the eastern portion of Ontario began yesterday morning on the Bloor street grounds. The weather was favorable and the crease in good con dition. Capt Collins, with his usual good luck, won the toss and sent W. W. Jones and Dr. Stevenson of Aurora to face the bowling of Bell and Bristow. The doctor was given out 1.b.w. with only six runs on the telegraph. This looked bad for Ontario, but on G. S. Lyen, the clever Rosedale bat, Joining Jones, the outlook soon changed. He put the ball to leg and other directions right merrily and was finally cleanly bowled by Southam on a ball that broke fully three feet coming around his legs. Goldingham hit well for his 15, when he stepped out for a short pitch of Southam and was cleanly stumped by Warden. The heavy-hitting Fleury collared the bowling in proper order and did not retire until he got a badly needed 37. De La Fosse made 13, which was the remaining double.

former occasions has occurred as an epidemic, but, during our generation, no such alarming visitation as the recent one has taken place.

Its origin is atmospheric. The germs or microbes which produce it are living animal organisms generated in the air and carried by the breath into all the parts concerned in breathing, the masal passages, the throat, the larynx, the bronchial tubes, air cells and lungs.

The immediate danger of La Grippe lies in its liability to produce Pneumonia. The irritation the germs produce in the air passages causes a copious flow of scalding mucus which clogs the tubes and oppresses the lungs. This prevents the proper arterialization of the blood which, in consequence, lingers and stagnates in the capillaries, causing first congestion and them a specific form of Pneumonia.
