HYMNS FOR THE CHURCH.

N.B.—The Hymns are fitted to the Tunes used in Churches...

LXXII.—THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

The Collect. Lord, we beseech Thee, grant Thy people grace to withstand...

Lord, grant Thy people grace To resist the foe to stand: "The World"—the Flesh—the Tempter's wile— Beset Thy chosen band.

Lord, grant Thy people grace To make their calling sure; And "Follow Take"—the only God, With heart and mind made pure.

The means of Grace are given— Thy proofs of LOVE abound; That "waiting" Christ, the Christian may At last be "BLESSED" found!

Against that Gadarean crew Can favour'd souls rebel? Ah! child of God, take heed—and fear— The "Chosen" People fell!

Make them thy calling sure; Be God's OBEEDIENT child; Cast out each proud rebellious thought; Be pure—be undefiled!

Oh, "LOVE THE LORD THY GOD" With Heart, and Soul, and Will! Oh, "LOVE THY NEIGHBOUR AS THYSELF!" And Be God's "Chosen" still!

A VILLAGE STORY.

(From "Records of a good man's life," by the Rev. C. B. Taylor, M. A.)

I have seldom seen a person whose appearance was not disgustingly ugly, so extremely plain as Martha...

"I have known Sarah Wickham, this child's mother," she said, "since we were girls together...

Martha's godchild grew up a sensible, modest young woman, to the astonishment of every one who knew her parents' characters...

him, this dog being tied up all day in a shed behind the house, and as Martha suspected, taken out by his master at night...

"The storm, however, did overtake Martha, but just as she was about to be carried off by the wind...

"The rest of the party came; one of them, a large heavy man, limping slowly along, and as he entered, crying in a drawing whining voice...

"I find it cold enough, I can tell you, sometimes, boys!" "No, no, the yard, not the porch," said another...

"This wife is a cousin of Susan Wickham's," said Martha, "and both Susan and I have offered scores of times to sit up with Willis...

A few weeks after this conversation, George Woodman and Susan were married; and Martha, and James her nephew, went up with the party to church...

no," she replied, "I need no guard, for you know, Mary, I have walked this way at all hours. Well, God bless you all!"
