

Jobs in the service sector are available for teenagers. Minimum wage is US$3.39.

Boston

Reciprocal Employment Agreement: Yes
Approximate number of spouses working as locally engaged staff: 0
Community Coordinator contract work exists: Yes
Registered Nurse position exists at the mission: No

The availability of jobs in Boston and its suburbs is greater than in Canada. The selection of employees for positions depends upon the qualifications and experience of the applicant. There have been no problems with the Reciprocal Employment Agreement except for ordinary delays.

Buffalo

Reciprocal Employment Agreement: Yes
Approximate number of spouses working as locally engaged staff: 0
Community Coordinator contract work exists: No
Registered Nurse position exists at the mission: No

While unemployment in the Buffalo area was high in the early 1980s due to the loss of manufacturing jobs, the local economy has stabilized to the point where unemployment is consistent with national averages. The best job opportunities are in the service sector.

Chicago

Reciprocal Employment Agreement: Yes
Approximate number of spouses working as locally engaged staff: 0
Community Coordinator contract work exists: Yes
Registered Nurse position exists at the mission: No

The job market is similar to that in Canada. Part-time or summer employment for teenagers and students is quite readily available.

Cleveland

Reciprocal Employment Agreement: Yes
Approximate number of spouses working as locally engaged staff: 0
Community Coordinator contract work exists: Yes
Registered Nurse position exists at the mission: No

Salaries are 15% to 20% lower than those in Canada.

Dallas

Reciprocal Employment Agreement: Yes
Approximate number of spouses working as locally engaged staff: 0