OBITUARIES

Mrs. Jane P. Hoyt.

Entered into rest at Upper Clements on Monday, Dec. 24th, Mrs. Jane Purdy Hoyt, age 77 years, at the home of Mrs. George Purdy, where she had been boarding for the winter.

The deceased had only been seriously ill for about three weeks, although she had been in poor health for some time. She was held in high esteem by a large circle of friends in Deep Brook, Clements and St. Petersburg, Florida. A faithful wife, kind neighbor and sincere Christian, she was known as Aunt Jane by a host of friends.

Mrs. Hoyt was twice married, her first husband was Norman Burns, of Clements, her second, Rev. A. A. Hoyt, of St. Petersburg, Florida. After Mr. Hoyt's death she returned to Deep Brook.

The funeral service was held at the Methodist Church at Clements (where she and her first husband were active members for many years) on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 26th, conducted by Rev. M. H. McIntosh, of Annapolis, assisted by Rev. A. W. L. Smith, of Clements. Interment took place at Clements.

She is survived by one brother, Ernest Purdy, of Deep Brook.

George Thomas McCormick.

The death of George Thomas McCormick on the evening of Dec. 30th, removes another of Granville Centre's highly respected citizens.

Deceased, who was the second son of George and Elizabeth (Bent) McCormick, was born sixty-three years ago in the homestead farm, where he resided, until three years ago, when failing health made it necessary to remove to a smaller place. He will be remembered by many friends for his kind nature, genial and hospitable. His home was a place where young and old enjoyed themselves. He will be much missed in the community, especially in All Saints Church, where he was a devout and loyal member.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at the church, conducted by the Rector, Rev. Mr. Watson. Interment in the church yard immediately after.

To the widow, (formerly Miss Ada McCormick, of Granville Centre) and one brother, A. E. McCormick, the sympathy of all is extended.

Mrs. Arthur J. Bent.

The death took place on Jan. 5th at her home in Belleisle, after a four years' illness, of Mrs. Alfred J. Bent, in the eighty-first year of her age.

The deceased, formerly Miss Margaret J. Gesner, was a daughter of the late Geo. P. and Phoebe Gesner, of Belleisle. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon following services being conducted by Rev. Canon Underwood. The deceased left to

HEAVIER TOLL OF TROUT TAKEN

Due to Improved Roads and Popularity of the Auto.

Ottawa.—Improved roads and increased popularity of the automobile are resulting in a heavier toll of trout being taken from streams in the Maritime Provinces, according to officials of the Federal Fisheries Department.

To make good the anglers' inroads upon the fishing streams of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, the staffs of the Middleton, Windsor, Bedford and Margaree hatcheries have taken up the propagation of speckled or brook trout upon a more extensive scale than formerly.

Last season they prospected a large part of Nova Scotia in search of places where trout eggs were obtainable in reasonable quantities. Owing to the extent of the district to be covered only a small area was examined and no large finds made. The work will be carried on this year.

The funeral took place at Lawrencetown and was very largely attended by acquaintances from all parts of the Province.—Herald.

WINTER HARD ON BABY

The Winter season is a hard one on the baby. He is more or less confined to stuffy, badly ventilated rooms. It is so often stormy that the mother does not get him out in the fresh air as often as she should. He catches colds which rack his little system; his stomach and bowels get out of order and he becomes peevish and cross. To guard against this the mother should keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house. They regulate the stomach and bowels, and break up colds. The new sales tax will not increase the price of Baby's Own Tablets, as the company pays the tax. You can still obtain the Tablets through any medicine dealer at 25 cents a box, or by mail post paid from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WILL HELP SHIPMENTS OF FLOUR

Temporary Removal of Discriminating Rates Will Strengthen Trade. Canadian Atlantic Ports Expected to Benefit by New Order.

Ottawa.—Discriminatory rates on shipments of Canadian flour to the United Kingdom have been removed temporarily and efforts are being put forth to make the change permanent. It was announced at the Department of Trade and Commerce.

