

THE FIRST VISIT TO THE GRAVE OF MY WIFE.

Deep on thy grave lies the frozen snow, All cold and spotted white; And thou art laid in thy couch below, For a long cold winter's night.

The snow shall melt, the frost be gone, The winter will wear away, And spring her best verdure again put on, Triumphant with all flowers gay.

I'll come again, when the grass is green, And waves gently o'er thy breast; As evening falls in a shy serenade, And visit thy house of rest.

But not for ever beneath the sod The precious dust shall lie; For thou didst trust in thy Saviour God, And he gave thee "the victory."

A day shall dawn when thee shalt rise From thy slumber, no freak and fair As cherub and seraph above the skies, Or the blessed angels are.

O, when that morn on the world shall break, May I, through mercy forgiven, Thee meet thee again, for the Saviour's sake, In the soulless rest of heaven!

THE FIRST VISIT TO THE GRAVE OF MY WIFE.

Night, January 6th. Deep on thy grave lies the frozen snow, All cold and spotted white; And thou art laid in thy couch below, For a long cold winter's night.

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

THERE is issued every fortnight, in the quarto form, by an Association of Christian Ministers, at Boston, a new paper called the "Signs of the Times and Expounder of Prophecy," which, for more than a year and a half, has been assiduously engaged in disseminating evidence touching the SECOND ADVENT.

The labour is to prove that we are in the last days! and, having paid particular attention to it, from the beginning of the second volume, the Agent earnestly and respectfully commends it to all who honestly seek truth—are grateful for it when found—and who purpose, at any cost, steadily to cherish and defend it.

The "Signs of the Times" is not a "learned" paper, but neither is it offensive to any unlearned one. As a help to the understanding of prophecy, it is bold, serious, argumentative and curious—well worth the purchase money—and where this is said, no trifle can provoke the imprudent risk of a reputation.

The price of subscription is 5s. per annum, exclusive of U. S. postage. A. J. WILLIAMSON, Agent, No. 104, Post Office, Toronto. Orders from a distance to be sent post paid. Toronto, Oct. 6, 1841.
