

approval by the aeronautical authorities of Canada and, where appropriate, of the other State. The tariffs to be charged by a designated airline of Canada for carriage between Hong Kong and a State other than Canada shall be subject to approval by the aeronautical authorities of Hong Kong and, where appropriate, of the other State.

- (b) No tariff shall be approved for such carriage unless it has been filed by the designated airline seeking that approval with the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party, in such form as those aeronautical authorities may require to disclose the particulars referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article not less than 45 days (or such shorter period as those aeronautical authorities may in a particular case agree) prior to the proposed effective date.
- (c) The Contracting Party which has approved a tariff for such carriage may withdraw its approval of that tariff on giving 90 days' notice to the designated airline of the other Contracting Party applying the tariff and that tariff shall cease to be applied by that designated airline at the end of that period.

(11) The aeronautical authorities of a Contracting Party may require that the rate of commission paid by a designated airline to an agent in respect of tickets sold or air waybills completed by that agent for carriage on scheduled air services originating in the area of that Contracting Party shall be filed for approval by them in accordance with the above procedures. Where rates of commission are subject to such approval the airlines shall pay only those rates which have been approved.

ARTICLE 11

Provision of Statistics

The aeronautical authorities of a Contracting Party shall supply to the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party at their request such periodic or other statements of statistics as may be reasonably required for the purpose of reviewing the capacity provided on the agreed services by the designated airlines of the Contracting Party referred to first in this Article. Such statements shall include all information required to determine the amount of traffic carried by those airlines on the agreed services and the origins and destinations of such traffic.

Airline Representation and Sales

(1) The designated airline or airlines of one Contracting Party shall be entitled, on the basis of reciprocity and in accordance with the laws and regulations relating to entry, residence and employment of the other Contracting Party, to bring in and maintain in the area of the other Contracting Party those of their own managerial,
