PROSPECTUS OF "THE LIBERAL," TORONTO.

MESSEURS JOHN CAMERON & CO., PUBLISHERS OF THE "LONDON ADVERTISER," having determined to extend their publications to Toronto, the capital and centre of the Province, arrangements are now nearly completed for the carrying out of the project. It was at first their intention to carry the name which had served them so well in London to Toronto, and to issue the paper under the name of the "MORNING ADVERTISER," but a preliminary prospectus was issued to that effect. Legal difficulties, however, having been thrown in the way of their using the name, (by the publisher of a journal, issued in this city, bearing a somewhat similar title) Messrs. JOHN CAMERON & CO. have decided rather than enter into litigation over a disputed point of law, to adopt the name of— THE LIBERAL, TORONTO.
Their publications will then consist of the following journals:
THE LIBERAL, published daily at Toronto;
THE DAILY ADVERTISER, published at London;
THE WEEKLY LIBERAL and WESTERN ADVERTISER, issued at Toronto and London.
THE LIBERAL will commence its career as a 32-column journal, well printed on good paper, and will be enlarged as rapidly as advertising patronage makes additional demands on our space. The Parliamentary Reports will be well condensed and thoroughly impartial. To that end the services of able and experienced stenographers have been secured. The publishers believe the public will appreciate a journal edited in a pithy and readable style, and which will aim at quality rather than quantity. The editorial course includes several of the ablest journalists in Canada, and the public may expect THE LIBERAL to take an immediate position in the front rank of Canadian journals.
The first issue of THE LIBERAL will make its appearance about the 20th of January.
It is the expectation of the publishers of the "LONDON DAILY ADVERTISER," that the additional news facilities which will be at their disposal, to make that paper one of the best informed journals in the Province, outside of Toronto.
The circulation of our eight-page weekly, now over 14,000 copies, will present to the business men of Toronto, London and Ontario generally, the most widely-read medium of communication—with one exception—in the Province, and it is believed that within a limited period from this date the circulation of the paper will be at least 20,000 copies. It will be the aim of the publishers to make it the best weekly in Canada. They have pleasure in announcing, as one of its features for 1875, a first-class Agricultural and Horticultural Department, specially edited for THE WEEKLY LIBERAL and WESTERN ADVERTISER, by M. W. CHAIKIE, for some years editor of the Canada Farmer.
Literally the publishers have no new departure to announce. While maintaining the standard of outspoken and independent journalism they will in the future as in the past, be staunchly and progressively Liberal in their views and utterances, and continue to extend cordial support to the friends of Liberty respectively of Mr. Mackenzie and Mr. Mowat.
THE LIBERAL will be issued daily from the office, 67 Yonge Street, east side, second door south of King Street. Subscription price 10 cents per week, or $3.00 per year prepaid. Single copies 2 cents. The subscription price of THE WEEKLY LIBERAL and WESTERN ADVERTISER is $1.50 per annum, payable strictly in advance.
JOHN CAMERON & CO. Toronto, December 23, 1874.
