

MOOSWA OF THE BOUNDARIES

By W. A. FRASER.

IN the October number of THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE there will commence a series of animal tales by W. A. Fraser whose short stories have been a feature of recent issues. Mr. Fraser studied the animal life of the Canadian North-West during five or six seasons. He has embodied his observations in a charming animal story in which Mooswa, the Moose; Umisk, the Beaver; Carcajou, the Wolverine; the Black Fox; the Red Widow; the Whiskey Jack and others play the leading parts. New York and London critics believe this story is the best of its kind that has ever been produced, surpassing even the famous Jungle Stories which made Mr. Kipling famous. THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE has been fortunate in obtaining the exclusive Canadian serial rights.

Every boy will want this story read to him; and every father and mother will enjoy reading it to the family circle.

Each of the tales is independent in itself but all deal with the same community of animals who talk, joke, laugh and work together in a most interesting manner.

Nobody should miss this healthy tale.

W. A. FRASER.

OTHER FEATURES.

The October number will contain several other valuable contributions. Principal Grant will describe the industrial development of Northern Ontario about Sault Ste. Marie. C. W. Nash, author of several works on Canadian birds, will contribute an article on "Swans, Geese and Marsh Ducks," the first of two articles on "The Wild Fowl of Ontario." Professor Pelham Edgar will analyze recent criticisms of Canadian Poetry. Arthur H. U. Colquhoun will write of "Eight General Elections," and M. E. Nichols of the chances of the two great parties in the approaching general elections. R. L. Richardson, M.P., will continue his articles on Government Ownership of Railways. There will be several short stories as usual.

The Canadian Magazine,

25 cents per number.
$2.50 per annum.

Toronto.