SPEECH FROM THRON Reviews Measures Adopted Dur ing the Session.

OTTAWA, July 1.—(Canadian Pre Dispatch.)—Parliament was proregue by the governor-general this aftern after a session lasting rather m than four months. The principal measure ures adopted during the session A franchise act.

Increase in pensions. Establishment of state insurance returned soldiers. Further provision for ettlement.

Continued authority for supervision the marketing of the wheat crop. Pr vision for the naval service, for a sistance to shipbuilding and for the service. Taxation adopted broke fresh grou in the imposition of a new form ing luxuries. SPEECH FROM THRONE.

In the speech from the throne the governor-general said: "Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate: "Gentlemen of the House of Com-"In relieving you from further attend ance in Parliament I am happy to recall that your labors during the session have resulted in many beneficial sion have resulted in many beneficial enactments.

"You have given to the Franchise Act the long and careful deliberation which the importance of this measure amply justified. It embodies provisions which should insure the preparation of fair and impartial lists at all future elections. aration of fair and impartial lists at all future elections.

"The liberal increases in pensions which have been granted, the establishment of a scheme of state insurance for returned soldiers and the further provisions concerning the settlement of soldiers upon the land have shown your determination to take every practical means of fulfilling just obligations towards those who have rendered to our country such conspicuous service.

TAXATION. "In the taxation measures which have been adopted you have courage-ously taken account of a difficult financial situation and it may be conidently expected that they will maerially increase the revenues: "You have wisely made provision to continue authority for the supervision of the marketing of Canadian wheat crops, if ever this world's markets should render this the most advantageous method of protecting the interests of the Canadian people. The exercise of this authority will necessarily receive the most attentive and careful consideration from my advisers.

essarily receive the most attentive and careful consideration from my advisers. The measures providing for the control of fuel recognizes the full importance of this matter in the national economy and the need for insuring supplies to the greatest possible extent. You have adopted legislation with respect to shipbuilding which should result in the continued employment of many thousands of men hitherto engaged in that and associated industries. The provision made for the naval service wisely recognizes the importance service wisely recognizes the important of preserving a nucleus which can developed if need should arise. AIR SERVICE. "Provision for the air

Canada's peculiar geographical position and features it is highly important that the possibilities of this new method of communication and transportation should be fully explored. The air-board will be enabled to watch every new development and to take practical steps in the interests of aerial navigation in the Dominion.

"The measure for the education and enfranchisement of Indians constitutes an effective means of enabling these wards of the nation to make further advance to the responsibilities of citizenship. zenship.
"The settlement of the issues of the war still proceeds, but it is hoped that before another session the final treaties will have been concluded. After ob-taining your approval, the Government will have been concluded. After optaining your approval, the Government has sanctioned, on behalf of Canada, the ratification of the treaty with Bulgaria; the treaty with Hungary has been signed, but the treaty with Turkey is still under negotiation. WEST INDIES' TRADE.

"During the session, as the result of a conference between the Government and the governments of the British West Indian colonies, an important agreement was concluded with the object of rendering still closer trade relationships between Canada and these colonies and of improving the means of intercourse and communication. This agreement will be submitted to you in due course.
"Gentlemen of the House of Com-

ons:
"In His Majesty's name I thank you, or the provision you have made for he needs of the public service. "Honorable gentlemen of the Senate: "Gentlemen of the House of Com-"On your return to your homes I trust you will find such reassuring evi-dences of a bountiful harvest and of continued productiveness in every sphere of national activity as will enhance your confidence in the prosperity and stability of the Dominion in these critical times."

THE CLOSING HOURS. THE CLOSING HOURS.

The remaining hours in the House early this morning were spent in supply. Just before adjournment supply bills for $337,856,759 were passed. One of the last items to be passed was the $25,000,000 loan to the Grand Trunk Railway. Mr. Mackenzie King, leader of the Opposition, asked why the item had not been brought down in the main estimates. Hon. J. D. Reid, minister of railways, replied that auditors main estimates. Hon. J. D. Reid, minister of railways, replied that auditors had been at work investigating the situation and what money would be required. They were unable to proceed until the Grand Trunk bill was passed. At adjournment Hon. C. K. Doherty announced that business of the House had been complete and that Parliament would therefore prorogue at 2.30 this afternoon.

'GOD SAVE IRELAND" THE ONLY NATIONAL ANTHEM HE KNOWS

CHICAGO, July 2.—(Canadian Press CHICAGO, July 2.—(Canadian Press Dispatch)—"I know only one national anthem and that is "God Save Ireland," said Archbishop Daniel J. Mannix, of Melbourne, Australia, at a reception in the Auditorium Theater yesterday. Referring to charges that he had failed to stand up when "The Star Spangled Banner" was sung on board his ship, Archbishop Mannix said:

"I have been called a traitor to the British Empire. I never have been called an imbecile, and I would be one if I were to offer an insult to your flag