For several years a discriminatory rate, averaging about five cents per hundred pounds, or ten cents per barrel, has been charged upon all ocean shipments of Canadian flour to the United Kingdom, in excess of the rate applied to similar shipments from the United States. For several years the quantity of Canadian flour shipped to the United Kingdom has been on the increase, while United States shipments have declined. Removal of the surcharge will, it is believed, still further strengthen the Canadian trade.

Hon. T. A. Low, Minister of Trade and Commerce, gave consideration to this matter shortly after assuming office. As a result of representations made by the Canadian flour trade, Canadian representatives at the Imperial economic conference brought up the question and it was referred to the Imperial Shipping Committee for action. As a result, the extra charge has been suspended and the Imperial Shipping Committee is considering the advisability of making the suspension permanent.

The Dominion's interests in the matter are being pressed by Hon. P. C. Larkin, Canadian High Commissioner, who is being kept informed through the Department of Trade and Commerce of Canadian developments. Levelling of the rates on Canadian flour shipments, it is claimed, by doing away with the trade and will benefit Western grain growers, the railways and Canadian Atlantic ports. Suspension of the surcharge, it is estimated, will mean an approximate reduction of two cents a bushel on the wheat coast basis.

OLD EARTH CELLAR BEST FOR APPLES

(Experimental Farms Note.)

One of the problems of the householder each year is what quantity of apples he can store economically, and another question, "Why did not my apples keep well last winter?" or "Is there any way by which I can keep them better this year?" This does not apply, of course, to those who are fortunate in having the old fashioned cellars without a furnace which was cool but frost-proof, and moist without being damp. It was and is in such a cellar that apples can be kept to the best advantage and where they will best retain their flavor. The nearer the conditions approach those in this old earth cellar the better the results will be. First, the fruit should be kept as cool as possible without freezing. If the temperature can be kept between 35 and 40 deg. F., this would be best.

OVERFLOWING MEASURE OF ENJOYMENT AT PRINCE EDWARD

"Spooks" Was The Feature of a Splendid Programme.

Pressed down and running over was the measure of entertainment given by the Young-Adams Company to a capacity house in the Prince Edward Theatre.

The big feature of the evening's performance was the sensational mystery play "Spooks", which was a delightful combination of thrills and comedy.

Miss Adams was quite at home in the role of the handsome young heiress, "Laurette Payne".

Mr. Young with his characteristic ability played the double parts of Silas Willoby, an old Secretary, and the determined Police Inspector Ryan who is bent on solving the mystery.

Mr. Redway, as Sam Morgan was exceptionally good, and kept the audience in roars of laughter.

Miss Young as "Marion Blackwell", Mr. Ball as "Douglas Blackwell", Mr. Stauffer as "Aunt Judy" gave strong support. Mr. MacMillan as "Officer Holden" had little to do, but did it well.

The specialties as usual were excellent, with some changes in the acts. As an extra specialty Mr. Willoby Young recited "Lasca" and as an encore, "The Charge of the Light Brigade."

There was also an uproarious one act farce to complete a memorable programme.

On Monday afternoon the Company entertained the children of St. Vincent's Orphanage and at night presented East Lynne.

The Wilmot-Young Company are becoming more popular the longer they stay.

This popular company will appear at the Primrose Theatre, Bridgetown, Friday and Saturday, 18th and 19th, the opening play will be "DORA DEAN" a modern Cinderella, after the book all new Vaudeville and wonderful JAZZ orchestra.

Seats sale open one week in advance.

"SPOOKS" will be the play Saturday night.

Saturday, Jan. 19th, is Mr. Young's birthday, so look out for a Big Night.

The matter will be formally dealt with at the annual business meeting that comes on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mr. Prosser will give his full time after March 1st to various phases of Social Service work. He will continue the work of the Children's Aid Society as Agent. He has accepted the office of Inspector of the Nova Scotia Temperance Act for the County, and has already been sworn in. His residence will continue to be in Bridgetown.

