And thus equipped the Glendon fler Across the waters wide; With gallant skipper, stalwart crew, And with a fav'ring tide She leaves behind a whitened track, While 'loft she flies the Union Ja

She flies the old flag at the fore, Where it shall always be; The flag that waves on many a shore That floats on every sea; That floats from bark and fishing smack

The grand, the brave old Union Ja (At Bridgeport, Long Island.) Now Bridgeport's on Long Island Sound. And thither was the Glendon bound, The skipper turns a watchful eye, From the blue waters to the sky; Be sure, lest sudden squall, or gust Should on his white-winged vessel b I'm loth to say a cowardly few
