

CANADIAN INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITY

The Mandate

The legislation that founded the Canadian Institute for International Peace and Security came into force 15 August 1984. It states in part that:

The purpose of the Institute is to increase knowledge and understanding of the issues relating to international peace and security from a Canadian perspective, with particular emphasis on arms control, disarmament, defence and conflict resolution, and to

- a) foster, fund and conduct research on matters relating to international peace and security;
- b) promote scholarship in matters relating to international peace and security;
- c) study and propose ideas and policies for the enhancement of international peace and security; and
- d) collect and disseminate information on, and encourage public discussion of, issues of international peace and security.
