

NATIONAL CASH REGISTERS
Office, 63 KING WEST.
THIRTEENTH YEAR.

SWEATER SHOPS TAKE FIRE

RO PATENT-STRIKEN EMPLOYEES THE BUILDING.

A Mad Rush to Escape While Flames
Were Issuing From Every Window
Three Killed in Jumping—One Woman
Burned on the Fire Escape—A Cigarette
Caused the Cause of the Blaze.

New York, June 13.—By fire in a sweater shop this morning the following lives were lost:
Celia Davis, 18 years old.
Alvora Roder, 28 years old.
Joseph Mendelsohn, 20 years old.
The store building filled with sweaters and hats, and the fire started at 8.30 o'clock this morning, and in the mad rush to the street of the 250 souls working there at the time three were killed and several injured.

Flames Issuing From Every Window
Before the firemen arrived the whole front of the building was alive with men and women. Flames and smoke were issuing from almost every window. Women were shrieking wildly, while the people below in the street shouted to them not to jump. One would make an attempt to go down the fire escape or through the back door, when a woman was blocked. Some girls had lowered themselves through the mahoeys by their hands and feet to the street without sustaining any great injury.

Piled Three and Four Deep
After a while the unfortunate began to pour through the mahoeys, one on top of the other. They fell and smoke as they alighted upon the ground and were at times piled three and four deep.
From the first floor many of the inmates jumped to the pavement.

Jumped to Their Death
The first to jump was a large woman. She alighted on the iron railing in front of the building and rolled over down.

A man jumped into the street, his head striking the pavement and he was fractured and he never moved, death having been instantaneous.
A second man fell. He, too, struck on his head, but did not die immediately.

A young girl was the fourth to leap out and she fell upon the ground, and was injured. Soon the people were jumping from all sides and it looked at one time as if the lives were being sacrificed.

The Hook and Ladder Arrives
Finally a hook and ladder swung around the corner and in a few seconds ladders were placed against the burning and the half-crazed people were taken down from their perilous position.

Wounded on Fire Escape
One woman was caught on the fire escape by the burst of flame and her clothing took fire. The firemen rushed to her assistance, but before they could reach her the clothing was burned completely off her.

Those who escaped uninjured were so badly frightened that they were unable to give an intelligent account of what happened inside of the building after the fire was discovered.

Those who escaped with slight injury were so frightened that he could not talk.

Burst of Flames From Neatness
The bursting of the flames through the window of the store was a most dramatic scene, described by those who saw it as resembling an explosion, except that there was no report. The flames in the steps and in the flames reached it, or the vapor in it, it caused a burst of fire similar to an oil explosion.

Flames Shot Half Across the Street
After an hour's hard work the firemen placed against the burning and the half-crazed people were taken down from their perilous position.

It has been ascertained that the fire started in a cigar store. The cause of the fire was a cigarette. The loss was $4500.

Opium Seized
BETFLAND, June 12.—A big seizure of contraband opium was made by the U.S. customs officials in this city today.

The Robbery-Divorce Case
MILTON, Ont., June 13.—At the Court of General Sessions held here today the grand jury found a true bill against D. A. Robson, charged with kidnaping money under false pretenses on a promissory note purporting to be signed by John Dixon and Heald Dixon.

"Clear Havana Cigars"
LA CADENA, and "La Flora" Insult upon having these brands.

Grosse Ile Quarantine
OTTAWA, June 13.—Hon. A. R. Rogers has received a report from the Provincial Board of Health of Quebec, after its visit to Grosse Ile, approving of all the returns that have been submitted and stating that the station is in first-class order.

Toronto University
Gentlemen requiring books and books for convocation on 13th inst. please have their orders at once call the 97 King-street west.

TREW VITRIOL IN HIS FACE

A Cincinnati Convict Blinds Another for Falsely Reporting that He Had Sold a Coat

COLUMBUS, O., June 13.—This morning at the penitentiary in Columbus, Ohio, a convict, threw vitriol in William J. Elliott's face which probably will cause the loss of an eye.
Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

Yarny, who is a cutter in the State Clothing Shop, claimed that Elliott had sold a coat to a convict. Elliott is the newspaper man who helped kill two men and wounded eight or nine others in the street here, Feb. 22, 1913.

THE STUDENTS WERE JOLLY

A GAY AND LIVELY SCENE IN THE PAVILION.

