

Of the major species caught off New England, only scallop and lobster showed growth in recent years. As mentioned above, New Bedford benefitted significantly from this development.

NEW ENGLAND COMMERCIAL LANDINGS OF SELECTED SPECIES
(000 TONNES)

	1980	1987	CHANGE	%
Herring	83	38	-45	-54%
Cod	54	27	-27	-50%
Haddock	25	3	-22	-88%
Flounders	51	30	-21	-41%
Lobster	17	21	+ 4	+24%
Scallops	13	14	+ 1	+ 8%
Others	132	114	-18	-14%
	---	---	---	---
	375	247	-128	-34%