. He took there thirty-two families, of colored people from the south, built them cabins in southern plantation style, and thus far so pleased with their work. Labor on a vineyard and fruit farm, says a correspondent writing from San Francisco, is not so severe as on a cotton or sugar plantation, and the climate of southern California is milder than in most parts of the south.

DISMISSED IN DISGRACE.

There is a big demand among our fashionable people for seats at the Huntington concert to-night. Robert Beasley, a member of the salvation army, died Sunday from the effects of a fall while working in the cellar of his residence, Broadview avenue. The female minstrel drew a crowded house of males at the Grand last night. The show was poor and tart and ought to have been out of the run of the Grand opera house. The Zoological gardens ought to be encouraged. They bring more people to town than any other attraction. Hotelmen, storekeepers, business men of all kinds, ought to attend the meeting to-morrow night and assist Ald. Piper in putting the Zoo in first-class shape.

TWO POLICEMEN CHARGED WITH HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Tom Somerville and John Beatty the Men—Brought Before the Commissioners—A Serious Case Which Suggests Investigation of the Conduct of Two Members of the Force, Against Whom a Serious Charge Had Been Preferred. The two members were Thomas Somerville, who has been in the service for upwards of ten years, and John Beatty, who joined the force about three years ago. Both were regarded as exemplary officers. They were attached to No. 4 division. A robbery of last week was police pay day. Somerville and Beatty went off together. They wound up at 149 Queen street east, a house of questionable reputation, over which was Wiley presides. There they met a man with money. It is alleged that they induced this man to leave the house and go to the corner, where they robbed him of $70. The man says he howled and yelled for the police, but to no effect to his assistance. The man whose name could not be learned, went back to the house and related what had occurred. So the affair ended, at least for the time being. But it seems, one thing after another looked out, the result being that the authorities of the force came to the conclusion that investigation immediately ensued, of which the meeting yesterday was an outcome. Somerville and Beatty were asked to explain. The explanation they gave appeared to have been satisfactory, as they were dismissed the force then and there, being immediately handed over to a charge of highway robbery. The investigation happened in the afternoon, but it was very quiet by all aware of the facts, and was first made public last night that the thing became known. The accused were removed from the central station to No. 2, where they passed the night. Nothing further could be learned last night. It is understood that the witness of the making of the case on as witnesses for the prosecution.

THEY'RE HERE UP AND OFF.

For the past eight weeks the Bullock Printing Press Co. of Chicago have been setting up their perfecting web presses in the office of The World. The machine was four months building in the shop at Chicago. Its erection cost in change of Alexander Currel, a Scotch machinist, who has worked in the old country, in Canada, and in the United States. What "handy" don't know about machinery making runs as a rule, and he is a firm believer in the virtues of oil for keeping machinery in order—"the oil's the cheapest machinist you can employ," as he puts it.