The annual meeting of the church will be held on Wednesday evening of this week. A supper will be served at sharp 7.30 to which the adult members and adherents of the church have already been invited.

The Senior C.G.I.T., World Wide Guild, Taxis Boys, and Sunday School officers and teachers met at the parsonage on Monday evening to discuss Sunday School and B.Y.P.U. work. The Pastor will preach at Centrelea next Sunday afternoon at 3.00 p.m.

At the Sunday evening service the Pastor preached from the word "Others". Cards bearing this word were distributed among the members of the congregation. It is the watchword for the year 1924.

GOING HOME

Good-by proud world, I'm going home, Though not my friend, and I'm not thine;

Long through the weary crowds I roam, A river-ark on the ocean brine, Long I've been tossed like the driven foam,

But now, proud world, I'm going home.

I'm going to my own hearth-stone Bosomed in yon green hills, alone, A secret nook in a pleasant land, Whose groves the frolic fairies planned.

Where arches green the livelong day Echo the blackbird's roundelay, And vulgar feet have never trod A spot that is sacred to thought and God.

Oh, when I am safe in my sylvan home I tread on the pride of Greece and Rome; And when I am stretched beneath the pines Where the evening star so holy shines, I laugh at the lore and the pride of man.

At the sophist schools, and the learned clan; For what are they all in their high conceit, When man in the bush with God may meet.

FRANC DOWN, BIRTHRATE UP

Paris.—While the franc goes down, the birthrate goes up, according to official statistics for the first three months of the year 1923. In the ninety departments there were 584,458 births in that period against 506,007 deaths, or an excess of 78,451 births.

BRITISH ASK POWERS IF DEBTS ARE IN PERIL

England is showing some anxiety over the repayment of the £50,000,000 which she lent Poland, Jugoslavia and Rumania in the war period and diplomatic inquiries are being made at Warsaw, Belgrade and Bucharest as to whether the discharge of these debts will be delayed or prejudiced by the 800,000,000 franc loan which these countries recently contracted from France.

The British view is that the British loans should have priority in payment, since they were contracted during the war.

France's action in lending so much money to these countries when she has not even paid the interest on her own debt to Great Britain has been a sore subject with the British Government and the French explanation that these loans were intended to provide Poland, Jugoslavia and Rumania with arms so that they could enforce the terms of the existing treaties has not relieved the irritation of British officials. The view is held in some quarters that England ought to make demand upon France for the payment of the £600,000,000 France owes England, or at least the interest upon it. It is considered unlikely in well informed quarters, however, that the British government will make any such request unless the United States should set a precedent.

WHY THE BRITISH ARE POOR

Actually the French people are in a better position to pay their war debts than the British, who are making a desperate effort to do so. The chief difference between them is that in England the government has the money and the government goes short. In other words, the French government won't tax its people to the extent necessary to make a war debt payment possible. The British government does. France prefers to wait and get the money first out of Germany. Britain, too, hopes to get the money eventually out of the Germans, but in the meantime starts to pay her own debts. This is the reason why the British government is in a better position than the French Government and can keep its coinage stable, while the French people have more spending money than the unfortunate British.—(Los Angeles Times).

TWO SHARKS KILL A WHALE

An ocean traveller has this in his Diary:

"It was late afternoon and we were just rounding Saint Ann's Shoals off the West coast of Africa, when we noticed great splashes in the water about a mile off the port bow.

"On focusing our glasses we soon made out a large whale with two thrasher sharks fastened to it. As we drew nearer, we noticed that the huge mammal was almost exhausted, and the thrashers, realizing this, renewed their efforts. The whale was too far gone to dive, splashed its tail feebly. The end came soon, the thrashers lifted their long bodies, measuring probably twenty feet, far out of the water, beating the last fighting spark from the great body. It was indeed a strange sight, one of the cruellest the sea offers."