The Most Successful Commencement Toronto
University Has Ever Held—Many
Recipients of Degrees and Medals—
The Ladies Distinguished Themselves
—Some Capital Speeches.

The senate, faculty and alumni of Toronto University were jubilant yesterday afternoon. They were celebrating the most successful commencement which the provincial University has ever held. The occasion was the graduation of the first class of the Victoria-Chancellor's School of Law, which was held in the Horticultural Pavilion in the grounds of the University. The ceremony was presided over by the Vice-Chancellor, Mr. Mulock, who delivered a most successful address. The graduates were congratulated by the Vice-Chancellor, the faculty and the alumni. The ladies were also present in large numbers and distinguished themselves by their elegant attire and their graceful deportment. The ceremony was a most successful one and the graduates were congratulated on their achievements.

Of course the college songs were sung, but not nearly so vociferously nor harmoniously as of yore in the old Convocation Hall. Still they were lively enough, and a little too much so in the opinion of the speakers and the nerves of the prize-winners.

The platform was a goodly host: Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick, Vice-Chancellor Mulock, President London, the trustees of the University, members of the senate, the faculty, the lecturers, ex-alumni and representatives of all the affiliated colleges. In the audience were well-known friends of education of every creed. Archbishop Walsh, who presided at the ceremony, was seated next Mr. Mulock.

There was a fair amount of "guying" as the students marched down the hall and ascended the platform. Some of this was in bad taste. The ladies were also present in large numbers and distinguished themselves by their elegant attire and their graceful deportment. The ceremony was a most successful one and the graduates were congratulated on their achievements.

There was a fair amount of "guying" as the students marched down the hall and ascended the platform. Some of this was in bad taste. The ladies were also present in large numbers and distinguished themselves by their elegant attire and their graceful deportment. The ceremony was a most successful one and the graduates were congratulated on their achievements.

There was a fair amount of "guying" as the students marched down the hall and ascended the platform. Some of this was in bad taste. The ladies were also present in large numbers and distinguished themselves by their elegant attire and their graceful deportment. The ceremony was a most successful one and the graduates were congratulated on their achievements.

There was a fair amount of "guying" as the students marched down the hall and ascended the platform. Some of this was in bad taste. The ladies were also present in large numbers and distinguished themselves by their elegant attire and their graceful deportment. The ceremony was a most successful one and the graduates were congratulated on their achievements.

There was a fair amount of "guying" as the students marched down the hall and ascended the platform. Some of this was in bad taste. The ladies were also present in large numbers and distinguished themselves by their elegant attire and their graceful deportment. The ceremony was a most successful one and the graduates were congratulated on their achievements.

There was a fair amount of "guying" as the students marched down the hall and ascended the platform. Some of this was in bad taste. The ladies were also present in large numbers and distinguished themselves by their elegant attire and their graceful deportment. The ceremony was a most successful one and the graduates were congratulated on their achievements.

There was a fair amount of "guying" as the students marched down the hall and ascended the platform. Some of this was in bad taste. The ladies were also present in large numbers and distinguished themselves by their elegant attire and their graceful deportment. The ceremony was a most successful one and the graduates were congratulated on their achievements.

SEALERY REGULATIONS.

St. Charles Russell Pronounces the American Draft Regulations "Fair and Impracticable."

PARIS, June 13.—Sir Charles Russell today continued his argument regarding the American draft sealing regulations, characterizing them as unfair and impracticable. They involve an actual monopoly, enforced at the expense of the two countries. Sir Charles suggested that sealing in British seas before July, and in inland waters before May, be prohibited. A license system, with a distinctive flag for the close season for 20 miles around the Pribilof islands, was also suggested.

At today's session of the Behring Sea Tribunal of Arbitration, Sir Charles Russell of Great Britain said that the U.S. proposal regarding the seal fisheries in a worse condition than they were under the Russian lease issued in 1891, in regard to the sealing industry.

Sir Charles closed his remarks by submitting a proposition that the vessels engaged in pelagic sealing be permitted to leave their ports before May 1, and to seal in the Behring Sea until July of each year.

Sir Richard Webster followed in behalf of Great Britain's side of the case. He argued that the treaty of arbitration entered into between Great Britain and the United States gave the arbitrators no power to make regulations that would be of effect outside the Behring Sea. He admitted that it would be desirable to prevent the action of pelagic sealers, but he declined to attribute the decrease in the number of the seals to the action of pelagic sealers.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

MUST NOT DICKEER WITH IT

THE STREET RAILWAY AGREEMENT MUST STAND AS IT IS.

