

- Frontenac sets out against, 200; the revolution in, 223; plans a combined attack on Canada, 246, 268; instigates the Iroquois to attack Canada, 393; projected conquest by the French of, 403; 415; tries to prevent the proposed peace between the French and the Iroquois, 420; the Earl of Bellomont commissioned governor of, 429.
- New York, town of, 196; 247.
- Niagara, 88, 103; the rendezvous at, 116; Dongan's plan to build a fort at, 130; Denonville projects a fort at, 133; 150, 151, 153; Denonville builds a fort at, 162.
- Niagara, Fort, built by Denonville, 162; Dongan demands the demolition of, 169; its maintenance of great importance to the colony, 173; malignant diseases at, 173; demolished by Denonville, 174.
- Niagara River, the, 162.
- Nicholson, Captain, letter from Robert Livingston to, 227.
- "Nicomede," performed at Quebec, 340.
- Niles, on the capture of York, 369; on the repulse of the French at Wells, 374; the story of Hannah Dustan, 407.
- Nipissing Indians, the, trading at Montreal, 264.
- Nipissing, Lake, 266.
- Noblesse*, the Canadian, 408.
- Noddle's Island, 402.
- Normandie, the regiment of, 7; 477, 480.
- Norton, fortified house of, 126.
- Nova Scotia, 197, 353, 387.
- Nuns, the, at Quebec, 76, 122.
- OHIO RIVER, the, 173.
- Ohio, the, valley of, 417.
- Ohniagero (Niagara), 130.
- Ojibwa Indians, the, 116, 152; trading at Montreal, 264; at the grand council, 471.
- Oldmixon, on the capture of the forts at Hudson's Bay, 140.
- Onas, the Iroquois name for the governor of Pennsylvania, 97.
- Oneida Indians, the, promise friendship to the English, 95; capture the Jesuit Milet, 150; Denonville plans an attack on, 177; join the English against Montreal, 258; 324; join Schuyler against the French, 327; refuse to make peace with the French, 422; beg peace from Frontenac, 434; Governor Fletcher sends corn to, 436.
- Oneida, town of, 98; destroyed by Vaudreuil, 435.
- Onondaga, the Iroquois capital, 82; Charles Le Moyne sent as envoy to, 87; Viele sent as envoy to, 97; the lodges of, 98; the site of, 98; 182, 184, 205; the grand council at, 206; on fire, 433; fortified by the English, 434; description of, 434.
- Onondaga Indians, the, promise friendship to the English, 95; the number of, 98; act as mediators between the Senecas and the French, 102; Otréouati asserts the independence of, 102; La Barre asks the mediation of, 109; their generosity toward Lamberville, 149; Denonville plans an attack on, 177; 324; refuse to make peace with the French, 422; Frontenac marches against, 431; Governor Fletcher sends corn to, 436.