

sought to bring their friends to the Saviour.

Miss Leda J. Caldwell, of Summer-ville, N.S., has been appointed to the teaching department at Port Simpson, B.C., and by the time these notes are published she will probably have reached the scene of her important duties.

The Theological College at Montreal has had a prosperous year. Rev. Dr. Carman, General Superintendent, preached the convocation sermon. A farewell fellowship meeting was held on Sabbath morning, at which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered. The service was one of great spirituality.

The number of students in attendance was seventy, three of whom took the degree of B.A. in the McGill University; thirty-one students also have pursued the Licentiates' course during their three years' residence. The total number of students who have passed through the institution is 238. The staff of the college should be increased. Dr. Antliff, to the regret of many, returns to the pastorate.

During the session the students have been well employed in Christian work, such as preaching and teaching in Sabbath-schools. They have preached 189 sermons at the Old Brewery Mission. The students have resolved to support a missionary in Japan, and have also undertaken to defray the expenses of sending a missionary to China.

The degree of D.D. was conferred upon Rev. Professor Scrimger, Presbyterian; Samuel P. Rose, and Geo. Brown, F.R.G.S., Wesleyan Missionary Secretary, New South Wales.

The valedictorian was Mr. A. Logan. Dr. Carman, Dr. McVicar, Dr. Scrimger, and Dr. W. J. Hunter, delivered earnest and eloquent addresses. Dr. Carman agreed to give $100 to the Endowment Fund.

Twelve prizes were awarded to successful students. The Convocation was the best in the history of the college.

The final Convocation of Victoria University at Cobourg was held in May. More than ordinary interest was felt in the various services.

Sermons were preached on Sabbath by Rev. Dr. Rose and Dr. A. Sutherland. Chancellor Burwash addressed the graduating class in well-chosen words. The number of undergraduates, including those who are now added to the list of graduates, is unusually large.

Rev. W. S. Blackstock delivered the lecture before the Theological Union on the Atonement, which was greatly eulogized.

In addition to the prizes which have long been awarded at the Convocation, a new one of $50 gold has been given by Rev. Dr. Fawcett, in honour of his father, Rev. M. Fawcett, a superannuated minister of Toronto Conference. This prize will be given annually to the student who shall deliver the best oration on John Wesley.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Rev. Dr. Lambeth, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, has fallen at his post at Kobe, Japan. He was the oldest missionary in the Church, and commenced his career in China in 1852. After labouring in China until 1886, he was transferred to Japan, and in spite of advancing years began the work of planting a new mission with apostolic ardour. His dying message to the Church at home was: "I fell at my post, send more men."

Rev. W. Box was a Wesleyan missionary in the West Indies. He was born of Wesleyan parentage, was converted when sixteen, and soon became a local preacher. In 1828 he was accepted as a candidate for the ministry and appointed to Jamaica. His life was often in peril, he suffered grievous persecutions, even imprisonment, but he had the satisfaction of seeing the abolition of the cursed system of slavery. After labouring eight years abroad, domestic affliction compelled him to return to England, where for thirty-one years he was stationed to circuit work. He died on Good Friday, aged eighty-nine.