The Ratepayers' Association Advises
the Council to Stick to Its Agreement
With the Street Railway Company—A Deputation to go to the City Hall to Negotiate to Reduce Salaries and Expenditures.

In the absence of President Carlyle, Mayor Manning occupied the chair at the meeting of the Ratepayers' Association in St. George's Hall last night.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Manning, Mr. Cox, Dr. Barrick and Mr. Jeffrey for the active interest they took in opposing the passage of the Waters Bill.

The street railway agreement. In thanking the members for the expression of their appreciation Mr. Manning concluded by exhorting the committee which undertook to deal with the street railway proposition that it should be done carefully if it was going to consider the proposition made by the Railway Company, as the latter certainly were not considering the interests of the city when they proposed to amend the agreement.

From the floor point of view he could not discern a nail upon which a reason could be found for making a change in the present agreement.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course. He then started to read the correspondence with Russia bearing upon the establishment of a new sealery in the Behring Sea, but he was interrupted by the seal fisheries, which he considered as a matter of course.

PASSENGERS SERIOUSLY INJURED

A Suburban Car Leaves the Track When Going at High Speed—Those Who Were Hurt.

Shortly after 5 o'clock car No. 6 of the Suburban Street Railway was rounding the curve on the Devonport road, opposite the residence of Mr. J. Blum, it left the track. The car was travelling at a high rate of speed and the wheels of the rails there was a sudden shock, which caused injury to every occupant.

J. M. Mansour, inspector of lamp lighting for the Toronto Gas Company, residing at 16 Carlton-street, was standing on the back platform and was thrown from the car, striking on his head and sustaining a severe injury to his head and dislocating his wrist. He was conveyed to his home by Mr. Alan Royce of Devonport-road and a rib broken and was severely shaken up.

Motorman Alanson and Conductor Howard were also shaken up.

Mrs. Walker of Union-street, Toronto Junction, was thrown from one end of the car to the other, sustaining internal injuries, the extent of which has not been ascertained.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

New Bedford, Mass., June 13.—Another big crowd was present at the Boston trial today. The case was heard by Judge John D. Dolan. The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

ANGELICANS IN CONFERENCE

The Bishop Pleads for Aid for St. Alban's Cathedral—A Proposal to Remove Obnoxious Restrooms—Suggested Division of Toronto Bishops—Two Synods at Vernon—The Clergy Fund.

The Anglican Synod opened in St. James' school house yesterday. There was a large attendance of black-coated rectors and laymen in business suits. After the celebration of the Holy Communion the Little Rock Bishop of Toronto commenced his address at 11.30.

His address was for an hour, and gave a thorough review of the history and progress of the diocese, touching on the questions of the future and devoting considerable attention to the good showing of the diocese in the past.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

IMPORTANT PROCEEDINGS IN THE SYNOD YESTERDAY.

The Bishop Pleads for Aid for St. Alban's Cathedral—A Proposal to Remove Obnoxious Restrooms—Suggested Division of Toronto Bishops—Two Synods at Vernon—The Clergy Fund.

The Anglican Synod opened in St. James' school house yesterday. There was a large attendance of black-coated rectors and laymen in business suits. After the celebration of the Holy Communion the Little Rock Bishop of Toronto commenced his address at 11.30.

His address was for an hour, and gave a thorough review of the history and progress of the diocese, touching on the questions of the future and devoting considerable attention to the good showing of the diocese in the past.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

DICKSON & TOWNSEND
General Auctioneers
Licensed by the Government
100 KING STREET WEST, (CORNER GERRARD)
ONE CENT.

ONE CENT.

IMPORTANT PROCEEDINGS IN THE SYNOD YESTERDAY.

The Bishop Pleads for Aid for St. Alban's Cathedral—A Proposal to Remove Obnoxious Restrooms—Suggested Division of Toronto Bishops—Two Synods at Vernon—The Clergy Fund.

The Anglican Synod opened in St. James' school house yesterday. There was a large attendance of black-coated rectors and laymen in business suits. After the celebration of the Holy Communion the Little Rock Bishop of Toronto commenced his address at 11.30.

His address was for an hour, and gave a thorough review of the history and progress of the diocese, touching on the questions of the future and devoting considerable attention to the good showing of the diocese in the past.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.

The evidence of yesterday again shows the evidence of the accident.